

British Law Ascertainment Act 1859

CHAPTER 63

BRITISH LAW ASCERTAINMENT ACT 1859

- 1 Courts in one part of Her Majesty's dominions may remit a case for the opinion in law of a court in any other part thereof.
- 2 Opinion to be authenticated and certified copy given.
- 3 Opinion to be applied by the court making the remit.
- 4 Her Majesty in Council or Supreme Court on appeal may adopt or reject opinion.
- 5 Interpretation of terms.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the British Law Ascertainment Act 1859.