COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Part 2 Homelessness

Section 68 - Interim duty to secure accommodation for homeless applicants in priority need

- 142. Where it appears to an authority that an applicant may be homeless, eligible for help, and has a priority need for accommodation, the authority must secure that suitable accommodation is available to the applicant while it investigates and decides the applicant's case.
- 143. Similarly, an authority is required by this section to secure suitable accommodation in respect of an applicant that a) the authority thinks has a priority need for accommodation (or an applicant whose case has been referred to a Welsh local housing authority by an English local housing authority under section 198(1) of the Housing Act 1996); and b) to whom the duty in section 73 (the duty to help secure accommodation for homeless applicants who are eligible for help) applies.
- 144. The duty under this section applies until it comes to an end in any of the circumstances described in section 69 or 79.
