

National Security Act 2023

2023 CHAPTER 32

PART 2

PREVENTION AND INVESTIGATION MEASURES

Changes concerning Part 2 notices

49 Revocation and revival of Part 2 notices

- (1) The Secretary of State may by notice (a "revocation notice") revoke a Part 2 notice at any time.
- (2) The revocation of a Part 2 notice takes effect when the revocation notice is served or, if different, at the time specified for this purpose in the revocation notice.
- (3) The individual to whom a Part 2 notice relates may make an application to the Secretary of State for the revocation of the Part 2 notice.
- (4) The Secretary of State must consider an application made under subsection (3).
- (5) The power under subsection (1) is exercisable whether or not an application has been made under subsection (3).
- (6) The Secretary of State may by notice (a "revival notice") at any time revive a Part 2 notice which—
  - (a) has expired—
    - (i) without being extended under section 41(2), or
    - (ii) having been extended under section 41(2) on fewer than four occasions, or
  - (b) has been revoked,

if conditions A, C and D are met.

(7) The power of revival may be exercised—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the National Security Act 2023, Section 49. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) under subsection (6)(a) or (b) whether or not the Part 2 notice has previously been revoked and revived, and
- (b) under subsection (6)(b) whether or not the Part 2 notice has been extended under section 41(2) (and regardless of how many times it has been so extended).
- (8) But the power of revival under subsection (6)(b) may not be exercised to revive a Part 2 notice which the Secretary of State was required to revoke by directions given by the court in relevant proceedings.
- (9) A Part 2 notice which is revived—
  - (a) comes back into force when the revival notice is served or, if later, at the time specified for this purpose in the revival notice,
  - (b) is in force—
    - (i) for the period of one year (in a case where the revived notice had expired), or
    - (ii) for the period of time for which the Part 2 notice would have continued in force if it had not been revoked (in a case where the revived notice had been revoked), and
  - (c) is treated as having been extended under section 41(2) on the same number of occasions (if any) as on which the revived notice had been so extended.
