2022 asc 1

PART 4

APPRENTICESHIPS

Functions of the Commission

117 Preparation and publication of apprenticeship frameworks

- (1) The Commission may prepare or secure the preparation of apprenticeship frameworks.
- (2) The Commission may publish apprenticeship frameworks prepared by itself or by other persons (whether or not the Commission secured their preparation).
- (3) An apprenticeship framework published under this section must comply with any requirements specified under section 115.
- (4) An apprenticeship framework may specify requirements at different levels of attainment for the same occupation or group of occupations, either within the same apprenticeship framework or in separate frameworks.
- (5) An apprenticeship framework may include any material relevant to an approved Welsh apprenticeship in the occupation or group of occupations to which the framework relates or to approved Welsh apprenticeships generally.
- (6) The Commission must make arrangements to keep under review each published apprenticeship framework with a view to determining whether the framework ought to be revised or withdrawn.
- (7) The Commission may—
  - (a) publish a revised version of an apprenticeship framework, or
  - (b) withdraw an apprenticeship framework (with or without publishing another in its place).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

---

- (8) An apprenticeship framework published under this section must state the date on which it comes into force.
- (9) References to an apprenticeship framework in this section include a revised framework.
