- subsection (2) to provide the local authority with, in relation to any house within the local authority's area—
- (a) confirmation of the nature of that person's interest in the house;
 - (b) the name and address of, and information about that person's relationship with, any other person whom that person knows to—
 - (i) own, occupy or have any other interest in the house;
 - (ii) act in relation to a lease or occupancy arrangement to which that house is subject; or
 - (iii) act for the person who owns the house with a view to a lease or occupancy arrangement being entered into in relation to that house;
 - (c) such other information relating to the house, or such other person, as the local authority may reasonably request.
- (2) A person falls within this subsection if the person—
- (a) owns, occupies or has any other interest in the house concerned;
 - (b) acts in relation to a lease or occupancy arrangement to which that house is subject; or
 - (c) acts for the person who owns the house with a view to a lease or occupancy arrangement being entered into in relation to that house.
- (3) A local authority may, for the purpose of enabling or assisting it to exercise any function under this Part, require any person appearing to it to fall within subsection (4) to provide the local authority with—
- (a) confirmation of the nature of that person's interest in any house within the local authority's area in relation to which the person acts;
 - (b) the address of any such house;
 - (c) the name and address of, and information about that person's relationship with, any other person whom that person knows to own any such house;
 - (d) such other information relating to any such house, or such other person, as the local authority may reasonably request.
- (4) A person falls within this subsection if the person—
- (a) acts in relation to a lease or occupancy arrangement to which any house within the local authority's area is subject; or
 - (b) acts for the person who owns the house with a view to a lease or occupancy arrangement being entered into in relation to such a house.
- (5) A requirement under subsection (1) or (3) is to be made by serving it on the person concerned in accordance with section 97B.
- (6) It is an offence for a person—
- (a) without reasonable excuse, to fail to comply with a requirement made under this section; or
 - (b) knowingly or recklessly to provide information which is false or misleading in a material respect to a local authority or any other person—
 - (i) in purported compliance with a requirement made under this section; or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

(ii) otherwise if the person knows, or could reasonably be expected to know, that the information may be used by, or provided to, a local authority in connection with its functions under this Part.

(7) A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale.

97B Power to obtain information: service of requirement

(1) A requirement under section 97A(1) or (3) must be in writing.

(2) A requirement under section 97A(1) or (3) is served on a person if it is—

- (a) delivered to the person at the place mentioned in subsection (3);
- (b) sent, by post in a prepaid registered letter or by the recorded delivery service, to the person at that place; or
- (c) sent to the person in some other manner (including by electronic means) which the local authority reasonably considers likely to cause it to be delivered to the person on the same or next day.

(3) The place referred to in subsection (2) is—

- (a) where the person is an individual, that person's place of business or usual or last known place of abode;
- (b) where the person is an incorporated company or body, its registered or principal office.

(4) Subsection (5) applies where service of a requirement by one of the methods described in subsection (2) has been attempted and failed.

(5) Where this subsection applies, a requirement under section 97A(1) or (3) may be served on the person by—

- (a) where the person is an individual, leaving a copy of the requirement at that person's place of business or usual or last known place of abode;
- (b) where the person is an incorporated company or body, leaving a copy of the requirement at the person's registered or principal office.

(6) Subsection (7) applies where the local authority is unable to deliver or send a requirement under section 97A(1) or (3) to the owner or occupier of any house or other premises because the local authority is not (having made reasonable enquiries) aware of the name or address of that owner or occupier.

(7) Where this subsection applies, a requirement under section 97A(1) or (3) may be served by addressing a copy of it to “The Owner” or, as the case may be, “The Occupier” of the house and leaving it at the house or other premises.

(8) A requirement which is sent by electronic means is to be treated as being in writing if it is received in a form which is legible and capable of being used for subsequent reference.”.

PART 2

HOUSES IN MULTIPLE OCCUPATION

13 Amendment of HMO licensing regime

- (1) In section 125 of the 2006 Act (meaning of “house in multiple occupation”)—
- (a) in subsection (1)—
 - (i) for the words from “Any” to second “is” substitute “ “HMO” means any living accommodation ”, and
 - (ii) after “families” insert “—
 - (a) which—
 - (i) falls within subsection (2), and
 - (ii) is occupied by those 3 or more persons as an only or main residence, or
 - (b) which is of such type, or which is occupied in such manner, as the Scottish Ministers may by order specify.”,
 - (b) after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) Before making an order under subsection (1)(b), the Scottish Ministers must consult—

