PART II

JURISDICTION OF HIGH COURT AND COUNTY COURTS

4 Jurisdiction of the High Court and county courts.

The High Court and, in relation to matters coming within the jurisdiction of a county court, the county court shall have jurisdiction for the purposes of this Act; and “the court” shall, in this Act, be construed accordingly.

5 Power of court in action for specific performance.

Where an action is instituted for the specific performance of a contract relating to registered land, the court before which the action is pending may cause all or any parties who have registrable rights in the land, or have entered cautions or inhibitions against the same, to appear in the action and show cause why the contract should not be specifically performed, and the order of the court in the action shall be binding on those parties or any of them.

6 Appeal and reference to the High Court.

- (1) Any person aggrieved by any order of the Registrar, or by any decision of the Registrar other than a decision on a matter expressly stated to be in his discretion, may appeal to the High Court, and that Court may annul or confirm, with or without modification, the order or decision.
- (2) Whenever the Registrar entertains a doubt as to any question of law or of fact arising in the course of registration under this Act, he may make an order referring the question to the High Court.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Save as is otherwise provided by section 61, the High Court, in any proceeding under this section, shall, if so requested by the Registrar, and may in any case, if necessary, appoint, for the purposes of that proceeding, a guardian or other person to represent any minor, person of unsound mind, person absent from Northern Ireland, unborn person or person as to whom it is not known whether he is dead or alive.
- (4) The High Court may, if it is satisfied that the interests of any person represented as is mentioned in subsection (3) are sufficiently protected by the representation, make an order declaring that he shall be conclusively bound by the decision of the Court and, thereupon, he shall, subject to section 7, be bound accordingly as if he were a party.

7 Appeal from the High Court.

The decision of the High Court under section 6 shall be final and conclusive on all the parties except that an appeal shall lie, in accordance with rules of court, to the Court of Appeal—

- (a) where the decision involves any question of law;
- (b) in any other case, with the leave of the High Court or the Court of Appeal.

8 Enforcement by High Court of order of Registrar.

If any person disobeys an order of the Registrar made in pursuance of this Act or Land Registry Rules, the Registrar may certify the disobedience to the High Court, and, thereupon, the person guilty of the disobedience may, subject to his right of appeal to that Court from such order, be punished by that Court as if the order of the Registrar were the order of that Court.

9 Registrar to obey order of court.

- (1) The Registrar shall obey the order of any court of competent jurisdiction in relation to registered land on being served with the order or an office copy thereof.
- (2) The Registrar may, where he considers it necessary, apply personally and without notice or formality to the court which has made such an order either to vary the same or to give directions as to the mode in which it is to be obeyed, and, thereupon, that court may, after such notice, if any, as it may direct, vary such order in such manner, or make such new order, or give such directions, as it may think fit.

PART III

REGISTRATION OF OWNERSHIP

THE REGISTERS

[^{F6}10 The title register.

- (1) There shall be maintained by or on behalf of the Registrar in accordance with the provisions of this Act and of Land Registry Rules a register (in this Act referred to as “the title register”) of title to—11 Conclusiveness of registers.

- (1) Save as is otherwise provided by or under this Act, [F7 the register] shall be conclusive evidence of the titles shown on that register and of any right, privilege, appurtenance or burden as shown thereon, and the title of any person shown thereon shall not, in the absence of actual fraud, be in any way affected in consequence of his having notice of any deed, document or matter relating to or affecting the title so shown.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything entered on any register before the passing of the Mineral Development Act (Northern Ireland) 1969, the registration of any person as owner of any land shall not include any rights to or in relation to—
- (a) petroleum vested in the Ministry of Commerce by virtue of the Petroleum (Production) Act (Northern Ireland) 1964; or
 - (b) mines and minerals vested in that Ministry by virtue of the said Act of 1969.
- (3) Without prejudice to subsection (2), the registration of any person as owner of any land shall not as such be evidence of his title to any mineral rights in that land, unless a note to the contrary is entered on the [F7 title register].

- (d) in the case of a settled leasehold estate, if he is either a tenant for life or has under the Settled Land Acts the powers of a tenant for life, as the limited owner of that estate.

F8 1978 NI 4

13 Classes of title with which owner may be registered.

- (1) On first registration of the ownership of a freehold estate, a person may be registered with—
- (a) an absolute title; or
 - (b) a good fee farm grant title; or
 - (c) a possessory title; or
 - (d) a qualified title.
- (2) On first registration of the ownership of a leasehold estate, a person may be registered with—
- (a) an absolute title; or
 - (b) a good leasehold title; or
 - (c) a possessory title; or
 - (d) a qualified title.

FREEHOLD ESTATES

14 Application for first registration of freehold estate.

- (1) An application for first registration of the ownership of a freehold estate may be made by—
- (a) the owner of an estate in fee simple in the land (including a personal representative, but excluding a mortgagee where there is a subsisting right of redemption); or
 - (b) a tenant for life, or a person who has under the Settled Land Acts the powers of a tenant for life; or
 - (c) any other person authorised in that behalf by any statutory provision; whether or not such estate is subject to incumbrances.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) shall be made for registration with—
- (a) an absolute title; or
 - (b) a good fee farm grant title; or
 - (c) a possessory title^[F9]; or
 - ^F9 a qualified title.]
- (3) Where the applicant is a personal representative, any registration under this section shall be made—
- (a) by registering in the^[F9] title register], as owner of the estate, the person who is entitled thereto under the will or on the intestacy of the deceased owner; or

- (b) by registering in the^[F9] title register], as owner of the estate, a transferee for valuable consideration of the lands from such personal representative; or
 - (c) by entering on the^[F9] title register] a note showing the nature of the estate of the deceased owner with particulars of the date of his death and of the grant of representation, including the names and addresses of the personal representatives.
- (4) The entry of a note referred to in subsection (3)(c) shall operate as if it were the registration of the deceased owner of the estate and as if it were the entry of the note referred to in paragraph 3 of Schedule 4.
- (5) A person shall not be registered under this section as an owner^[F9] until his right to be so registered has been shown to the satisfaction of the Registrar].
- (6) If, on an application for first registration as an owner of a freehold estate with one of the classes of title specified in subsection (2), the Registrar decides that the person to be registered as owner of the estate should be registered with a title of another of those classes^{F9}. . . , the Registrar may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, register that person accordingly.

F9 1992 NI 7

15 Effect of first registration of freehold estate with an absolute title.

- (1) On first registration of a person as full owner of a freehold estate with an absolute title, an estate in fee simple in the land shall, subject to subsections (3) and (4), vest in the person so registered, whether or not it was theretofore vested in him.
- (2) On first registration of a person as limited owner of a freehold estate with an absolute title, the person so registered shall, subject to subsections (3) and (4), be, in respect of that land—
- (i) a tenant for life; or
 - (ii) a tenant in tail; or
 - (iii) a person having under the Settled Land Acts the powers of a tenant for life;
- and that land shall be subject to the settlement in respect of which that person is registered as limited owner.
- (3) In either of the cases specified in subsections (1) and (2), the estate of the registered owner shall be subject to—
- (a) any registered burdens affecting the estate;
 - (b) any other matters appearing from the register to affect the estate; and
 - (c) ^[F10]without prejudice to Schedule 5, Part II, paragraph 1] any Schedule 5 burdens affecting the estate;
- but, subject to section 11(3), shall be free from all other rights, including rights of the Crown.
- (4) If, on first registration, the registered owner holds the estate as trustee, nothing in this section shall affect his duties and liabilities as such trustee.

16 Effect of first registration of freehold estate with a good fee farm grant title.

- (1) On first registration of a person as full or limited owner of a freehold estate with a good fee farm grant title, the person so registered shall, subject to the estates mentioned in subsection (2), have the same estate as if he had been registered as full or, as the case may be, limited owner of that estate with an absolute title.
- (2) The first registration of a person as full or limited owner of a freehold estate with a good fee farm grant title shall not prejudice or affect any estate arising by virtue of any grant superior to the fee farm grant under which he holds the land.

17 Effect of first registration of freehold estate with a possessory title.

- (1) On first registration of a person as full or limited owner of a freehold estate with a possessory title, the person so registered shall, save as is otherwise provided by subsection (2), have the same estate as if he had been registered as full or, as the case may be, limited owner of that estate with an absolute title.
- (2) The first registration of a person as full or limited owner of a freehold estate with a possessory title shall not prejudice or affect the enforcement of any right adverse to, or in derogation of, the title of that person (or, in the case of a limited owner, of that person and of any other person entitled under the settlement in respect of which the first-mentioned person is registered as limited owner) and subsisting or capable of arising at the time of first registration of the title so registered.
- (3) “Right”, in subsection (2), includes any right or equity existing by reason of the interest of such owner being deemed to be a graft upon his previous interest in the land.

18 Qualified title to freehold estate.

- (1) If, on an application for first registration of any person as full or limited owner of a freehold estate^{F11} . . . , it appears to the Registrar^{F11} . . . that the title can be established only for a limited period, or only subject to certain qualifications, the Registrar may, by an entry made on the register, except from the effect of registration any estate—
 - (a) arising before a specified date; or
 - (b) arising under a specified document; or
 - (c) otherwise particularly described in the register; and a title registered subject to any such exception shall be called a “qualified title” .
- (2) The first registration of a person as full or limited owner of a freehold estate with a qualified title shall have the same effect as first registration with an absolute title or, as the case may be, with a good fee farm grant title, save that first registration with a qualified title shall not prejudice or affect the enforcement of any estate appearing from the register to be excepted.

