

Mines Act (Northern Ireland) 1969

1969 CHAPTER 6

PART II

MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL

PLANS

19 Faulty plans.

- (1) If, in the case of any mine, [F1 the Executive] is satisfied that a plan, section or drawing which by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this Act is kept by the manager of that mine is inaccurate, incomplete, dilapidated or wholly or partly indecipherable and that, in the interests of safety, it is desirable for a new plan, section or drawing to be made, [F1 the Executive] may appoint a surveyor to make a new plan, section or drawing.
- (2) The following provisions shall have effect where a surveyor is appointed under subsection (1) to make a new plan, section or drawing in the case of a mine:—
 - (a) the owner and the manager of the mine shall afford to the surveyor all necessary facilities and information for the purpose of making the new plan, section or drawing;
 - (b) on the completion of the new plan, section or drawing, it shall be sent to the manager of the mine; and
 - (c) the cost of making the new plan, section or drawing, or such part of that cost as [F1 the Executive] thinks fit, shall be recoverable by [F1 the Executive] from the owner of the mine summarily as a debt.

Status:

Point in time view as at 01/01/2006. This version of this provision has been superseded.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Mines Act (Northern Ireland) 1969, Section 19.