 - (a) local authorities, and
 - (b) such tenants (or tenants' representatives) and such landlords (or landlords' representatives) as they think fit.”,
 - (c) subsection (4)(a) is repealed.
- (2) After section 129 of the 2006 Act insert—

“129A Preliminary refusal: breach of planning control

- (1) The local authority may, within 21 days of an application for an HMO licence, refuse to consider the application if it considers that occupation of the living accommodation concerned as an HMO would constitute a breach of planning control for the purposes of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 (c. 8) (“the 1997 Act”) by virtue of section 123(a) or (b) of that Act.
- (2) The local authority must, within 7 days of deciding to refuse to consider an HMO application, serve notice of its decision on—
 - (a) the applicant,
 - (b) the enforcing authority, and

- (c) the chief constable.
- (3) The notice must—
 - (a) give the local authority's reason for refusing to consider the HMO application, and
 - (b) inform the applicant of the effect of subsection (4).
- (4) No fee may be charged in respect of a further application for an HMO licence in relation to the living accommodation concerned made within 28 days of the applicant subsequently obtaining—
 - (a) planning permission under Part 3 of the 1997 Act, or
 - (b) a certificate of lawfulness of use or development under section 150 or 151 of the 1997 Act, in respect of the occupation of the living accommodation as an HMO.
- (5) This section applies regardless of whether the local authority is the planning authority for the area in which the living accommodation concerned is situated.
- (6) For the purposes of this Part, a refusal to consider an application under subsection (1) is not to be treated as a refusal to grant an HMO licence under section 129(2)(b).”.
- (3) In section 131 of the 2006 Act (suitability of living accommodation), after subsection (2)(d) insert—
 - “(da) whether any rooms within it have been subdivided,
 - (db) whether any rooms within it have been adapted and that has resulted in an alteration to the situation of the water and drainage pipes within it.”.
- (4) After section 131 of the 2006 Act insert—

“131A Overprovision

- (1) The local authority may refuse to grant an HMO licence if it considers that there is (or, as a result of granting the licence, would be) overprovision of HMOs in the locality in which the living accommodation concerned is situated.
- (2) In considering whether to refuse to grant an HMO licence under subsection (1), the local authority must have regard to—
 - (a) whether there is an existing HMO licence in effect in respect of the living accommodation,
 - (b) the views (if known) of—
 - (i) the applicant, and
 - (ii) if applicable, any occupant of the living accommodation,
 - (c) such other matters as the Scottish Ministers may by order specify.
- (3) It is for the local authority to determine the localities within its area for the purpose of this section.
- (4) In considering whether there is or would be overprovision for the purposes of subsection (1) in any locality, the local authority must have regard to—

- (a) the number and capacity of licensed HMOs in the locality,
 - (b) the need for housing accommodation in the locality and the extent to which HMO accommodation is required to meet that need,
 - (c) such other matters as the Scottish Ministers may by order specify.
- (5) Before making an order under subsection (2)(c) or (4)(c), the Scottish Ministers must consult—
 - (a) local authorities,
 - (b) such persons or bodies as appear to them to be representative of the interests of—
 - (i) landlords,
 - (ii) occupiers of houses, and
 - (c) such other persons or bodies (if any) as they consider appropriate (which may include landlords or occupiers of houses).”.
- (5) In section 135 of the 2006 Act (application for new HMO licence: effect on existing HMO licence)—
 - (a) in subsection (2)—
 - (i) the word “and” immediately following paragraph (a) is repealed,
 - (ii) after that paragraph insert—
 - “(aa) where the local authority refuses to consider the application for the new HMO licence—
 - (i) the date on which the existing HMO licence would expire had an application for a new HMO licence not been made, or
 - (ii) such later date as the local authority considers reasonable in the circumstances, and”,
 - (b) after subsection (2) insert—
 - “(3) The local authority must serve notice of a decision under subsection (2)(aa)(ii) to extend (or further extend) the duration of an existing HMO licence on—
 - (a) the licence holder,
 - (b) the enforcing authority, and
 - (c) the chief constable.”.
- (6) In section 191(4)(a) of the 2006 Act (orders and regulations), after “section” insert “125(1)(b),”.

- (a) in subsection (12)(a), for “give” substitute “ subject to subsection (17), advise of the right to request ”,
- (b) after that subsection insert—

“(13) A person on whom a notice of a decision to which this section applies has been served may request the local authority to give its reasons for the decision.

