And whereas by Section 7 of the Act of 1866 it is enacted that the Urban Sanitary Authority may from time to time, under the authority of that Act, in addition to any moneys they have borrowed or are authorised to borrow under the Public Health Acts and under the Act of 1862, borrow at interest, on mortgage of the water rates and other revenue of the Urban Sanitary Authority arising therefrom, and of the improvement rate, as authorised by the Act of 1866, or of any of such securities, either together or separately, all such sums as they may from time to time think requisite for all or any of the purposes of the Act of 1862 and of the Act of 1866, not exceeding in the whole the sum of fifty thousand pounds ;

And whereas by Section 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875, the Local Government Board are empowered, on the application of the Sanitary Authority of any Sanitary District, by Provisional Order, wholly or partially to repeal, alter, or amend any Local Act, other than an Act for the conservancy of rivers, which is in force in any area comprising the whole or part of any such District, and not conferring powers or privileges on any persons or person for their or his own pecuniary benefit, which relates to the same subject-matters as the Public Health Act, 1875 ;

Art. IV. The Urban Sanitary Authority may from time to time re-borrow for the repayment of the moneys borrowed after the commencement of this Order under the Act of 1866 as hereby altered and amended.

Provided that any money so re-borrowed shall be repaid within the period within which the original loan in respect of which such moneys are re-borrowed would have been required to be repaid if such moneys had not been re-borrowed; and further, that no such re-borrowing shall affect the obligation of the Urban Sanitary Authority with respect to any sinking fund to be set aside, nor unless the re-borrowing be effected at different rate of interest, the amount of any instalment to be paid under the provisions of the Local Acts or this Order.
