2024 CHAPTER 12

An Act to make provision in connection with finance.

[24th May 2024]

Most Gracious Sovereign

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary supplies to defray Your Majesty's public expenses, and making an addition to the public revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and to grant unto Your Majesty the several duties hereinafter mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Income tax charge, rates etc

1 Income tax charge for tax year 2024-25

Income tax is charged for the tax year 2024-25.

2 Main rates of income tax for tax year 2024-25

For the tax year 2024-25 the main rates of income tax are as follows—

- (a) the basic rate is 20%,
- (b) the higher rate is 40%, and
- (c) the additional rate is 45%.

3 Default and savings rates of income tax for tax year 2024-25

(1) For the tax year 2024-25 the default rates of income tax are as follows—

- (a) the default basic rate is 20%,
- (b) the default higher rate is 40%, and

Status: Point in time view as at 24/05/2024.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance (No. 2) Act 2024. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the default additional rate is 45%.
- (2) For the tax year 2024-25 the savings rates of income tax are as follows—
 - (a) the savings basic rate is 20%,
 - (b) the savings higher rate is 40%, and
 - (c) the savings additional rate is 45%.

4 Freezing starting rate limit for savings for tax year 2024-25

- (1) For the tax year 2024-25 the amount specified in section 12(3) of ITA 2007 (the starting rate limit for savings) is “£5,000”.
- (2) Accordingly, section 21 of that Act (indexation) does not apply in relation to the starting rate limit for savings for that tax year.

High income child benefit charge

5 Increase in thresholds to £60,000 and £80,000

- (1) In—
 - (a) section 681B(1)(a) of ITEPA 2003 (liability to high income child benefit charge if person’s adjusted net income exceeds £50,000), and
 - (b) section 681C(2)(b) of that Act (amount of the charge), in the definition of “L”, for “£50,000” substitute £60,000”.
- (2) In section 681C(2)(b) of that Act, in the definition of “X” (which, in combination with the other parts of the formula, secures that there is a taper in the charge up to adjusted net incomes of £60,000), for “£100” substitute “£200”.
- (3) The amendments made by this section have effect for the tax year 2024-25 and subsequent tax years.
- (4) If—

 - (b) in consequence of the backdating of the entitlement, P is entitled to an amount in respect of child benefit for one or more weeks in the tax year 2023-24, the entitlement to those amounts is to be treated for the purposes of Chapter 8 of Part 10 of ITEPA 2003 as an entitlement to those amounts for weeks in the tax year 2024-25.
- (5) But subsection (4) does not apply if—
 - (a) ignoring the deeming in that subsection, there would be no liability (whether of P or anyone else) to a high income child benefit charge for the tax year 2023-24 in respect of those amounts, or
 - (b) P makes an election for that subsection not to apply.
- (6) P may make an election under subsection (5)(b) only if P reasonably considers that, in the absence of the election, P’s liability to a high income child benefit charge for the tax year 2024-25 in respect of those amounts would exceed P’s liability to that charge for the tax year 2023-24 in respect of those amounts.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/05/2024.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance (No. 2) Act 2024. (See end of Document for details)
