

Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021

2021 asc 1

PART 1

ELECTIONS

Voting systems for elections to principal councils

12 Restriction on number of councillors if single transferable vote system applies

Where the single transferable vote system applies to the election of councillors for a principal council, the number of councillors for each electoral ward is to be no less than three, but no more than six.