Functions of the Board

- 4.—(1) The Board is to exercise the following functions of the Scottish Ministers—
- (a) functions conferred by the Act in relation to—
 - (i) health education, including that specified in section 42 of the Act (health education),
 - (ii) the provision of research and development services in the field of public health, and
 - (iii) the collection, dissemination and analysis of epidemiological data and the participation in epidemiological investigations,
 - (b) examining data relating to prescriptions for drugs, medicines and appliances supplied under the arrangements for the provision of pharmaceutical services,
 - (c) the provision of information services in support of the functions conferred on the Board,
 - (d) the protection of public health including those specified in section 1 of the Public Health etc. (Scotland) Act 2008⁽²⁾ (duty of Scottish Ministers to protect public health), and
 - (e) functions specified in paragraph (2) subject to any limitations specified in that paragraph.
- (2) The functions specified for the purposes of paragraph (1)(e) are as follows:
- (a) the power of the Scottish Ministers under section 16 of the Act⁽³⁾ to assist any voluntary organisations whose activities include the provision of a service similar or related to a service provided by the Board under the Act,
 - (b) the power of the Scottish Ministers to give financial assistance to voluntary organisations under section 16B of the Act⁽⁴⁾ limited to assisting such organisations to which that section would apply if the expression “relevant service” as defined in section 16B(3) were limited to the provision of services provided by the Board,
 - (c) the duty of the Scottish Ministers under section 37 of the Act to make arrangements to such extent as the Board considers necessary in relation to its functions for the purposes of the prevention of illness, the care of persons suffering from illness or the after-care of such persons,

⁽²⁾ 2008 asp 5.

⁽³⁾ Section 16 was amended by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (c.22), schedule 3, paragraph 13 and by the Health Services Act 1980 (c.53), schedule 7.

⁽⁴⁾ Section 16B was inserted by the Health and Social Services and Social Security Adjudications Act 1983 (c.41), section 3.

 - (e) the duty and power of the Scottish Ministers under section 47 of the Act (educational and research facilities),
 - (f) the powers of the Scottish Ministers under section 79(1) of the Act(5) to take on lease or to purchase moveable property or land which is required for the purposes of the Board and to use for those purposes and manage any heritable or moveable property so acquired,
 - (g) the power of the Scottish Ministers under section 79(1A) of the Act(6) to dispose of land no longer required for the purposes of the Board,
 - (h) the powers of the Scottish Ministers under section 84B of the Act(7) (joint ventures) so far as relating to the functions of the Board,
 - (i) the power of the Scottish Ministers under paragraph 4 of schedule 1 of the Act(8) (health boards), as applied in relation to the Board by article 5, to pay remuneration to the chairman of the Board and to such other members of the Board and of the committees and sub-committees of the Board as may be prescribed, but this does not extend to the power—
 - (i) to determine remuneration, or
 - (ii) to prescribe the members of the Board and of committees and sub-committees of the Board to whom it may be paid,
 - (j) the power of the Scottish Ministers under paragraph 13 of schedule 1 of the Act (health boards), as applied in relation to the Board by article 5, to pay to members of the Board, any committees and sub-committees, travelling and other allowances, but this does not extend to the power to determine the amount of such allowances, and
 - (k) the powers of the Scottish Ministers referred to in section 7(1) of the Health and Medicines Act 1988(9) (extension of powers of secretary of state for financing the health service).
- (3) In exercising any functions of the Scottish Ministers to acquire, use, manage or dispose of land the Board must ensure—
- (a) that any instrument in connection with the exercise of those functions is in the name of the Scottish Ministers and not that of the Board, and
 - (b) that, where any such instrument requires to be executed by the Scottish Ministers, and it is not executed in accordance with section 1(8) of the Reorganisation of Offices (Scotland) Act 1939(10), it is executed on their behalf in accordance with—
 - (i) paragraph 6 of schedule 2 of the Requirements of Writing (Scotland) Act 1995(11), or
 - (ii) regulation 5 of the Electronic Documents (Scotland) Regulations 2014(12).
- (4) Nothing in this Order will prevent or restrict the following persons from exercising any function under the Act or any other enactment specified in this Order—

(5) Section 79(1) was amended by the National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990 (c.19), section 66(1) and schedule 9, paragraph 19(15)(a).

(6) Section 79(1A) was inserted by the Health and Social Services and Social Security Adjudications Act 1983 (c.41), section 14(2) and schedule 7, paragraph 3 and was amended by the Requirements of Writing (Scotland) Act 1995 (c.7), schedule 5, paragraph 1.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order constitutes, under article 3, a Special Health Board for the whole of Scotland to be known as Public Health Scotland (the “Board”). In accordance with article 1 the Order comes into force on 7 December 2019, except articles 6 and 7, which relate to the dissolution of the Special Health Board known as NHS Health Scotland, and the consequential amendments in paragraphs 1(2)(a) and 2 to 16 of schedule 2, which come into force on 1 April 2020.

Article 4 of the Order confers on the new Board functions in relation to:

(76) S.S.I. 2018/67.

(77) S.I. 2019/703.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Public Health Scotland Order 2019. (See end of Document for details)

- health education, including that specified in section 42 of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 (“the Act”),
- the provision of research and development services in the field of public health,
- the collection, dissemination and analysis of epidemiological data and the participation in epidemiological investigations,
- examining data relating to prescriptions for drugs, medicines and appliances supplied under the arrangements for the provision of pharmaceutical services,
- the provision of information services in support of the functions conferred on the Board, and
- the protection of public health including those specified in section 1 of the Public Health etc. (Scotland) Act 2008.

Article 4 also enables the Board to exercise in connection with its functions, certain functions of the Scottish Ministers, such as the giving of assistance to voluntary organisations, the duty to make arrangements for the purposes of the prevention of illness and in connection with the acquisition, management and disposal of property.

Article 5 and schedule 1 apply various provisions to the Board in enactments which apply to Health Boards in general. These include provisions as to the funding of Health Boards and the keeping and auditing of accounts, provisions in schedule 1 of the Act including those for appointment and remuneration of Board members and staff and other provisions in statutory instruments relating to Health Boards.

Article 6 dissolves the Special Health Board known as NHS Health Scotland and revokes the enactments relating to its constitution.

Article 7 provides that the property and all other rights and liabilities of NHS Health Scotland will transfer to and vest in Public Health Scotland with effect from 1 April 2020.

Article 8 gives effect to the consequential amendments in schedule 2.

Status:

Point in time view as at 01/04/2020.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Public Health Scotland Order 2019.
