EXPLANATORY NOTES

THE ACT

Part 4 – the Scottish Court Service

Provision of advice etc. to the Scottish Ministers

Section 65 – Provision of advice etc. to the Scottish Ministers

120. This section makes more specific provision to that more general provision in paragraph 15(2)(c) of schedule 3. That paragraph provides that the SCS may do anything it considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of or in connection with its functions including, in particular, providing information and advice. This section provides that the SCS may give information or advice, or make proposals, to the Scottish Ministers on matters relating to its functions or the administration of justice in Scotland. Furthermore this section provides that the Scottish Ministers must have regard to such information, advice or proposals.