(14) A request under subsection (13) must be made within 14 days of the person receiving notice of the decision.

(15) Where a local authority receives such a request it must notify the person of its reasons for the decision within 14 days of receiving the request.

(16) A local authority must, at the same time as notifying the person under subsection (15), so notify any other person on whom a notice of the decision has been served.

(17) The requirement for the notice to advise of the right to request the local authority's reasons does not apply where the reasons are included in the notice (or accompany it in writing).”.

(2) In section 159 of the 2006 Act (Part 5 appeals), after subsection (5) insert—

“(5A) For the purposes of an appeal, the sheriff may require the local authority to give reasons for the decision (if the authority has not already done so), and the authority must comply with such a requirement.”.

OVERCROWDING STATUTORY NOTICES

17 Overcrowding in private rented housing: statutory notice

- (1) A local authority may, subject to section 18, require the landlord of a house to which subsection (2) applies to take steps to ensure the house is not overcrowded.
- (2) This subsection applies to any house in the local authority's area—
 - (a) which is overcrowded, and
 - (b) the overcrowding of which is, in the local authority's opinion, contributing or connected to (or is likely to contribute or be connected to)—
 - (i) an adverse effect on the health or wellbeing of any person,
 - (ii) an adverse effect on the amenity of the house or its locality.
- (3) A requirement under subsection (1) must be made by serving a notice (an “overcrowding statutory notice”) on the landlord in accordance with section 28.
- (4) Where there are joint landlords, the duty under subsection (3) may be satisfied by service on any one of them.
- (5) An overcrowding statutory notice—
 - (a) must specify—
 - (i) the steps which require to be carried out to ensure the house is no longer overcrowded, and
 - (ii) the period within which the steps must be completed (being a period not shorter than 28 days),
 - (b) must state the conditions set out in section 20, and
 - (c) may specify other steps which require to be carried out for the purposes of section 20(b) or otherwise.
- (6) An overcrowding statutory notice may not specify any step which would require the landlord to breach any statutory or contractual obligation.
- (7) The Scottish Ministers may by order prescribe—
 - (a) the form of an overcrowding statutory notice,
 - (b) other information to be included in the notice,
 - (c) persons who must be given a copy of the notice by the local authority.
- (8) Before making an order under subsection (7), the Scottish Ministers must consult—
 - (a) local authorities,
 - (b) such persons or bodies as appear to them to be representative of the interests of—
 - (i) landlords,
 - (ii) occupiers of houses, and
 - (c) such other persons or bodies (if any) as they consider appropriate (which may include landlords or occupiers of houses).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

Commencement Information

I13 S. 17 in force for specified purposes at 31.1.2012 by S.S.I. 2012/2, art. 2, Sch.

PROSPECTIVE

18 Matters to be considered prior to service of overcrowding statutory notice

- (1) This section applies where a local authority is considering serving an overcrowding statutory notice in relation to a house.
- (2) The authority may serve the notice only if it is reasonable and proportionate in the circumstances to do so having regard to—
 - (a) the nature of the adverse effect referred to in section 17(2)(b) by reference to which the notice would be served,
 - (b) the degree to which the overcrowding of the house is contributing to or connected to that adverse effect,
 - (c) the likely effects of service of the notice, and
 - (d) whether there are means other than by service of the notice by which the adverse effect could be mitigated or avoided.
- (3) The authority must take into account—
 - (a) the circumstances of the occupier of the house and of any other persons residing in the house (including, in particular, whether any of them is, as a result of the overcrowding of the house, homeless),
 - (b) the views (if known) of the landlord, the occupier and any other persons residing in the house, and
 - (c) the likely effects of service of the notice on the occupier and any other persons residing in the house (including, in particular, whether it may lead to the occupier or any such person becoming homeless or threatened with homelessness).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), whether a person is homeless or threatened with homelessness is to be determined in accordance with section 24 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1987 (c.26).

19 Information and advice for occupiers

- (1) This section applies where a local authority serves an overcrowding statutory notice in relation to a house.
- (2) The authority must, at the same time as serving the overcrowding statutory notice, also serve on the occupier of the house a notice containing prescribed information and advice in connection with the overcrowding statutory notice.
- (3) If the occupier of the house or any other person residing in the house requests information or advice from the local authority in connection with the overcrowding statutory notice, the local authority must comply with the request, unless the authority considers the request to be unreasonable.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The local authority may give the occupier of the house such other information and advice as the authority considers appropriate in connection with the overcrowding statutory notice.
- (5) In subsection (2), “prescribed” means prescribed by order made by the Scottish Ministers.
- (6) Such an order may also prescribe the form of the notice to be served under subsection (2).
- (7) Before making an order under this section, the Scottish Ministers must consult—
 - (a) local authorities,
 - (b) such persons or bodies as appear to them to be representative of the interests of—
 - (i) landlords,
 - (ii) occupiers of houses, and
 - (c) such other persons or bodies (if any) as they consider appropriate (which may include landlords or occupiers of houses).

