- (i) after the decision of the appeal committee, but
 - (ii) before the time by which any appeal must be lodged in accordance with paragraph 7(3) of schedule 2.]
- [^{F16}(g) failure by the education authority to comply with their duties under section 12(6) and 13 in respect of the child or young person (except where consent for information to be provided under section 13(2)(a) or (4) has not been given under section 13(5)) .]
- (4) This subsection applies where^{F17}...—
 - (a) a co-ordinated support plan has been prepared (and not discontinued) for the child or young person,
 - (b) no such plan has been prepared, but it has been established by the education authority that the child or young person requires such a plan, or
 - [^{F18}(ba) no such plan has been prepared, but under subsection (2)(a) of section 11 the education authority have informed the persons mentioned in subsection (3) of that section of their proposal to establish whether the child or young person requires, or would require, such a plan,]
 - (c) the education authority have decided that the child or young person does not require such a plan and that decision has been referred to [^{F19}the First-tier Tribunal] under subsection (1).
- (5) A decision of an education authority not to comply with a request referred to in section 6(2)(b) made in relation to any child or young person is to be treated for the purposes of this section as a decision of the authority that the child or young person does not require a co-ordinated support plan.
- [^{F20}(5A) Where an education authority fail, in response to a request referred to in section 6(2)(b)—
 - (a) to inform under subsection (2)(a) of section 11 the persons mentioned in subsection (3) of that section of their proposal to establish whether a child or young person requires, or would require, a co-ordinated support plan by the time required by regulations made in pursuance of subsection (8) of that section, or
 - (b) to inform those persons of any decision not to comply with the request by the time required by such regulations,that failure is to be treated for the purposes of this section as a decision of the authority that the child or young person does not require a co-ordinated support plan.
- (5B) Where under subsection (2)(a) of section 11 the education authority have informed the persons mentioned in subsection (3) of that section of their proposal to establish whether the child or young person requires, or would require, a co-ordinated support plan, failure by the authority so to establish by the time required by regulations made in pursuance of subsection (8) of that section is to be treated for the purposes of this section as a decision of the authority that the child or young person does not require a co-ordinated support plan.]
- (6) Where, in respect of any child or young person for whom a co-ordinated support plan has been prepared (and not discontinued), any of the information referred to in subsection (3)(d)(i) has been referred under subsection (1) to [^{F21}the First-tier Tribunal] , a further reference under that subsection in respect of the same information is not competent unless, since the last such reference was disposed of, a review of the plan has been carried out under section 10.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2018. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004, Cross Heading: Appeals. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) Where a decision referred to in subsection [F22 (3)(da) or (e)] in respect of a child or young person has been referred under subsection (1) to [F23 the First-tier Tribunal] , a further reference under that subsection of such a decision in respect of the child or young person is not competent during the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the last such reference of such a decision was made, unless, during that period—
- (a) a review of any co-ordinated support plan prepared for the child or young person has been carried out under section 10,
 - (b) any such plan prepared for the child or young person has been amended pursuant to a requirement made by [F23 the First-tier Tribunal] under section 19(4)(b), or
 - (c) where the last such reference of such a decision was made by virtue of subsection (4)(c), a co-ordinated support plan has been prepared for the child or young person.
- [F24 (8) For the purposes of subsection (7), it is irrelevant whether the further reference, and the last reference, mentioned in that subsection relate to the same or to different specified schools (which expression is to be construed in accordance with paragraph 2(3) of schedule 2).
- (9) Nothing in subsection (7) prevents a further reference being made during the period mentioned in that subsection if the last reference so mentioned is, by virtue of rules under paragraph 11 of schedule 1, withdrawn before any hearing by [F25 the First-tier Tribunal] in relation to the last reference is held.
- (10) But where a further reference is made in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (9), the [F26 Chamber President] may, if satisfied that there is good reason to do so, decide that the reference is not to proceed to consideration by [F27 the First-tier Tribunal] .
- (11) Subsection (7) applies in relation to a decision referred to in subsection (3)(ea) or (eb) as it applies in relation to a decision referred to in subsection (3)(da) or (e); but only where any further reference would relate to—
- (a) the same right as mentioned in subsection (3)(ea) as the last such reference relates to, or
 - (b) the same matter as mentioned in subsection (3)(eb) as the last such reference relates to.]

PROSPECTIVE

20 [^{F45}References to First-tier Tribunal and powers of First-tier Tribunal: further provision] S

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by order extend the categories of decision, failure or information in respect of which a reference to the [^{F46}First-tier Tribunal] under section 18(1) may be made; and without prejudice to the generality such further categories of decision, failure or information may include—
- (a) a decision of the education authority—
- (i) that the child or young person has, or does not have, additional support needs,
 - (ii) that a child or young person has additional support needs of a type that the person making the referral considers are not an accurate reflection of the child or young person's additional support needs,
 - (iii) to refuse an assessment request as referred to in section 8,
 - (iv) as to the person, or to the means used, or to be used, to carry out the process of assessment or examination referred to in section 8,
- (b) failure by—
- (i) the education authority,
 - (ii) any person identified in any co-ordinated support plan prepared for the child or young person as a person by whom additional support should be provided, or
 - (iii) a combination of these persons,
- to provide the additional support required by the child or young person.
- (2) Any order made under subsection (1) may also include provision to allow the [^{F47}Chamber President] to reject references to the [^{F48}First-tier Tribunal] arising from any further category of decision, failure or information referred to in the order without a hearing where the [^{F47}Chamber President] is satisfied that the reference prima facie raises no substantial issue.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2018. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004, Cross Heading: Appeals. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Orders made under subsection (1) may also make such consequential provision as the Scottish Ministers consider necessary or expedient, including provision as to the [^{F49}First-tier Tribunal's] powers in relation to any new category of decision, failure or information that may be referred to it.