RECLASSIFICATION OF TITLE

26 Reclassification of registered titles.

The title to any registered land may be reclassified subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 3.

EXTINGUISHMENT OF LEASEHOLD ESTATES

27 Extinguishment of leasehold estates.

[^{F17}(1)] Where a registered leasehold estate—

- (a) is, under any statutory provision, converted into an estate in fee simple, whether or not subject to a fee farm rent; or
- (b) becomes merged in the freehold or in a superior leasehold estate; or
- (c) has otherwise been extinguished,

the Registrar shall, on application in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, and on production of such evidence of the title as the Registrar considers necessary,—

- (i) cancel the entry in the title register relating to the estate which has been so converted, merged or extinguished; and
- (ii) if a superior title has been acquired in circumstances where this subsection applies but has not been registered, register that title in the title register with such class of title as appears to the Registrar to be appropriate; and
- (iii) when a superior title is registered, make such alterations in any entry relating to the land in question in the title register as appear to the Registrar to be appropriate.]

(2) Until the entry in the [^{F17} title register] has been cancelled pursuant to [^{F17} subsection (1) (i)] and, where necessary, until the superior title has been registered pursuant to [^{F17} subsection (1)(ii)], the owner of the superior estate shall not, under the provisions of this Act, have any further or other title to the land than he would have had if the leasehold estate had not been converted or, as the case may be, merged or extinguished.

[^{F22}32A Validity of electronic documents

Notwithstanding any statutory provision that may require a transaction relating to an estate or interest in land to be effected by deed or instrument in writing, any authorised dealing with an estate or interest in land may be effected in accordance with the procedure laid down in Schedule 1A.]

F22 S. 32A inserted (3.10.2011) by Land Registration \(Electronic Communications\) Order \(Northern Ireland\) 2011 \(S.R. 2011/158\), arts. 1, 2(3)

33 Powers of person entitled to be registered.

- (1) Where a person who has become entitled to be registered as owner of any registered land, either on transmission on the death of a registered owner or in consequence of a disposition by a registered owner, wishes to deal with the land, he may, subject to subsections (2) and (3), do so in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.
- (2) Any dealing by a person entitled to be so registered shall, subject to such modifications as may be necessary to define clearly the land, be in the same form as is required for such a dealing by a registered owner, but registration of any such dealing shall not be made until the person executing the document has been registered as owner, or until his right to be so registered has been shown to the satisfaction of the Registrar.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of this Act with regard to registered dealings for valuable consideration, registration of a dealing by a person entitled to be so registered before he is registered shall have the same effect as if he had been so registered.

34 Transfers of registered land.

- (1) Save as is otherwise provided by or under this Act or by any other statutory provision and subject, in the case of a limited owner, to the Settled Land Acts, a registered owner of any land may transfer the land, or any part thereof.
- (2) There shall be executed on any such transfer a document in the prescribed form, or in such other form as [^{F23} is approved or allowed by the Registrar.]
- (3) Any such transfer shall be completed by the registration of the transferee as owner of the land, but, until such registration, the document shall not operate to transfer the land.
- (4) On registration of a transferee of any land as full owner of the land, the document of transfer shall operate as a conveyance by deed within the meaning of the Conveyancing Acts, and there shall be vested in the registered transferee the land transferred, subject—
 - (a) to all registered burdens and to all other matters appearing from the register to affect the land;
 - (b) [^{F23} without prejudice to Schedule 5, Part II, paragraph 1,] to any Schedule 5 burdens affecting the land;
 - (c) if the transfer is made without valuable consideration, to subsection (5); and [^{F51}63 Description of registered land.

- (1) Registered land shall be described in the title register—
 - (a) by means of a verbal description and a reference to the registry map; or
 - (b) by means of a verbal description and a filed plan, based on an ordnance map; or
 - (c) in such other manner as, in the opinion of the Registrar, secures accuracy.
- (2) The description of land in the title register need not include its area.]

F51 1992 NI 7

64 Effect of description of registered land.

- (1) Except as provided by this Act, the description of any land in [^{F52} the register] shall not be conclusive as to the boundaries or extent of the land.
- (2) The Registrar may at any time, on the application of the registered owners of adjoining registered lands or of the registered owner of any registered land and of the owner of any adjoining unregistered land, and on the prescribed conditions being complied with, settle and enter on [^{F52} the register] as conclusive the boundaries between those lands or any parts thereof, with such alterations, if any, as may from time to time be agreed upon.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), an entry in [^{F52} the register] made pursuant to an application under that subsection shall be conclusive only as between the parties to the application and their respective successors in title, and shall not operate to confirm the title to the lands the boundaries whereof are settled.
- (4) On the transfer of part of any registered land, the Registrar, on the prescribed conditions being complied with, may enter on [^{F52} the register] as conclusive the boundaries between the part transferred and the part not transferred.
- (5) If, on the transfer of any registered land, any question arises as to the boundaries or extent of the land, the Registrar shall, on the application of the transferor or of the transferee, have jurisdiction to decide the question as between them, and, for that purpose, the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, adopt the decision of any person agreed on by them or appointed by him.

PART VII

CAUTIONS AND INHIBITIONS

65 Cautions against first registration.

- (1) Any person claiming—
 - (a) such an interest in unregistered land as entitles him to object to a dealing therewith being made without his consent; or
 - (b) to be an incumbrancer on unregistered land;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

may—

- (i) if he claims otherwise than under a document registered in the registry of deeds; or
- (ii) if he claims under a document registered in the registry of deeds but satisfies the Registrar that such registration does not adequately protect that person's interest; on producing an affidavit in such form as may be prescribed of his interest, lodge a caution with the Registrar to the effect that the cautioner is entitled to notice of any application that may be made for registration of an owner of the land.

- (2) Upon the lodgment of a caution under subsection (1), an application for first registration shall not be determined until notice has been served on the cautioner to appear and oppose, if he thinks fit, the registration, and—
 - (a) such time as may be prescribed has elapsed since the date of the service of the notice; or
 - (b) the cautioner has entered an appearance;
 whichever first happens.
- (3) If any person lodges a caution under this section without reasonable cause, he shall be liable to make compensation, recoverable as a simple contract debt, to any person damaged thereby.

66 Cautions against registered dispositions, etc.

- (1) Any person interested in any registered land may, on producing an affidavit in such form as may be prescribed specifying his estate in the land, lodge a caution with the Registrar to the effect that^{F53} no dealing with the land on the part of the registered owner should be registered until notice has been served on the cautioner.
- (2) Upon the lodgment of a caution under subsection (1), the Registrar shall not, without the consent of the cautioner,^{F54} register any dealing on the part of the registered owner of the estate until the Registrar has served notice on the cautioner warning him that his caution will lapse after the expiration of such time as may be prescribed.
- (3) After the expiration of that time, the caution shall lapse unless an order to the contrary is made by the Registrar, and, on the caution so lapsing,^{F55} the dealing may be registered as if the caution had not been lodged.
- (4) If, before the expiration of that time, the cautioner, or some other person on his behalf, appears and gives, if so required by the Registrar, sufficient security to indemnify every person against any damage that may be sustained by reason of the dealing being delayed, the Registrar may delay registering any^{F56} dealing for such further period as he thinks just.
- (5) If any person lodges a caution under this section without reasonable cause, he shall be liable to make compensation, recoverable as a simple contract debt, to any person damaged thereby.
- (6) In the case of a caution lodged under this section by a Government department or by a public or local body, the Registrar may accept a certificate, in such form as may be prescribed, instead of an affidavit.

67 Inhibitions of registered dealings.

- (1) The Registrar or the court may—
- (a) on the application of any person interested in any registered land; and
 - (b) after receiving the consent of the persons concerned or after directing such inquiries, if any, to be made and such notices to be given, and upon hearing such persons, as he or, as the case may be, the court may think fit;
- make an entry, or, as the case may be, order the Registrar to make an entry, inhibiting—
- (i) for a specified time; or
 - (ii) until the occurrence of an event to be named; or
 - (iii) except with the consent of, or after notice to, some specified person; or
 - (iv) generally until further entry or, as the case may be, further order;
- any dealing with the land.
- (2) The Registrar or the court may—
- (a) annex to any such entry such terms and conditions as he or, as the case may be, the court may think fit;
 - (b) discharge any such order or cancel any such entry;
 - (c) generally exercise such powers as he or, as the case may be, the court may think fit;
- but, except as provided by subsection (4), nothing in this subsection shall empower the Registrar to discharge an entry made pursuant to an order of the court unless the order has authorised him to do so.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall authorise any restrictions to be imposed on the powers under the Settled Land Acts of a tenant for life or a person having the powers of a tenant for life.
- (4) Any entry made pursuant to this section may be withdrawn or modified at the request or with the agreement of all the persons for the time being appearing from the register to be interested therein, or of such other persons as may be prescribed.

[^{F57}67A Protection of creditors prior to registration of trustee in bankruptcy.

- (1) If a bankruptcy petition is presented by or against any person who appears to the High Court to be the registered owner of any land, the Court shall give notice to the Registrar of the presenting of the petition, in such manner as may be prescribed, and notice of the presenting of the petition shall thereupon be entered on the [^{F58} title register].
- (2) A notice registered under subsection (1) shall protect the rights of all creditors, and unless cancelled by the Registrar in the prescribed manner such notice shall remain in force until a bankruptcy inhibition is registered or the trustee in bankruptcy is registered as owner.

