PART 7

ENFORCEMENT

Temporary stop notices

117 Power to issue temporary stop notice

- (1) A relevant planning authority may issue a temporary stop notice if it considers that—
 - (a) an activity has been or is being carried out in relation to land in its area that constitutes an offence under section 103 or 104, and
 - (b) the activity (or any part of that activity) ought to be stopped immediately.
- (2) A temporary stop notice must—
 - (a) specify the activity that the planning authority considers to constitute an offence,
 - (b) prohibit the carrying out of the activity (or of so much of the activity as is specified in the notice),
 - (c) set out the authority's reasons for issuing the notice, and
 - (d) state the effect of section 120 (offence of breaching temporary stop notice).
- (3) The planning authority must display a copy of the temporary stop notice on the land to which it relates; and the copy must specify the date on which it is first displayed.
- (4) But if it is not reasonably practicable to display a copy of the notice on the land, the planning authority may instead display a copy in a prominent place as near to the land as is reasonably practicable.
- (5) The planning authority may serve a copy of a temporary stop notice on any person the authority considers—
 - (a) to be carrying out the activity that the notice prohibits,
 - (b) to be an occupier of the land to which the notice relates,
 - (c) to have an interest in the land, or
