

Game Preservation Act (Northern Ireland) 1928 ^{F1}

1928 CHAPTER 25

An Act to make further provision for the preservation of game, and for the regulation of the sale of game, in Northern Ireland. [18th December 1928]

F1 Functions transf., SRO (NI) 1972/252; 1973/504; 1976 NI 6

1 Amendment of s.15 of 1836 c.13

Any officer or constable of the Royal Ulster Constabulary (in this Act referred to as an “officer or constable”) may enforce the Acts relating to the laws for the preservation of game,^{F2} . . . :

Provided that no officer or constable shall enter upon any lands for the purpose of enforcing the game rights of any owner or occupier of such lands, or of any person in whom the game rights over such lands are vested.

F2 1998 c. 32

2 Powers of Constabulary to demand production of game licences, search for game, and enter upon lands.

(1) If any officer or constable has reasonable ground to suspect that any person is or has been unlawfully in pursuit of any game...^{F3} such officer or constable may demand from such person the production of a [^{F4} licence] to take or kill game granted to such person... ;.

^{F3}(2) If any such person fails to produce such [^{F4} licence] to take or kill game, and permit such officer or constable to read the same, it shall be lawful for such officer or constable to require such person to declare to him immediately his name and place of residence, and to search such person and any game bag, package, vehicle, or other thing, which is capable of being used by such person for the carrying of game, and to search any premises on which such person shall be found; and if such person refuses
