

Public Health etc. (Scotland) Act 2008

2008 asp 5

PART 8

REGULATION OF PROVISION OF SUNBEDS

Offences

VALID FROM 01/12/2009

95 Prohibition on allowing use of sunbeds by persons under 18

- (1) An operator of sunbed premises who, without reasonable excuse, allows a person who is under 18 to use a sunbed on those premises commits an offence.
- (2) In proceedings for an offence under subsection (1), it is a defence for the operator to show that—
  - (a) the operator believed the person to be 18 or over; and
  - (b) the operator had taken reasonable steps to establish the person's age.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), the operator is to be treated as having taken reasonable steps to establish the person's age if (and only if)—
  - (a) the operator was shown any of the documents mentioned in subsection (4); and
  - (b) that document would have convinced a reasonable person.
- (4) The documents referred to in subsection (3)(a) are any document appearing to be—
  - (a) a passport;
  - (b) a European Union photocard driving licence; or
  - (c) such other document (or description of document) as may be prescribed.
- (5) In subsections (2)(a) and (b) and (3), references to the operator include an employee or agent of the operator.
