

SCHEDULE 1

Regulations 30, 52, 72 and 78

APPROVAL OF NAMES

1. Every application to the Registrar to approve a name shall specify a name which is in Roman letters; any numerals shall be in Roman or [^{F1}Arabic numerals].

F1 Words in Sch. 1 para. 1 substituted (21.3.1994) by The Merchant Shipping \(Registration of Ships\) \(Amendment\) Regulations 1994 \(S.I. 1994/541\), regs. 1, 16

Commencement Information

I1 Sch. 1 para. 1 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1\(1\)

2. In respect of an application to register a ship, other than a fishing vessel, on Parts I or IV of the Register, the Registrar shall not approve the proposed name if it is:—

- (a) already the name of a registered British ship, or
- (b) a name so similar to that of a registered British ship as to be calculated to deceive or likely to confuse;
- (c) a name which may be confused with a distress signal;
- (d) a name which is prefixed by any letters or name which could be taken to indicate a type of ship or any other word, pre-fix or suffix which might cause confusion as to the name of the ship.

Commencement Information

I2 Sch. 1 para. 2 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1\(1\)

3. In respect of an application to register a fishing vessel on Parts II or IV of the Register, the Registrar shall not approve the proposed name in it is:—

- (a) already the name of a vessel in its port of choice, or
- (b) a name so similar to that of a registered British fishing vessel in its port of choice as to be calculated to deceive or likely to confuse;
- (c) a name which may be confused with a distress signal;
- (d) a name which is prefixed by any letters or name which could be taken to indicate a type of ship or any other word, pre-fix or suffix which might cause confusion as to the name of the ship.

Commencement Information

I3 Sch. 1 para. 3 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1\(1\)

4. Subject to paragraph 5 below, if the Registrar is satisfied that a name does not fall within 2(a) to (d) or 3(a) to (d) he shall notify the applicant in writing that the name is approved and the ship may be registered with that name.

Commencement Information

I4 Sch. 1 para. 4 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1\(1\)

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships) Regulations 1993. (See end of Document for details)

5. Notwithstanding that the Registrar is satisfied as to paragraphs 2 or 3 he may refuse to approve a name—

- (a) which might cause offence or embarrassment;
- (b) which has a clear and direct connection with the Royal family;

Commencement Information

I5 Sch. 1 para. 5 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1(1)

6. Any approval given under paragraphs 2 or 3 shall be valid only for the period of 3 months beginning with the date it is notified to the applicant.

Commencement Information

I6 Sch. 1 para. 6 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1(1)

7. If the Registrar is not so satisfied he shall notify the applicant accordingly.

Commencement Information

I7 Sch. 1 para. 7 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1(1)

8. Notwithstanding paragraph 6, the Registrar may allow the reservation of a ship's name or designation for a period of 10 years if he is satisfied that:—

- (a) the ship is intended to replace another of the same name which is to be registered within 10 years of the date of the application, and
- (b) the applicant is the owner of a registered ship with the same name as that which is to be reserved and its British registration will be closed before the registration of the new vessel, or
- (c) the applicant is the owner of a registered ship with the same name as that which is to be reserved and it will be sold before the registration of the new vessel on condition that it changes its name and that its name is so changed.

Commencement Information

I8 Sch. 1 para. 8 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1(1)

9. Applications for a reservation under paragraph 8 must be accompanied by a full statement of the circumstances of the case.

Commencement Information

I9 Sch. 1 para. 9 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1(1)

10. Where a ship having once been registered has ceased to be registered, no person (unless ignorant of the previous registration, 9 (proof whereof will lie on him) shall apply for registration of the ship other than by the name by which it was previously registered except with the written permission of the Registrar.

SCHEDULE 3

Regulations 32, 34, 54 and 80

CARVING AND MARKING

1. Every ship is required, before it may be registered, to be marked permanently and conspicuously to the satisfaction of the Registrar in accordance with this Schedule.

Commencement Information

I13 Sch. 3 para. 1 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1(1)

2. The Secretary of State may exempt any class of ship from all or any of the requirements of this Schedule, subject to such conditions, if any, as he thinks fit.