- (3) Where a bankruptcy order is made and the bankrupt is a registered owner of land, the official receiver or the trustee in bankruptcy shall notify the Registrar in the prescribed form and the Registrar shall thereupon enter an inhibition (“a bankruptcy inhibition”) against the title of the registered owner of the land.
 - (4) No fee shall be charged for the entry of a notice under subsection (1) or a bankruptcy inhibition under subsection (3).
 - (5) From and after the entry of a bankruptcy inhibition (but without prejudice to dealings with or in right of interests having priority over the estate of the bankrupt owner), no dealing affecting the land of the registered owner, other than the registration of the trustee in bankruptcy, shall be entered on the^{F58} title register] until the inhibition is cancelled as to the whole or part of the land dealt with.
 - (6) Without prejudice to section 34(4), where under a disposition of registered land to a purchaser in good faith for valuable consideration such purchaser is registered as owner of an estate, then, notwithstanding that the person making the disposition is adjudged bankrupt, the title of his trustee in bankruptcy shall, as from the date of the registration of such disposition, be void as against such purchaser unless at that date, either a notice under subsection (1) or a bankruptcy inhibition has been registered; but a purchaser who, at the date of the execution of the registered disposition has actual knowledge of the bankruptcy petition or the adjudication, shall be deemed not to take in good faith.
 - (7) Nothing in this section shall impose on a purchaser a liability to make any search under the Registration of Deeds Acts.
 - (8) If neither a notice under subsection (1) nor a bankruptcy inhibition is registered against a registered owner of land, nothing in this section shall prejudicially affect a registered disposition of any registered land acquired by the bankrupt after adjudication.
 - (9) If and when a bankruptcy inhibition is wholly or partially cancelled, for any cause other than by reason of the registration of the trustee in bankruptcy, any registered estate vested in the trustee in bankruptcy shall, as respects the registered estate to which the cancellation extends, be divested and the same shall vest in the registered owner in whom it would have been vested if there had been no adjudication in bankruptcy.
- [In this section references to a disposition of registered land include a lease, a charge^{F58}(10) and the creation or disposal of any interest in such land or in a charge of such land, and “purchaser” includes a lessee, a chargee and a person in whose favour such an interest is created or disposed of.]] and before it is rectified and of giving notice to all persons who may thereafter be affected thereby.

- (2) An inhibition entered on^[F59] the title register] pursuant to this section shall not—
 - (a) affect any registration which is actually pending in the^[F59] Land Registry]; or
 - (b) prevent the completion of any such registration.
- (3) Whenever the Registrar enters an inhibition on^[F59] the title register] pursuant to this section, he shall send notice of such inhibition, and short particulars of the error because of which it was entered, to—
 - (a) all persons who appear from that register to be affected by such error; and
 - (b) such other persons, if any, as he may think proper.

RECTIFICATION AND INDEMNITY

69 Rectification of errors.

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), where any error (whether of misstatement, misdescription, omission or otherwise) occurs in^[F60] the register], the court, upon such application and in such manner as may be prescribed by rules of the appropriate court and after such notices, if any, as it may direct, may order such error to be rectified upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it may think fit.
- ^F60 Where, in the opinion of the Registrar, an incorrect entry in, or omission from, the register is of a clerical nature, he may, after making such enquiries (if any) and serving such notices (if any) as he considers necessary, rectify the register.
 - (2A) The Registrar may in his discretion, after making such enquiries (if any), serving such notices (if any) and obtaining such consents (if any) as he considers necessary, amend any mistake in, or omission from, any document presented to the Land Registry, if, in his opinion, the mistake or omission is of a clerical nature.
 - (2B) The Registrar may, after making such enquiries (if any) and serving such notices (if any) as he considers necessary, order the rectification of the register where all persons interested—
 - (a) consent to the rectification; or
 - (b) do not, within the prescribed period after being served with notice of the Registrar's intention to order the rectification, notify the Registrar in writing that they object to the rectification.
 - (2C) Where the Registrar exercises the power conferred by subsection (2) or (2B) he may make such order as to the costs of rectification as the persons interested may, in writing, agree.]
- (3) ^[F60]The register] shall not be rectified under subsection (1) so as to affect the title of a registered owner, unless such rectification can be made without loss or damage to any person claiming for valuable consideration and in good faith through such registered owner and unless—

- (a) the registered owner or, as the case may be, a person claiming as aforesaid through the registered owner or anyone acting on behalf of either has, by his act, neglect or default, been in any way responsible for, or has contributed to, the error; or
- (b) in the case of an error made before such registered owner was so registered, he was, in fact, aware of such error at the time of his registration as owner; or
- (c) in the case of an error made after such registered owner was so registered, he or a solicitor acting on his behalf became aware of such error at a time when such error was capable of being rectified without causing loss or damage to any person except the expense of such rectification; or
- (d) the immediate disposition to such registered owner, or the disposition to any person through whom he claims otherwise than for valuable consideration, was void; or
- (e) such registered owner acquired the land otherwise than for valuable consideration and rectification of the error could have been made against the person through whom he claims if such person had been the registered owner; or
- (f) such registered owner consents to rectification;

but so that this subsection shall—

- (i) limit the power of the court to rectify^{F60} the register] only where the registered owner of the land is in possession thereof; and
 - (ii) not limit the power of the court to rectify^{F60} the register] in any particular case if the court is satisfied that it would be unjust not to rectify the register against the registered owner.
- (4) The provisions of subsections (1) and (3) shall extend, with any necessary modifications, to the rectification of^{F60} the register] by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, exercising any jurisdiction based on the ground of fraud or mistake, in like manner as those subsections apply to the rectification of errors by order of the court.

71 Claims for compensation.

- (1) Claims for compensation for any loss arising from any matter specified in paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 9 may be made in accordance with the provisions of that Schedule.
- (2) Where any such claim for compensation is allowed, it shall^{F61} be paid by the Department out of money appropriated for the purpose].
- ^{F61}(3) Subject to subsections (3A), (3B) and (3C), where any such compensation is paid by the Department, the Department shall be entitled to recover the amount so paid from all or any of the following persons—
 - (a) any person who caused or substantially contributed to the loss in question;
 - (b) any person who has, directly or indirectly, derived title or any other advantage—
 - (i) from such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (a), or
 - (ii) by reason of an error or omission giving rise to the loss;

and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the Department may enforce any express or implied covenant or other right which the person receiving the compensation would have been entitled to enforce in relation to the matter in respect of which the compensation is paid.

- (3A) A person shall not be treated for the purposes of subsection (3)(a) or (b)(i) as having caused or substantially contributed to the loss unless he has done so by his fraud or lack of proper care; and where a person substantially contributed to the loss (but did not cause it completely), the amount recoverable under subsection (3) from him or from any person who has derived title or other advantage from him shall be such amount as is just.
- (3B) The Department is not entitled under subsection (3) to recover any amount from a person by reason only of his derivation of title or advantage as mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection where that person has derived the title or other advantage for valuable consideration and he has not caused or contributed to the loss by his fraud.
- (3C) Where the Department is entitled to recover an amount under subsection (3)(b) from a person who did not cause or substantially contribute to the loss, that amount shall not exceed the value, immediately before the Department gives notice to that person of its intention to recover an amount from him under subsection (3), of the advantage obtained by him.]
- [^{F61}(4) Any question arising as to whether the Department is entitled to recover some amount under subsection (3) from a particular person, as to the quantum of that amount or as to the enforcement of any right by the Department under that subsection shall be referred to and determined by the Lands Tribunal.
- (5) A question referred under subsection (4) and one referred under paragraph 10 of Schedule 9 (entitlement to and amount of compensation) may be determined in the same proceedings.
- (6) Except where the amount recoverable by the Department under subsection (3) is determined as mentioned in subsection (5),—
- (a) the right of the Department to recover any amount under subsection (3) shall be deemed to accrue on the date on which the Department pays the compensation to which that right relates; and
 - (b) a claim to recover such an amount shall not be the subject of a reference under subsection (4) after the expiration of one year from the time when the right to recover that amount accrued or after the expiration of 12 years from the time of the error or omission which gave rise to the loss, whichever first occurs.
- (7) When the Lands Tribunal determines that any amount is recoverable under subsection (3), it may make an order for the payment of that amount and such an order is a money judgment for the purposes of Article 4 of the Judgments Enforcement (Northern Ireland) Order 1981.]

PART IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

72 Exemption from registration in the registry of deeds.

- (1) The registration under this Act of the ownership of any estate in land shall, on and after the date of registration, exempt that estate, and, if a person is registered as limited owner thereof, any estate expectant on the determination of his ownership, from the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Acts, and, subject to subsection (2), a document relating to any such estate and executed or coming into operation after that date shall not, unless it also relates to unregistered land, be registrable in the registry of deeds.
- (2) The registration under this Act of the ownership of any estate in land shall not have the effect of exempting from registration in the registry of deeds any document relating to the title to any other estate in the land (other than a deed creating such estate), unless the title to such other estate is otherwise required to be registered or is registered under this Act.
- (3) Where any freehold or leasehold estate is first registered under this Act, a notice of the registration, in such form as may be prescribed, shall be given to the Registrar of Deeds, who shall forthwith register the same, without the payment of any fee for so doing, and file it as a memorial.

