REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS, DEATHS, MARRIAGES, ETC.

The Registration of Births, Still-births, Deaths and Marriages
(Prescription of Forms) (Scotland) Regulations 1997

Made - - - - - 24th September 1997

Coming into force - - - - - 1st January 1998

The Registrar General, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by sections 13(1), 16(1) and (2), 18(1) and (2), 18A(1), 19(2), 21(2), 21(4) and (5), 22(1), 24(1), 25(1) and (2), 27(1) and (3), 28A(3), 32(1), 40(2), 43(3), (4) and (5), 48, 54(1)(b) and 56 of the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Scotland) Act 1965(1), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf and with the approval of the Secretary of State under section 54 of that Act, hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation and Commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Registration of Births, Still-births, Deaths and Marriages (Prescription of Forms) (Scotland) Regulations 1997 and shall come into force on 1st January 1998.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“the Act” means the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Scotland) Act 1965;

“birth” does not include a still-birth;

“name” means Christian name or forename;

(1) 1965 c. 49; section 18 was amended by sub-paragraphs (2) and (3), and section 18A inserted by sub-paragraph (4), of paragraph 8 of Schedule 1 to the Law Reform (Parent and Child) (Scotland) Act 1986 (c. 9); section 28A was inserted by the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1985 (c. 73), section 50(1); section 32(1) was amended by the Marriage (Scotland) Act 1977 (c. 15), Schedule 2, paragraph 8; in section 40(2), the references to “the Adopted Children Register maintained under section 22(1) of the Adoption Act 1958” and to “adoption” are to be read, in relation to parental orders and applications for such orders, in accordance with paragraph 2(1) of Schedule 2 to the Parental Orders (Human Fertilisation and Embryology) (Scotland) Regulations 1994 (S.I. 1994/2804); section 43 was repealed in part by the Age of Legal Capacity (Scotland) Act 1991 (c. 50), Schedule 2 and amended and repealed in part by the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 36), Schedule 4, paragraph 12 and Schedule 5; section 56 contains a definition of “prescribed” relevant to the exercise of statutory powers under which these Regulations are made.

“district registrar” has the same meaning as in the Act;

“still-born child” means a child which has issued forth from its mother after the twenty-fourth week of pregnancy and which did not at any time after being completely expelled from its mother breathe or show any other signs of life; and the expression “still-birth” shall be construed accordingly.

(2) Any reference in these Regulations–

(a) to a numbered section is to a section bearing that number in the Act; and

(b) to a numbered Schedule is to a Schedule bearing that number in these Regulations.

NOTES ABOUT REGISTRATION OF A STILL-BIRTH

A still-birth may be registered either in the Registration District where it takes place (the district of occurrence) or in such other registration district in Scotland where the mother has her usual residence at the time of the still-birth. Usual residence for this purpose means the address of the parental home and not a temporary address at which the mother may reside for a short period before and after the still-birth, eg her own mother's home.

Persons required to give information for the registration of a still-born child are:-

- a the father;
 - b the mother;
- or in the case of the death or inability of the father and mother:-
- c a relative of either parent being a relative who has knowledge of the still-birth;
 - d the occupier of the premises in which the child was, to the knowledge of that occupier, still-born;
 - e any person present at the still-birth.

In this context "father" and "parent" do not include a father who is not married to the mother and has not been married to her since the child's conception.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS, DEATHS AND MARRIAGES (SCOTLAND) ACT 1965

1. The Act defines a Still-born child as follows:-

"Still-born child" means a child which has issued forth from its mother after the twenty-fourth week of pregnancy and which did not at any time after being completely expelled from its mother breathe or show any other signs of life, and the expression "still-birth" shall be construed accordingly.

2. Persons required to give information for the registration of a still-born child are:-

- a. the father;
- b. the mother;
- or in the case of the death or inability of the father and mother*
- c. a relative of either parent, being a relative who has knowledge of the birth;
- d. the occupier of the premises in which the child was, to the knowledge of that occupier, born;
- e. any person present at the birth.

In this context "father" and "parent" do not include a father who is not married to the mother and has not been married to her since the child's conception.

3. Any qualified informant giving information to the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages of the particulars required to be registered concerning a still-birth shall:-

- (a) either give the Registrar a medical certificate of still-birth issued by a registered medical practitioner who was present at the birth or has examined the body of the child, or by any registered midwife who was present or examined the body; or
 - (b) make a declaration in the prescribed form (see overleaf) to the effect that to the best of his knowledge and belief no registered medical practitioner or registered midwife was present at the birth or has examined the body, or that his or her certificate cannot be obtained and that the child was not born alive.

4. This declaration is not an authority for the burial of the body of the still-born child in a burial ground or for cremation in a crematorium.

WARNING: A person who gives false information may be found guilty of a criminal offence.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

NOTES ABOUT REGISTRATION OF A DEATH

A death may be registered either in the registration district where it takes place (the district of its occurrence) or in such other registration district in Scotland where the deceased person had his usual residence immediately before his death.

Usual residence for this purpose means the deceased person's permanent home and not an address (eg a holiday address) at which he may have been staying temporarily at the time of his death.

Persons required to give information for the registration of a death are:

- a any relative of the deceased;
- b any person present at the death;
- c the deceased's executor or other legal representative;
- d the occupier, at the time of death, of the premises where the death took place;
- e if there is no such person as aforesaid, any other person having knowledge of the particulars to be registered.

NB The word "occupier" includes the governor, keeper, matron, superintendent or other person in charge of a prison, hospital or other institution, and, in relation to a house, includes any person residing therein.