Commencement Information

I14 Sch. 3 para. 2 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1(1)

3. Subject to any exemption in respect of that class of ship, a ship other than:—

- (a) a fishing vessel,
- (b) a pleasure vessel which is under 24 metres,

is to be marked as follows:

- (i) its name shall be marked on each of its bows, and its name and its port of choice must be marked on its stern;
- (ii) the marking is to be on a dark ground in white or yellow letters, or on a light ground in black letters, the letters being not less than 10 centimetres high and of proportional breadth; and
- (iii) its official number and the number denoting its registered tonnage shall be cut on its main beam or if that is not possible, marked or fixed thereon in the manner prescribed in paragraph 4(a) below.

Commencement Information

I15 Sch. 3 para. 3 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1(1)

4. A pleasure vessel which is under 24 metres in length is to be marked as follows:—
- (a) the official number and registered tonnage are:—
 - (i) to be marked on the main beam or, if there is no main beam, on a readily accessible visible permanent part of the structure of the pleasure vessel either by cutting in, centre punching or raised lettering, or
 - (ii) to be engraved on plates of metal, wood or plastic, secured to the main beam (or, if there is no main beam, to a readily accessible visible permanent part of the structure) with rivets, through bolts with the ends clenched, or screws with the slots removed;
 - (b) the name and port of choice (unless an exempted ship), are to be marked on a conspicuous and permanent part of the stern on a dark ground in white or yellow letters, or on a light ground in black letters, the letters being not less than 5 centimetres high and of proportionate breadth, or, where this is not possible by the alternative methods given below:—
 - (i) by engraving on plates of metal or of plastic or by cutting in on a shaped wooden chock. Where a shaped wooden chock is used it should be secured to the hull through bolts, the ends being clenched, or
 - (ii) by individual glass reinforced plastic letters and numbers approximately 2mm in thickness. These to be fixed to the hull with epoxy adhesive, and painted with suitable paint and coated with translucent epoxy resin;
 - (iii) where metal or plastic plates have been used these must be fixed by the use of epoxy adhesives. Metal or plastic plates secured by adhesives should be coated with translucent epoxy resin after they have been fixed in position.

Commencement Information

I16 Sch. 3 para. 4 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1(1)

5. A fishing vessel is to be marked as follows:—
- (a) The name of the vessel and the port of choice shall be painted in white on a black background or in black on a white background outside the stern of the boat in letters which shall not be less than 8 centimetres in height and 1.5 centimetres in breadth, and
 - (b) the port letters and the [^{F6}port number] shall be painted or displayed on both sides of the bow and on each quarter, as high above the water as possible so as to be clearly visible from the sea and the air, in white on a black background or black on a white background;
 - (c) for vessels not over 17 metres in length, the height of the port letters and [^{F7}port] number shall be at least 25 centimetres with a line thickness of at least 4 centimetres;
 - (d) for vessels over 17 metres in length, the height of the [^{F8}port letters and port number] shall be at least 45 centimetres with a line thickness of at least 6 centimetres;
 - (e) the port letters and [^{F9}port number] shall in addition be painted or displayed on the wheel house top or some other prominent horizontal surface;
 - (f) the vessel's official number shall be carved into the main beam of the vessel or, if that is not possible, marked or fixed thereon in the manner prescribed in paragraph 4(a) above.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships) Regulations 1993. (See end of Document for details)

- F6 Words in Sch. 3 para. 5(b) substituted (10.1.2000) by The Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships, and Tonnage) (Amendment) Regulations 1999 (S.I. 1999/3206), regs. 1, 22(a)

Commencement Information

- I17 Sch. 3 para. 5 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1(1)

6. A scale of decimetres, or metres and decimetres, denoting a draught of water shall be marked on a ship, other than an exempted ship, on each side of its stem and its stern post, as follows:—

- (a) in figures in two-decimetre intervals, if the scale is in decimetres; and
- (b) in figures at each metre interval and at intervening two-decimetre intervals, if the scale is in metres and decimetres;

the capital letter ‘M’ being placed after each metre figure; the top figure of the scale showing both the metre and (except where it marks a full metre interval) the decimetre figure; the lower line of the figures, or figures and letters (as the case may be), coinciding with the draught line denoted thereby; the figures and letters being not less than one decimetre in length and being marked by being cut in and painted white or yellow on a dark ground, or in such other way as the Secretary of State approves.

Commencement Information

- I18 Sch. 3 para. 6 in force at 21.3.1994, see reg. 1(1)

7. The name of a ship shall be marked in Roman letters and any numerals shall be in Roman or [^{F10}Arabic] numerals.