73 Exemption from registration in registry of deeds of documents relating to burdens registered under this Act.

Registration of a burden under this Act shall have the same effect as, and make unnecessary, registration in the registry of deeds in pursuance of any other statutory provision (including a local or private Act) of any document relating to such burden.

74 Execution of documents containing reservations.

- (1) In any document executed on or after the commencement of this Act and relating exclusively to registered land, a reservation of an estate shall operate at law without—
 - (a) any execution of the document by the grantee of the estate out of which the reservation is made; or
 - (b) any grant by such grantee of the estate so reserved;so as to create the estate so reserved and so as to vest the same in possession in the person (whether or not he is the grantor) for whom the benefit of the reservation is made.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a conveyance of an estate expressed to be made subject to another estate, not in existence immediately before the date of the conveyance, shall operate as a reservation, unless a contrary intention appears.

75 Avoidance of stipulations in documents precluding registration of title.

Any stipulation in any document relating to any estate in land capable of registration under this Act whereby any person is precluded from making an application to register his title to that estate shall be void.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

76 Avoidance of certain stipulations in contracts for transfer of, or charge on, registered land.

Any stipulation in a contract for the transfer or charge of any registered land whereby any party to the contract is precluded from making requisitions as to burdens generally, or as to any particular Schedule 5 burden, which may affect the land shall be void.

77 Facilities for registration of Crown Land.

- (1) With respect to any land vested in Her Majesty, either in right of the Crown or otherwise, or vested in any public officer or body in trust for the public service, the public officer or body having the management thereof, if any, or, if none, then such person as Her Majesty may, by writing under the sign manual, appoint, may represent the owner of the land for all the purposes of this Act and may be registered with such special description of the nature of the ownership as may be prescribed.
- (2) The public officer or body referred to in subsection (1), or the person appointed under that subsection, shall be entitled—
 - (a) to receive such notices;
 - (b) to make and enter any such application or caution; and
 - (c) to do all such other acts;as any owner of land is entitled to receive, make, enter or do under this Act.
- (3) For the purpose of any law or custom relating to Her Majesty in right of the Crown, the registration of land in^{F62} the register] under this Act shall be deemed to be a matter of record, and shall have the same effect as, and shall render unnecessary, the registration of that land in a court of record or in any office of the High Court.

F62 1992 NI 7

78 Foreshore and seabed.

If it appears to the Registrar that any land, application for the first registration of the ownership whereof is made to him, comprises foreshore or seabed, or both, he shall not make such registration unless and until he is satisfied that at least one month's notice in writing of the application has been given to the Crown Estate Commissioners.

79 Land certificates and certificates of charge.

- (1) Land Registry Rules shall provide for the preparation and issue of certificates of title in relation to the ownership of registered land, and such certificates of title shall be called—
 - (a) where the title is title to land other than a charge, a land certificate;
 - (b) where the title is title to a charge, a certificate of charge.
- (2) Land Registry Rules may provide generally for matters relating to land certificates and certificates of charge and, in particular, may—
 - (a) provide for the custody of such certificates;
 - (b) provide for the compulsory production to the Registrar of such certificates;
 - (c) specify the evidential value, in any court, of the contents of any such certificate;

The provision of Schedule 10 shall apply with respect to vesting orders and fiats mentioned in paragraph 1 of that Schedule.

81 Searches.

- (1) ^[F64]The register and any relevant document shall be available] for public inspection during the hours for which the Land Registry remains open for the transaction of public business and, subject to Land Registry Rules, any person may search^[F64] in the register or inspect the document], and shall be entitled, on making application to the Registrar in such form as may be prescribed, to receive copies of, or extracts from, so much of the^[F64] register or relevant document] as relates to the land specified in such application.

^F64 In subsection (1) “relevant document” means a document retained in the Registry in connection with a registration under the Act of 1891, an application for registration under this Act or a registration under this Act.]

- (2) Land Registry Rules may provide for applications to the Registrar for official searches in^[F64] the register], for the carrying out of such searches for^[F64] the provision of information by certificate or otherwise regarding] the result of such searches and for matters connected therewith.

^F64 Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), Land Registry Rules may make provision with respect to applications for searches in the register, and the provision of information, by telephone or other automated means.]

- (3) Where the Registrar is satisfied that the person to whom a certificate of the result of an official search is issued has entered into a contract to purchase, or take a lease of, or lend money on the security of a charge on, the land to which the certificate relates, the Registrar shall, at the request of that person, make an entry in the^[F64] title register] in such manner as may be prescribed.

- (4) In any case referred to in subsection (3), an application for registration of the document to complete the contract shall, if the application is in order and is delivered at the^[F64]

PART X

THE STATUTORY CHARGES REGISTER

86 The Statutory Charges Register.

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, there shall continue to be maintained^[F75] by or on behalf of the Registrar] a register (which shall be called “the Statutory Charges Register”), and the Registrar shall, upon application being made to him in such manner as may be prescribed, register thereon all matters which under this Part or any subsequent statutory provision are required to be so registered.
- (2) The Statutory Charges Register shall be in such form as may be prescribed and shall, for the purpose of enabling a person to trace any entry in that Register, have an index which may be in the form of a map or maps, or in such other form as may be prescribed, and different forms of indices may be prescribed in respect of registered and unregistered land and in respect of land in different areas.
- (3) The Statutory Charges Register shall be^[F75] available] for public inspection during the hours for which the Land Registry remains open for the transaction of public business and, subject to Land Registry Rules, any person may search therein or in any index thereto kept in pursuance of this Part, and shall be entitled, on making application to the Registrar in such form as may be prescribed, to receive copies of, or extracts from, so much of the Statutory Charges Register as relates to the land specified in such application.
- (4) Land Registry Rules may provide for applications to the Registrar for official searches in the Statutory Charges Register or in any index thereto kept pursuant to this Part, for the carrying out of such searches, for^[F75] the provision of information by certificate or otherwise regarding] the result of such searches and for matters connected therewith.
- ^F75 Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (4), Land Registry Rules may provide for applications for searches in the register, and the provision of information, by telephone or other automated means.]

F75 1992 NI 7

87 Matters registrable in the Statutory Charges Register.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, the matters specified in Schedule 11 (in this Act referred to as “statutory charges”) affecting unregistered as well as registered land in Northern Ireland shall be registered in the Statutory Charges Register.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, any sum which is recoverable by a local authority (whether in the right of the authority or on behalf of any other person) under any of the statutory provisions mentioned in Schedule 11 from successive owners or occupiers of the property in respect of which the sum is recoverable shall, whether such sum is expressed to be a charge on the property or not, be deemed to be a statutory charge.
- (3) Nothing in this Part shall operate to impose any obligation to register in the Statutory Charges Register any statutory charge, created or arising before, on or after the 23rd January 1951, which is a registered burden.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Nothing in this Part shall operate to discharge any liability in respect of any statutory charge which is not for the time being required to be registered.

88 Provisions as to registration and priority.

- (1) ^{F76} Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any statutory provision in force on the 1st April 1951, a statutory charge shall be void as against a purchaser of any estate in the land to which the charge relates unless—
- (a) where the land is registered land, the statutory charge is registered pursuant to this Part before the purchaser is registered pursuant to any provision of this Act other than this Part as owner of the estate purchased; or
 - (b) where the land is unregistered land, the statutory charge is registered pursuant to this Part before the registration in the registry of deeds of the document whereby the estate purchased is assured to the purchaser; or
 - (c) a notice (in this Act referred to as a “priority notice”) in respect of the statutory charge is registered under section 89 either before the purchaser is registered pursuant to any provision of this Act other than this Part as owner of the estate purchased or (as the case may be) before the registration in the registry of deeds of the document whereby the estate purchased is assured to the purchaser; or
 - (d) the statutory charge is created or arises after the purchaser has entered into an enforceable contract for the purchase and the purchaser has received actual notice of the statutory charge either before he is registered pursuant to any provision of this Act other than this Part as owner of the estate purchased or (as the case may be) before the registration in the registry of deeds of the document whereby the estate purchased is assured to him.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), “purchaser” means any person who has entered into an enforceable contract to acquire for money or money's worth any estate in the land to which the statutory charge relates or who, after the creation of the statutory charge, has acquired for money or money's worth any such estate.
- (3) Save as is provided by subsection (1), a statutory charge shall, on registration pursuant to this Part as affecting any land, bind that land to the same extent as such land would have been bound had this Part not been enacted.
- (4) Subject to subsections (3) and (5), where a statutory charge is at any time registered pursuant to this Part in the Statutory Charges Register as affecting any registered land, such statutory charge shall be deemed to have been registered at that time as a Schedule 6 burden in the folio or folios in which the title to the land is registered.
- (5) Where, by virtue of subsection (4), any statutory charge is deemed to have been registered as a Schedule 6 burden in the folio at the same time as any other estate is registered in that folio, such statutory charge and such estate shall, subject to subsection (3), be deemed to be so registered in the order in which they were created.
- (6) Subject to subsections (3) and (7), where a statutory charge is at any time registered pursuant to this Part as affecting any unregistered land, such statutory charge shall be deemed to have been created by a document bearing the date of the creation of the charge and registered in the registry of deeds, pursuant to the Registration of Deeds Acts, at the time of the registration of the statutory charge, as a document affecting the land.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) Where, by virtue of subsection (6), any document is deemed to have been registered in the registry of deeds at the same time as any other document affecting the land is registered there, such documents shall, subject to subsection (3), be deemed to be so registered in order of date.
- (8) Registration in the Statutory Charges Register shall not render a statutory charge valid if it is not otherwise so nor render any land subject to any statutory charge to which, if this Part had not been enacted, the land would not be subject.
- (9) Where—
- (a) any matter required by section 87, or by any subsequent statutory provision, to be registered in the Statutory Charges Register is, by virtue of subsection (1), void as against any purchaser; and
 - (b) any such matter involves the prohibition of any act or omission which would terminate or restrict or otherwise prejudice any right exercisable by that purchaser in relation to the land of which he is the purchaser;
- a prosecution arising out of such prohibition shall not lie against that purchaser in respect of any such act or omission.

