

Family Law (Scotland) Act 2006

Marriage

3 Abolition of marriage by cohabitation with habit and repute

- (1) The rule of law by which marriage may be constituted by cohabitation with habit and repute shall cease to have effect.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall affect the application of the rule in relation to cohabitation with habit and repute where the cohabitation with habit and repute—
  - (a) ended before the commencement of this section ("commencement");
  - (b) began before, but ended after, commencement; or
  - (c) began before, and continues after, commencement.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) shall affect the application of the rule in relation to cohabitation with habit and repute where—
  - (a) the cohabitation with habit and repute began after commencement; and
  - (b) the conditions in subsection (4) are met.

(4) Those conditions are—

- (a) that the cohabitation with habit and repute was between two persons, one of whom, ("A"), is domiciled in Scotland;
- (b) that the person with whom A was cohabiting, ("B"), died domiciled in Scotland;
- (c) that, before the cohabitation with habit and repute began, A and B purported to enter into a marriage ("the purported marriage") outwith the United Kingdom;
- (d) that, in consequence of the purported marriage, A and B believed themselves to be married to each other and continued in that belief until B's death;
- (e) that the purported marriage was invalid under the law of the place where the purported marriage was entered into; and
- (f) that A became aware of the invalidity of the purported marriage only after B's death.