PROSPECTIVE

20 Mandatory conditions

The conditions are, where the steps have been taken as specified in the notice to ensure the house is no longer overcrowded, that the landlord must—

- (a) not cause the house to become overcrowded,
- (b) take reasonable steps to prevent the house becoming overcrowded.

PROSPECTIVE

21 Duration of notice

- (1) An overcrowding statutory notice—
 - (a) has effect from, and
 - (b) expires 5 years (or such shorter period of not less than one year as may be specified in the notice) after,the latest of the dates set out in subsection (2).
- (2) Those dates are—
 - (a) the last date on which the notice may be appealed to the sheriff under section 23,
 - (b) where such an appeal is made, the date on which—
 - (i) an order is made under section 23(4), or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) the application is abandoned, and
 - (c) any later date as may be specified in the notice.
- (3) An overcrowding statutory notice ceases to have effect in relation to a person if that person ceases to be the landlord of the house.

PROSPECTIVE

22 Representations

- (1) A person on whom an overcrowding statutory notice is served may make representations to the local authority concerning the notice within 7 days of the notice being served.
- (2) A local authority must consider any representations made under subsection (1) and respond to the person within 7 days of the representations having been made by—
 - (a) confirming the notice,
 - (b) varying the notice, or
 - (c) revoking the notice.
- (3) Where the local authority fails to respond in accordance with subsection (2), the overcrowding statutory notice is revoked.
- (4) Where this section applies to the variation of an overcrowding statutory notice by virtue of section 24(4)(a), subsection (3) of this section only applies to the variation of the overcrowding statutory notice.

PROSPECTIVE

23 Appeals

- (1) The landlord may appeal against an overcrowding statutory notice by summary application to the sheriff.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) must be made—
 - (a) where representations under section 22(1) have been made, before the expiry of the period of 28 days beginning with the service of the notice,
 - (b) in any other case, before the expiry of the period of 21 days beginning with the service of the notice.
- (3) But the sheriff may, on cause shown, hear an appeal made after the deadline set by subsection (2).
- (4) The sheriff may determine the appeal by making an order—
 - (a) confirming the notice,
 - (b) varying it in such manner as may be specified in the order, or
 - (c) revoking the notice.
- (5) The sheriff's decision on any such appeal is final.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Where this section applies to the variation of an overcrowding statutory notice by virtue of section 24(4)(b), the sheriff's powers under subsection (4) of this section are not prejudiced in relation to the overcrowding statutory notice.

PROSPECTIVE

24 Variation

- (1) The local authority may vary an overcrowding statutory notice (including extending the duration of its effect) at any time.
- (2) But a notice may not be so varied so as to shorten the duration of its effect.
- (3) The local authority must serve notice of any variation of an overcrowding statutory notice on the landlord in accordance with section 28.
- (4) The following sections apply to a notice of variation of an overcrowding statutory notice as they apply to an overcrowding statutory notice—
- (a) section 22 (representations),
 - (b) section 23 (appeals).
- (5) A variation of an overcrowding statutory notice has effect from the latest of the dates set out in subsection (6).
- (6) Those dates are—
- (a) the last date on which the notice of variation of the overcrowding statutory notice may be appealed to the sheriff under section 23,
 - (b) where such an appeal is made, the date on which—
 - (i) an order is made under section 23(4), or
 - (ii) the application is abandoned, and
 - (c) any later date as may be specified in the notice of variation of the overcrowding statutory notice.
- (7) Any reference to an overcrowding statutory notice in this Part includes, unless the context otherwise requires, any variation which has effect by virtue of this section.