F76 1978 NI 15

89 Priority notices.

- (1) Any person intending to make an application for the registration of any contemplated statutory charge pursuant to this Part or to any of the Land Registry Rules may, before the creation of the statutory charge, give to the Registrar a priority notice in such form as may be prescribed, and such priority notice shall be entered in the Statutory Charges Register.
- (2) Where, within three months after a priority notice has been given as mentioned in subsection (1), an application for registration is made which refers to that priority notice, the registration shall be deemed to have been made when the charge was created, and the provisions of section 88 shall have effect accordingly.

90 Use of registers existing on 2nd April 1951.

Where a statutory charge created or arising before the 2nd April 1951 has been registered in any register or other record kept by a government department or local authority which—

- (a) existed on that date;
- (b) contains accurate particulars of the statutory charge and such description of the land to which the statutory charge relates as will enable such land to be readily identified; and
- (c) is open to public inspection;

it shall be a sufficient compliance with this Part and with any Land Registry Rules if a reference to the register or other record so kept, sufficient to enable the relevant entry therein to be traced, is recorded in the Statutory Charges Register against the land to which the statutory charge relates.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

91 Cancellation and modification of statutory charges.

- ^{F77}(1) Where any registered statutory charge has—
- (a) been discharged or become unenforceable; or
 - (b) otherwise ceased to affect any land; or
 - (c) been declared invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction;
- it shall be the duty of the local authority or other person or body on whose application the charge was registered to make application to the Registrar for the cancellation of the registration of the statutory charge.
- (2) On receipt of an application under subsection (1), the Registrar shall cancel the registration of the statutory charge by deleting or removing any entry relating thereto from the Statutory Charges Register and from any index to that Register.
- (3) Without prejudice to subsections (1) and (2), the Registrar may, where he decides (whether on the application of any person interested in any land to which a registered statutory charge relates or otherwise) that the statutory charge—
- (a) is invalid; or
 - (b) does not affect the land; or
 - (c) has been discharged or become unenforceable; or
 - (d) has otherwise ceased to affect the land;
- cancel the registration thereof in the manner specified in subsection (2) after giving at least one week's notice in writing by registered post or by the recorded delivery service to all persons appearing to him to be interested in the statutory charge.
- (4) Where a registered statutory charge for a specified sum has been discharged in part by payment of a portion of that sum, it shall be the duty of the authority or person receiving such payment to notify the Registrar, and the Registrar shall note such part payment in the entry in the Statutory Charges Register relating to the statutory charge.
- (5) The Registrar may also make such other modifications of any entry in the Statutory Charges Register as he may, from time to time, decide to be necessary.

F77 1978 NI 15

92 Application of certain other provisions of the Act to statutory charges.

- (1) Land Registry Rules may, in relation to the Statutory Charges Register and the registration of any statutory charge, apply, with such modifications as may be specified therein, any of the following provisions of this Act, namely—
- (a) Part I;
 - (b) sections 8, 62, 63,^{F78} and 71];
 - (c) Schedules 1 and 9.
- (2) The provisions of sections 6 and 7 shall apply to any decision of the Registrar made under section 91.
- (3) Except as provided by this section, the provisions of this Act, other than of sections^{F78} 82, 83, 84, 85, 85A and 86 to 99] and of Schedules 12 to 14, shall not apply in relation to the Statutory Charges Register or to the registration of any statutory charge.

[^{F95}SCHEDULE 1A

ELECTRONIC REGISTRATION

F95 Sch. 1A inserted (3.10.2011) by Land Registration (Electronic Communications) Order (Northern Ireland) 2011 (S.R. 2011/158), arts. 1, 2(5), Sch.

Interpretation of this Schedule

1 In this Schedule—

“digital signature” means data in electronic form which is incorporated into or logically associated with an electronic document which serves as a method of authentication and which is—

- (a) uniquely linked to the signatory;
- (b) capable of identifying the signatory;
- (c) created using a signature creation device that the signatory can maintain under the signatory's sole control; and
- (d) linked to the data to which it relates in such a manner that any subsequent change of data is detectable;

“electronic document” means a document created as an electronic communication within the Land Registry computer system;

“the Land Registry computer system” means the computer system operated by the Registry to enable creation of electronic documents and the electronic generation and communication of applications for registration of an estate or interest in land and automated registration of any such estate or interest;

“signatory” means a person who holds a signature creation device and acts either on his own behalf or on behalf of the person he represents;

“signature creation data” means unique data (including, but not limited to, codes or private cryptographic keys) which are used by the signatory to create an electronic signature;

“signature creation device” means configured software or hardware used to implement the signature creation data.

Validity of electronic documents

2 An electronic document which is valid in respect of the formalities of execution detailed in paragraph 3 shall be valid for the creation, transfer, variation or extinction of an estate or interest in land.

Formalities of execution of electronic documents

3 (1) An electronic document shall be valid in respect of the formalities of execution if that document has been authenticated by the person executing the document,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details) or if there is more than one such person by each person, in accordance with sub-paragraph (2).

- (2) An electronic document is authenticated if the digital signature of each person by whom the document purports to be authenticated—
 - (a) is incorporated into or logically associated with the electronic document;
 - (b) was created by the signatory by whom it purports to have been created;
 - (c) was created in accordance with such conditions as may be set out in directions given by the Registrar; and
 - (d) is certified in accordance with the provisions in sub-paragraph (4) and such conditions as may be set out in directions given by the Registrar.
- (3) A direction given by the Registrar under sub-paragraph (2)—
 - (a) shall be made after consultation with the Law Society of Northern Ireland;
 - (b) shall be published in such manner as the Registrar deems appropriate for the purpose of bringing it to the attention of the persons affected by it;
 - (c) may include incidental, supplementary, saving and transitional provisions; and
 - (d) may be varied or revoked by a subsequent direction.
- (4) For the purpose of this Schedule a digital signature incorporated into or associated with an electronic document is certified by any person if that person (whether at the time of or after the creation of the electronic document) has made a statement confirming that—
 - (a) the signature;
 - (b) a means of producing, communicating or verifying the signature; or
 - (c) a procedure applied to the signature,is (either alone or in combination with other factors) a valid means of establishing the authenticity of the document, the integrity of the document or both.

Equivalent treatment of electronic documents

- 4 (1) An electronic document authenticated in accordance with paragraph 3(2) is to be regarded for the purposes of any statutory provision as having the same effect as if the electronic document were a deed or a written document.
- (2) Where a person executes an electronic document in more than one capacity, authentication of that document by that person in accordance with this Act shall be sufficient to bind that person in all such capacities, unless a contrary intention appears from the document.

Presumption as to the authentication of electronic documents

- 5 Where an electronic document purports to be authenticated in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule the Registrar shall be entitled to presume that such electronic document was authenticated by the person by whom it purports to be authenticated.]

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

SCHEDULE 2

Section 24.

COMPULSORY REGISTRATION

PART I

COMPULSORY REGISTRATION AND EFFECT OF NON-REGISTRATION

Land subject to compulsory registrationEffect of non-registration

1. Freehold land which has been at any time sold and conveyed to or vested in, or deemed to have been vested in, any person under the Land Purchase Acts and was, on or after the 1st January 1892, subject to an annuity or rent-charge for the repayment of an advance made under any of those Acts on account of purchase money.

An estate in any such freehold land shall not be acquired under any conveyance executed on or after the 1st January 1892 until the title thereto is registered under this Act; but, on such registration, the title shall relate back to the date of execution of that conveyance.

2. Any freehold or leasehold estate, where the estate (not being an estate^{F96} comprising incorporeal rights held in gross or rights prescribed under section 10(1)(d)] and not being a mortgage) is acquired in respect of land situate in a compulsory registration area—

Subject to Part II, the conveyance on sale of the freehold estate or the grant or assignment on sale of the leasehold estate shall become void on the expiration of three months from the date of execution thereof unless, within that period, application is made, in such manner as may be prescribed, for registration in the^{F96} title register] of the person entitled to be registered as owner by virtue of the conveyance, grant or assignment, or of his successor in title.

(a) in the case of a freehold estate, upon a conveyance on sale; or
(b) in the case of a leasehold estate—
(i) on the grant of such an estate, where the term granted exceeds twenty-one years; or
(ii) on the assignment on sale of such an estate, where the residue of the term granted exceeds, at the date of assignment, twenty-one years.

3. Without prejudice to entry 2, land (other than a mortgage^{F96} or land comprising incorporeal rights held in gross or rights prescribed under section 10(1)(d)] which is compulsorily acquired by a Government department or by a public or local body after the commencement of this Act and the ownership of which is registrable in^{F96} the title register].

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other statutory provision, an estate in the land shall not be acquired by any person deriving title under the Government department or public or local body until the title to the^{F96} land] is registered under this Act.

