2005 asp 16

PART 9

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Miscellaneous

137 Inspection of premises before grant of licence etc.

- (1) In this section, “relevant proposal or application” means—
  - (a) a premises licence application,
  - (b) a premises licence variation application,
  - (c) a premises licence review proposal or application,
  - (d) an application under section 47(2) for a temporary premises licence,
  - (e) an occasional licence application, or
  - (f) an extended hours application.
- (2) Any of the persons specified in subsection (3) may, at any reasonable time before the determination of a relevant proposal or application, enter the premises to which the proposal or application relates for the purposes of assessing—
  - (a) in the case of an application such as is mentioned in paragraph (a), (b), (d), (e) or (f) of subsection (1), the likely effect of the grant of the application on the licensing objectives, or
  - (b) in the case of a proposal or application such as is mentioned in paragraph (c) of that subsection, the effect which the selling of alcohol in accordance with the premises licence is having on those objectives.
- (3) The persons referred to in subsection (2) are—
  - (a) a constable, and
  - (b) a Licensing Standards Officer for the council area in which the premises are situated.
- (4) A person exercising the power conferred by subsection (2) may if necessary use reasonable force.

138 Police powers of entry

- (1) A constable may at any time enter and inspect any licensed premises.
- (2) A constable may—
  - (a) if the condition in subsection (3) is satisfied, and
  - (b) subject to subsection (4),
 at any time enter and inspect any premises (other than licensed premises) on which food or drink is sold for consumption on the premises.
- (3) The condition referred to in subsection (2)(a) is that the constable has reasonable grounds for believing that alcohol is being sold on the premises in breach of section 1(1).
- (4) A constable below the rank of inspector may exercise the power conferred by subsection (2) only—
  - (a) if the constable has obtained written authority to do so from a justice of the peace or a constable of or above the rank of inspector,
  - (b) within the period of 8 days beginning with the date on which such authority is obtained, and
  - (c) at such time or times as is specified in the authority.
- (5) A person who intentionally obstructs a constable exercising a power conferred by this section commits an offence.
- (6) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (5) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

140 Presumption as to liquid contents of containers

- (1) This section applies for the purpose of any trial in proceedings for an alleged offence under any provision of this Act.
- (2) Where—
- (a) liquid is found in a container (whether open or sealed), and
  - (b) there is on the container a description of the liquid contents of the container, the liquid found is to be presumed to be liquid of that description.
- (3) Where an open container is found which—
- (a) contains—
    - (i) no liquid, or
    - (ii) an amount of liquid insufficient to allow analysis of it,
  - (b) was sealed at the time it was sold or supplied, and
  - (c) has on it a description of the liquid contents of the container, the container is to be presumed to have contained, at the time it was sold or supplied, liquid of that description.
- (4) At the trial, any party to the proceedings may rebut the presumption mentioned in subsection (2) or (3) by proving that, at the time of its sale or supply, the liquid in the container was not of the description on the container.
- (5) However, a party may lead evidence for the purpose of rebutting the presumption only if the party has, not less than 7 days before the date of the trial, given notice of the intention to do so to the other parties.
