

Town Police Clauses Act 1889

1889 CHAPTER 14 52 and 53 Vict

5 Licences may be granted for short periods. U.K.

Any licence may be granted under the principal Act to continue in force for such less period than one year as the Commissioners may think fit, and shall specify in the licence.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Town Police Clauses Act 1889, Section 5.