4. A lease referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of entry 6 in Part I of Schedule 6, where such lease is made after the commencement of this Act and after the first registration of the land out of which the lease is granted.

Subject to Part II, the lease shall, so far as it affects any registered land, become void on the expiration of^{F96} six] months from the date thereof unless, within that period, application is made, in such manner as may be prescribed, for—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

5. A perpetual rent-charge or a fee farm rent issuing immediately out of land and created by a grant made after the commencement of this Act and after the first registration of that land.
6. A fishing or sporting right created by express grant or reservation after the commencement of this Act and after the first registration of the land out of which the right is granted or reserved, where the right is held in gross and is of freehold tenure, or of leasehold tenure when the term granted exceeds twenty-one years.
7. Any estate in land required by any other statutory provision to be registered in the Land Registry.
- (a) entry as a Schedule 6 burden on the appropriate register of the lease; and
(b) registration in the^{F96} title register] of the person entitled to be registered as owner by virtue of the lease, or of his successor in title.
- Subject to Part II, the grant shall, so far as it affects any registered land, become void on the expiration of^{F96} six] months from the date of such grant unless, within that period, application is made, in such manner as may be prescribed, for—
- (a) entry as a Schedule 6 burden on the^{F96} title register] of the rent-charge or rent; and
(b) registration in the^{F96} title register] of the persons entitled to be registered as owners of the land and of the rent-charge or rent by virtue of the grant, or of their respective successors in title.
- Subject to Part II, the grant or reservation creating the fishing or sporting right shall, so far as it affects any registered land, become void on the expiration of^{F96} six] months from the date of such grant or reservation unless, within that period, application is made, in such manner as may be prescribed, for—
- (a) entry as a Schedule 6 burden on the^{F96} title register], in such manner as may be prescribed, of the right; and
(b) registration in the^{F96} title register] of the person entitled to be registered as owner by virtue of the grant or reservation, or of his successor in title.
- As is provided by that statutory provision.

F96 1992 NI 7

PART II

POWER TO EXTEND TIME FOR FIRST COMPULSORY REGISTRATION

Notwithstanding the period of three months referred to in column 2 in respect of^{F97} entry 2, and the period of six months so referred to in respect of entries 4, 5 and 6], the Registrar may, on the application of any person interested in any particular case to which that period applies and in which the Registrar is satisfied that the application for registration—

- (a) cannot be made within that period, or can only be made within that period by incurring unreasonable expense; or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

(b) has not been made within that period by reason of some accident or other sufficient cause; make an order extending that period; and, if such an order is made, then, upon the registration of the owner, or, as the case may be, of his successor in title, a note of the order shall be endorsed on the relevant document.

F97 1992 NI 7

PART III

INTERPRETATION OF PART I

In Part I—

“assignment on sale” means an assurance on sale by virtue whereof there is conferred or completed a title under which an application for registration as owner of a leasehold estate may be made, and includes an assignment by way of exchange where money is paid for equality of exchange, but does not include an assignment or surrender of a lease to the owner of the immediate reversion containing a declaration that the term is to merge in such reversion;

“conveyance”, in entry 1 therein, does not include a conveyance conveying an estate expectant on a freehold estate, whether the estate so expectant is in reversion or remainder, or a conveyance by way of mortgage or transferring a mortgage;

“conveyance on sale” means an assurance made on sale by virtue whereof there is conferred or completed a title under which an application for registration as owner of a freehold estate may be made and includes a conveyance by way of exchange where money is paid for equality of exchange.

[^{F98}PART IV

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CERTAIN LEASES

F98 1992 NI 7

- 1 This Part applies to the estate created by a lease to which entry 4 in Part I applies, where the lease is made after the commencement of Article 10 of the Registration (Land and Deeds) (Northern Ireland) Order 1992.
- 2 For the purpose of—
 - (a) sections 72 and 73 of this Act (exemption from registration in, and notice to, the registry of deeds);
 - (b) section 5 of the Registration of Deeds Act (Northern Ireland) 1970 (documents that need not be registered in the registry of deeds); and
 - (c) Articles 46, 48 to 52 and 132 of the Judgments Enforcement (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (orders charging land; vacating of charges), an estate to which this Part applies shall be deemed to be registered land as from the time when the lease is made.

- 3 No notice of the registration of an estate to which this Part applies need be given to the registrar of deeds under section 72(3) or otherwise.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

- 4 Pending registration of an estate to which this Part applies—
- (a) an order made by the Enforcement of Judgments Office charging land held for that estate shall not be capable of registration in the registry of deeds, nor, subject to subparagraph (b), shall it be capable of registration in the Land Registry;
 - (b) on the application of the person on whose application the order charging the land was made, notice of the order may be registered in the title register against the land out of which the lease was granted;
 - (c) so long as the notice subsists in the title register, the lessee shall not be registered as owner of the estate, nor shall any person claiming under him be registered as owner of the estate or any derivative estate, unless the charge—
 - (i) has been satisfied, or
 - (ii) has ceased to have effect, or
 - (iii) is entered on the title register as a burden;and the entry relating to the notice shall state the restrictive effect thereof.
- 5 This Part does not prejudice the generality of section 72 (exemption from registration in the registry of deeds).]

SCHEDULE 3

Section 26.

RECLASSIFICATION OF TITLE

RECLASSIFICATION OF TITLES FORMERLY SUBJECT TO NOTES AS TO EQUITIES AND DEEMED TO BE POSSESSORY TITLES

- 1 Subject to paragraph 4, where the title to any registered land is deemed, by virtue of paragraph 2 of Part I of Schedule 13, to be a possessory title, the Registrar may, on the application, in accordance with Land Registry Rules, of the registered owner of the land, reclassify the title as absolute.

RECLASSIFICATION OF TITLES ON EFFLUX OF TIME

- 2 Subject to paragraph 4, where a person is registered or deemed to be registered (otherwise than by virtue of paragraph 2 of Part I of Schedule 13) with a possessory title to any estate in registered land and an application is made for registration of a transfer of that estate for valuable consideration, the Registrar may—
- (a) on the application of the registered owner or of the transferee;
 - (b) if satisfied that^{F99} twelve] years have elapsed since the first registration of the estate and the registered owner was, immediately prior to the transfer, in possession of the estate; and
 - (c) after giving such notices as may be prescribed;
- register the transferee—
- (i) in the case of a freehold estate, with an absolute title or, if the circumstances of the case so require, with a good fee farm grant title; or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

(ii) in the case of a leasehold estate, with a good leasehold title.

F99 1992 NI 7

RECLASSIFICATION OF TITLES IN OTHER CASES

- 3 Subject to paragraphs 4 and 5, where any person is registered with a title to any estate in registered land other than an absolute title, the Registrar may—
- (a) on his own initiative or on the application, in such manner as may be prescribed, of the registered owner of the estate or of some other person claiming to be entitled thereto;^{F100} . . .

Sub-para (b) rep. by 1992 NI 7 register the registered owner or such other person as he is satisfied is entitled to be registered as such—

- (i) if the existing registration is with a good fee farm grant title or a good leasehold title, with an absolute title; or
- (ii) if the existing registration is with a possessory title or a qualified title, with an absolute title, a good fee farm grant title or a good leasehold title, as the case may require.

F100 1992 NI 7

ADVERSE CLAIMS

- 4 If any claim adverse to the title of the registered owner is made, the Registrar shall not reclassify the title under this Schedule until such claim has been disposed of.

EVIDENCE OF TITLE AND NOTICES

- 5 In any case to which paragraph 3 applies, an applicant for re-classification shall produce such evidence of title as the Registrar may require, and the Registrar shall not reclassify the title until—
- (a) that evidence of title has been furnished to him; and
- (b) such notices, if any, as may be prescribed, or as he may require to be given, have been given.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

SCHEDULE 4

Section 37.

TRANSMISSION OF REGISTERED LAND

TRANSMISSION ON DEATH OF A FULL OWNER IN RESPECT OF DEATHS AFTER COMMENCEMENT OF ACT

1 (1) Without prejudice to the rights of the owner of any registered burden, on the death of a registered full owner of any land, not being a joint tenant whose interest ceased at death, the personal representatives of the deceased owner shall alone be recognised by the Registrar as having any right to deal with the estate of the deceased owner in the land, and any dispositions by them shall have the same effect as if they were the registered owners.

^{F101}(2) Where the personal representative, or one of the personal representatives, of the deceased owner is a trust corporation within the meaning of Article 9 of the Administration of Estates (Northern Ireland) Order 1979, any officer authorised for the purpose by the corporation, or by its directors or governing body, may, on behalf of the corporation, swear affidavits and do any act or thing which may be required, by reason of the corporation's appointment as a personal representative, for the purpose of any application, dealing or proceeding under this Act or under Land Registry Rules, and the acts of an officer so authorised shall be binding on the corporation.]

F101 1979 NI 14

2 Nothing in this Act or in any other statutory provision shall require the Registrar to register as owner a person in his capacity as a personal representative.

3 The Registrar may enter on the^{F102} title register] a note of the fact of the death of a registered owner, stating the particulars of representation.

F102 1992 NI 7

4 The production of an assent or transfer in the prescribed form from the personal representatives shall authorise the Registrar to register the person named in such assent or transfer as full owner or limited owner of the land, as the case may be^{F103}, and to register any burdens specified in the assent or transfer and the ownership of such burdens, where so specified].

F103 1992 NI 7

5 On an application to the court under subsection (3) of section 34 of the Administration of Estates Act (Northern Ireland) 1955 in respect of registered land, the court may, notwithstanding anything in that subsection—

- (a) order that the applicant be registered as owner of the land;
- (b) dispense with notice to the personal representatives when it is satisfied that—
 - (i) at least six years have elapsed since the death of the deceased; and
 - (ii) the personal representatives are dead or out of the jurisdiction.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

TRANSMISSION OF ESTATE OF LIMITED OWNER ON DEATH, IN RESPECT OF DEATHS AFTER COMMENCEMENT OF ACT, OR OTHERWISE

6 ^{F104}(1) ^{F104}[Without prejudice to sub-paragraph (2) and paragraph 6A,] on the determination of the estate of a limited owner of registered land, the Registrar shall, on application in such manner as may be prescribed, register as owner the person entitled to be registered as such.

^{F104}(2) Where—

- (a) a person has been registered as limited owner by virtue of paragraph 4; and
- (b) the estate (“the relevant estate”) of that person is determined;

then, the assent or transfer mentioned in paragraph 4 shall, on application in such manner as may be prescribed, authorise the Registrar—

- (i) to register as full or limited owner (as the case may be) the person named in the assent or transfer (or his successor in title) as the person entitled to the land on the determination of the relevant estate; and
- (ii) to register any burdens specified in the assent or transfer and, where the ownership of such burdens is specified in the assent or transfer, the owner so specified or his successor in title.]

F104 1992 NI 7

^{F105}FUNCTIONS OF REGISTRAR IN RELATION TO ASSENTS
 OR TRANSFERS BY PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES]

F105 1992 NI 7

6A Where an application for registration is made for the purposes of paragraph 4 or 6(2), the Registrar—

- (a) shall not call for any information as to why the assent or transfer was made;
- (b) shall assume that the personal representatives are or were acting correctly, and within their powers, in relation to the assent or transfer and that the assent or transfer is complete and accurate in all its details.

APPLICATION OF PARAGRAPHS 1 TO^{F106} 6A]

F106 1992 NI 7

7 Paragraphs 1 to^{F107} 6A] shall, in relation to transmissions on death, apply in the case of persons dying after the commencement of this Act.

SCHEDULE 7

Section 41(5), (6) and (7).

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CHARGES ON REGISTERED LAND

PART I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

REGISTRATION OF CHARGES

- 1 ^{F126}(1) Subject to paragraphs 2 and 3, every deed of charge by a registered owner shall be in the prescribed form or in such other form, ^{F126}. . . , as shall sufficiently charge the land and as shall not be calculated to mislead.
- ^{F126}(2) A document purporting to transfer or demise (whether or not subject to defeasance) a freehold or leasehold estate in registered land by way of mortgage shall so far only as it relates to such land be deemed to be a deed of charge of, respectively, that estate or the estate out of which the leasehold estate is purported to be demised, and shall not operate to vest any freehold or leasehold estate in the registered land in the person in whose favour the document is executed.]

F126 1992 NI 7

- 2 The registered land comprised in a charge created by deed after the commencement of this Act shall be described by reference to the^{F127} title register] or in any other manner sufficient to enable the Registrar to identify the same.

F127 1992 NI 7

- 3 A deed of charge shall not refer to any other burden affecting the land which would have priority over the charge unless such burden is—
- (a) entered or deemed to be entered on the^{F128} title register]; or
 - (b) a Schedule 5 burden.

F128 1992 NI 7

- 4 When it is expressed in a deed of charge that any person covenants for payment of the principal sum charged, there shall, unless provision to the contrary is contained in the deed of charge, be implied a covenant by that person with the registered owner for the time being of the charge—
- (a) to pay the principal sum charged and interest, if any, at the time and rate specified in the deed of charge; and
 - (b) if the principal sum, or any part thereof, is unpaid at the time so specified, to pay interest half-yearly at the rate so specified on so much of the principal sum as for the time being remains unpaid.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

EFFECT OF REGISTRATION OF OWNERSHIP OF CHARGE

- 5 (1) On registration of an owner of a charge on registered land for the payment of any principal sum of money, with or without interest, the owner of the charge shall have all the rights and powers of a mortgagee under a mortgage by deed within the meaning of the Conveyancing Acts, including the power to sell the estate which is subject to the charge, and any deed creating such a charge shall be liable to stamp duty as if it were such a mortgage.
- (2) The registered owner of a charge may apply to the court for the possession of the registered land, the subject of the charge, or any part of that land, and—
- (a) on such application, the court may, subject to sub-paragraph (3), order the possession of the land, or that part thereof, to be delivered to him; and
 - (b) upon so obtaining possession of the land or, as the case may be, that part thereof, he shall be deemed to be a mortgagee in possession.
- (3) The power conferred on the court by sub-paragraph (2) shall not be exercised—
- (a) except when payment of the principal sum of money secured by the deed of charge has become due and the court thinks it proper to exercise the power; or
 - (b) unless the court is satisfied that, although payment of the principal sum has not become due, there are urgent and special reasons for exercising the power.
- 6 If the registered owner of a charge on land sells the land in pursuance of any of his powers, his transferee shall be registered as owner of the land, and thereupon the registration shall have the same effect as registration of a transfer for valuable consideration by a registered owner.
- 7 When a purchaser from the registered owner of a charge is registered, under paragraph 6, as owner of the land, the charge and all estates inferior thereto shall, subject to paragraph 8, be discharged.
- 8 Nothing in paragraph 7 shall operate so as to discharge any entry made or deemed to have been made in any register relating to a right of turbary conferred or defined by regulations under section 4 of the Turbary (Ireland) Act 1891, or under section 21 of the Irish Land Act 1903, as extended by section 26 of the Northern Ireland Land Act 1925 (which relate to turbary).
- 9 On registration of the owner of a charge by way of annuity, the owner of the charge shall have such remedies for recovering and compelling payment of the annuity as are mentioned in section 44 of the Conveyancing Act 1881, as modified by section 6 of the Conveyancing Act 1911.

PART II

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO CERTAIN CHARGES IN RESPECT OF SETTLED LAND

A registered limited owner of registered land may, in conjunction with all other persons entitled under the settlement (if such owner and all such other persons are of full age and capacity) charge that land with the payment of money in like manner as if such owner and such other persons were registered as full owners of the land.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

PART III

VALIDITY OF CERTAIN CHARGES PURPORTING TO BE REGISTERED AT 28TH JULY 1957

- 1 (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or in any other statutory provision, a charge purporting to have been registered in the Land Registry at the 28th July 1957 shall, subject to paragraphs 2 and 3, not be void by reason only—
- (a) that it was expressed to have been created by way of mortgage; or
 - (b) that the consent of the Ministry was not obtained to a demise or sub-demise expressed to have been created by any such mortgage;
- and the purported registration of the charge, as a charge on registered land, shall not be invalid for either of those reasons.
- (2) In this paragraph, “mortgage” includes both a mortgage by demise or sub-demise and a mortgage by conveyance or assignment with a proviso for redemption.
- 2 Except as provided by paragraph 3, paragraph 1 shall not affect any order or judgment made or given before the 29th July 1957 in legal proceedings begun before the 18th June 1957, or any appeal or other proceedings consequent on any such order or judgment.
- 3 Paragraph 2—
- (a) shall not apply to any order or judgment specified in that paragraph to the extent that any such order or judgment was set aside by any court pursuant to section 2(3) of the Land Registry Charges Act (Northern Ireland) 1957 ; and
 - (b) shall apply to any further order made by any court pursuant to the said section 2(3).

SCHEDULE 8

Section 56.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO SETTLED LAND AND TO CHARITABLE TRUSTS, ETC.

PART I

SETTLED LAND

- 1 The Registrar may register in respect of any settled land—
- (a) the owner of the particular estate in such land, as limited owner thereof; or
 - (b) any trustees in whom that land is vested, as full owners thereof.
- 2 Where a person is registered as limited owner under a settlement, the names of the trustees of the settlement, if any, shall be entered in^{F129} . . . the^{F129} title register].

- (a) confer on the person so registered, as against any person claiming under the settlement, any greater powers of dealing with the land than those of a tenant for life under the Settled Land Acts;
 - (b) confer on the assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, devisee or personal representatives of the limited owner any greater estate than he would otherwise have;
 - (c) take away from any trustee under the settlement any powers of dealing with the land which he would otherwise have.
- 4 (1) Where a person is, by operation of law or otherwise, assignee of a person registered as limited owner of any land, the name of the assignee shall, on his application, be entered on^{F130} the title register] with the addition of the word “assignee”, or of such other words as may be prescribed.
- (2) In default of an entry made pursuant to sub-paragraph (1), the registration of the limited owner shall continue to have effect as if there had been no assignment.

F130 1992 NI 7

- 5 Where a new trustee of a settlement to which paragraph 2 relates is appointed, the Registrar shall, on application and on production of the prescribed evidence, enter his name accordingly.
- 6 The provisions of this Act with respect to the registration of limited owners shall not apply in the case of settled land within the meaning of section 63 of the Settled Land Act 1882 unless the settlement confers on the limited owner the powers conferred by the Settled Land Act 1882 on a tenant for life, or an order made under the Settled Land Act 1884 is in force at the time of the application for registration.
- 7 Where an order referred to in paragraph 6 is made with respect to registered land, it shall be to the effect that the person who is to exercise the powers of a tenant for life of the land in pursuance of that section shall be registered as limited owner of the land subject to such inhibitions, if any, as may be considered expedient, and it shall not be necessary to register the order as a pending action.
- 8 A person shall not be affected by notice of the trusts of any settlement by reason of any person being registered as limited owner under the settlement or by reason of any reference to the settlement being entered on^{F131} the title register].

- ^{F140}4A(1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies where—
- (a) there is mediation in relation to a relevant cross border dispute giving rise to a claim for compensation; and
 - (b) the period of 6 years referred to in paragraph 4(1) (“the limitation period”) would, apart from this paragraph, expire—
 - (i) in the period of 8 weeks after the date on which the mediation ends;
 - (ii) on the date on which the mediation ends; or
 - (iii) after the date on which all of the parties to the dispute agree to participate in the mediation but before the date on which the mediation ends.
- (2) Where this sub-paragraph applies, the limitation period is extended so that it expires on the date falling 8 weeks after the date on which the mediation ends.
- (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) and (2), a mediation in relation to a relevant cross-border dispute ends on the date of the first of these to occur—
- (a) all of the parties reach an agreement in resolution of the dispute;
 - (b) all of the parties agree to end the mediation;
 - (c) a party notifies all of the other parties of that party's withdrawal;
 - (d) a period of 14 days expires after a request made by one party to another party for confirmation of whether the other party has withdrawn and the other party does not respond in that period; or
 - (e) a period of 14 days expires after the date on which the mediator's tenure ends (by reason of death, resignation or otherwise) and a replacement mediator has not been appointed in that period.

5 In any case of the rectification, pursuant to section 69, of an error, the costs reasonably incurred by the claimant in obtaining the rectification shall be deemed to be a loss to which this Schedule applies.

QUANTUM OF COMPENSATION

6 When compensation is payable under this Schedule, the amount thereof (excluding costs) shall not exceed—

- (a) where^{F141} the register] is not rectified, the value of the land at the time when the error was made or, as the case may be, the omission happened;
- (b) where^{F141} the register] is rectified, the value (if there had been no rectification) of the land immediately prior to such rectification.

F141 1992 NI 7

7 Except for the purposes of paragraph 6, compensation payable under this Schedule shall include any reasonable costs properly incurred by the claimant in establishing his claim.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS IN RESPECT OF SETTLED LAND

8 Where compensation is paid in respect of settled land, and not in respect of any particular estate, remainder or reversion therein, the compensation shall be paid to the trustees of the settlement and held by them as capital money for the purposes of the Settled Land Acts.

PROCEDURE FOR CLAIMING COMPENSATION

- 10 Where any question arising as to whether a person is entitled to compensation, or as to the amount of compensation, is not settled between that person and the Department, that question shall be referred to and determined by the Lands Tribunal.
- 11 Before or instead of determining a question referred to it under paragraph 10, the Lands Tribunal may exercise any power which is exercisable by the court under section 69(1) and (3) or paragraph 4 of Schedule 10 (rectification of errors); and an order made in exercise of such a power is an order of a court of competent jurisdiction for the purposes of section 9(1) (Registrar to obey court orders in relation to registered land) and section 9(2) (clarification of orders).

SCHEDULE 10

Section 80.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO CERTAIN VESTING ORDERS AND FIATS UNDER THE LAND PURCHASE ACTS

APPLICATION OF SCHEDULE

- 1 This Schedule applies to—
- (a) any vesting order made in the exercise of powers conferred by section 8 of the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Act 1885 as amended or extended by any other statutory provision; and
 - (b) any fiat which, if it had been given immediately after the signing of the agreement for purchase to which it relates, would, under any provision of the Land Purchase Acts, have had effect as if it were a vesting order so made;
- and, accordingly, references in this Schedule to a vesting order are references to any such vesting order or fiat.

VESTING NOT TO BE INVALIDATED BY DEATH

- 2 A vesting order shall not be void by reason of the death before the making thereof of the person in whom any land comprised therein is purported to be vested, but shall be effectual to vest, and shall be deemed always to have vested, that land in the personal representatives (when raised) of such person to such uses and upon such trusts as that land would have stood limited had it been vested in such person immediately prior to his death.
- 3 Any entry shown on^{F143} the title register] as the first registration of any land shall not be invalid by reason that the person thereby shown to be registered as owner was then dead and, accordingly—
- (a) the land shall be deemed to be registered land as from the making of that entry; and
 - (b) any person who proves to the satisfaction of the Registrar that he is entitled to the land may be registered as owner thereof.

PROCEDURE FOR CORRECTIONS CONSEQUENT UPON ERRORS IN VESTING ORDERS

- 4 Subject to paragraph 5, where an error is found to have been made in a vesting order, or in any map of land vested by a vesting order, and such error either—
- (a) has, on first registration, been incorporated in any entry in^{F144} the register]; or
 - (b) has been discovered before first registration has been completed;
- the court may, in accordance with and subject to section 69(1) and (3), treat the error as if it were an error occurring in the registration of the ownership of the land and may direct such consequential rectification of^{F144} the register] as appears to the court to be necessary.

F144 1992 NI 7

- 5 Notwithstanding anything contained in section 69(2), where the error in a vesting order consists only of a misdescription of the person in whom land was vested by the order, the Registrar may, on the application of the registered owner, or of any person applying to be registered as owner, of the land and upon proof of such misdescription, treat the vesting order as if it had correctly described the person in whom land was vested by the order and may note the correct description of that person on any entry in the^{F145} title register] relating to any land vested by the vesting order.

F145 1992 NI 7

- 6 Nothing in paragraphs 4 and 5 shall confer upon any person a right to make any claim^{F146} for compensation] which he would not have been entitled to make if those paragraphs had not been enacted.

Schedule 12 #Amendments

SCHEDULE 13

Section 96.

TRANSITIONAL AND SAVING PROVISIONS

PART I

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

EFFECT OF PREVIOUS REGISTRATION WITH A QUALIFIED OR POSSESSORY TITLE

- 1 Where, immediately before the commencement of this Act, the owner of any land was registered with a qualified or a possessory title, such owner shall be deemed to be registered with a qualified or, as the case may be, a possessory title within the meaning of this Act.

EFFECT OF PREVIOUS REGISTRATION SUBJECT TO NOTE AS TO EQUITIES

- 2 Where, immediately before the commencement of this Act, the registration of the ownership of a freehold estate was noted as being subject to any rights or equities pursuant to section 29(3) of the Act of 1891, the title to the estate shall be deemed to be a possessory title within the meaning of this Act.

EFFECT OF PREVIOUS REGISTRATION NOT SUBJECT TO NOTE AS TO EQUITIES

- 3 Where, immediately before the commencement of this Act, the registration of ownership of a freehold estate was not noted as being subject to any rights or equities, the title to the estate shall, subject to paragraph 1, be deemed to be an absolute title within the meaning of this Act.

EFFECT OF PREVIOUS REGISTRATION WITH A NOTE TO THE EFFECT THAT THE TITLE OF LESSOR HAS BEEN EXAMINED AND FOUND TO BE GOOD AND VALID

- 4 Where, immediately before the commencement of this Act, there was entered, in relation to the registration of the ownership of a leasehold estate, a note to the effect that the title of the lessor had been examined and found to be good and valid, the title shall be deemed to be an absolute title within the meaning of this Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2006. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970. (See end of Document for details)

EFFECT OF PREVIOUS REGISTRATION WITHOUT A NOTE RELATING TO THE TITLE OF LESSOR

- 5 Where, immediately before the commencement of this Act, the registration of ownership of a leasehold estate contained no such note as is referred to in paragraph 4, the title shall, subject to paragraph 1, be deemed to be a good leasehold title within the meaning of this Act.

EFFECT OF PREVIOUS REGISTRATION IN THE REGISTER OF PROPRIETORS

- 6 Where, immediately before the commencement of this Act, registration of the ownership of any land was entered in the register of proprietors maintained under the Small Dwellings Acquisition Acts (Northern Ireland) 1899 to 1948, such registration shall, subject to Land Registry Rules, be deemed to have been made in the register of freeholders or in the register of leaseholders, as the circumstances of the case may require.

TRANSFERS OF REGISTRATIONS FROM LOCAL REGISTRIES TO CENTRAL OFFICE

- 7 Where, immediately before the commencement of this Act, the title to any land was registered in a local office, such registration shall, subject as may be prescribed, be transferred to the central office, and, for the purpose of this paragraph, a duplicate folio of any land so registered maintained in the central office shall be deemed to be the original folio.

STATUTORY CHARGES UNDER THE ACT OF 1951

- 8 Every amendment to Schedule 11 to this Act shall, so long as section 2 of the Statutory Charges Register Act (Northern Ireland) 1951 remains unrepealed in part, be deemed to constitute an amendment to that section so far as it is so unrepealed.

CONSTRUCTION OF CERTAIN CROSS-REFERENCES

- 9 References in any statutory provision to the Act of 1891 shall be construed as references to this Act, and references in any statutory provision to any provision in the Act of 1891 shall be construed as references to the provision as re-enacted (with or without modification) in this Act.
- 10 References in any statutory provision to a registering authority under the Act of 1891 shall be construed as references to the Registrar within the meaning of this Act.

DISPOSAL OF CERTAIN BOOKS, ETC., RELATING TO RECORD OF TITLE

- 11 The Ministry may, subject to any rules made under the Public Records Act (Northern Ireland) 1923, direct that all or any of the books, documents and papers