PROSPECTIVE

25 Revocation

- (1) The local authority may revoke an overcrowding statutory notice at any time.
- (2) The local authority must serve notice of any revocation of an overcrowding statutory notice on the landlord in accordance with section 28.
- (3) A revocation of an overcrowding statutory notice has effect from the date on which the notice of revocation is served on the landlord.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

PROSPECTIVE

26 Offences

- (1) A landlord commits an offence if the landlord fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with any requirement or condition contained in an overcrowding statutory notice within the period (if any) specified for completion.
- (2) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

PROSPECTIVE

27 Power to obtain information

- (1) A local authority may, for the purpose of enabling it to discharge its functions under this Part, serve a notice on a person falling within subsection (2) (referred to as “A”) requiring A to provide the authority with any of the information mentioned in subsection (3).
- (2) A person falls within this subsection if the person appears to the local authority to—
 - (a) own, occupy or have any other interest in a house in the local authority's area, or
 - (b) act in relation to the lease or occupancy arrangement to which any such house is subject.
- (3) The information is—
 - (a) confirmation of the nature of A's interest in the house,
 - (b) the name and address of, and information about A's relationship with, any other person whom A knows to—
 - (i) own, occupy or have any other interest in the house, or
 - (ii) act in relation to the lease or occupancy arrangement to which the house is subject,
 - (c) such other information relating to the house, or such other person, as the local authority may reasonably require.
- (4) A person commits an offence if the person—
 - (a) without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a requirement of a notice served on the person under subsection (1), or
 - (b) knowingly or recklessly provides information which is false or misleading in a material respect to a local authority or other person—
 - (i) in purported compliance with a requirement of such a notice, or
 - (ii) otherwise if the person knows, or could reasonably be expected to know, that the information may be used by, or provided to, a local authority for the purpose of the discharge of its functions under this Part.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (4) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

PROSPECTIVE

28 Service of notices

- (1) A notice is served on a person if it is—
 - (a) delivered to the person at the place mentioned in subsection (2),
 - (b) sent, by post in a prepaid registered letter or by the recorded delivery service, to the person at that place, or
 - (c) sent to the person in some other manner (including by electronic means) which the local authority reasonably considers likely to cause it to be delivered to the person on the same or next day.
- (2) The place referred to in subsection (1) is—
 - (a) where the person is an individual, that person's place of business or usual or last known place of abode,
 - (b) where the person is an incorporated company or body, its registered or principal office.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies where service of the notice by one of the methods described in subsection (1) has been attempted and failed.
- (4) Where this subsection applies, service of the notice may be on the person by—
 - (a) where the person is an individual, leaving a copy of the notice at that person's place of business or usual or last known place of abode,
 - (b) where the person is an incorporated company or body, leaving a copy of the notice at the person's registered or principal office.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies where the local authority is unable to deliver or send a notice to the person because the local authority is not (having made reasonable enquiries) aware of the name or address of that owner or occupier.
- (6) Where this subsection applies, service of the notice may be by addressing a copy of it to “The Owner” or, as the case may be, “The Occupier” of the house and leaving it at the house or other premises.
- (7) A notice which is sent by electronic means must be received in a form which is legible and capable of being used for subsequent reference.

29 Guidance

- (1) A local authority must have regard to any guidance issued by the Scottish Ministers about—
 - (a) the discharge of its functions under this Part, or
 - (b) matters arising in connection with the discharge of those functions.
- (2) Before issuing any such guidance, the Scottish Ministers must consult—
 - (a) local authorities,
 - (b) such persons or bodies as appear to them to be representative of the interests of—
 - (i) landlords,
 - (ii) occupiers of houses, and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) such other persons or bodies (if any) as they consider appropriate (which may include landlords or occupiers of houses).

PROSPECTIVE

30 Reports

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must, as soon as practicable after the end of each 3 year period, publish a report containing the information referred to in subsection (2).
- (2) That is information, in relation to each local authority area, about—
 - (a) the number of overcrowding statutory notices served during the period to which the report relates,
 - (b) the extent to which service of the notices has reduced the overcrowding of houses,
 - (c) the extent to which persons have become homeless as a result of the service of the notices, and
 - (d) any other measures that have been taken or considered by the local authority during the period for the purpose of reducing the overcrowding of houses.
- (3) A local authority must provide the Scottish Ministers with such information as they may reasonably require to comply with subsection (1).
- (4) In subsection (1), “3 year period” means—
 - (a) the period of 3 years beginning with the day on which section 17 comes into force, and
 - (b) each subsequent period of 3 years.

PROSPECTIVE

31 Interpretation of Part 3

- (1) In this Part—

“house” means premises—

 - (a) which are subject to a lease or occupancy arrangement by virtue of which they may be used as a separate dwelling, and
 - (b) the owner of which would, if not registered in the register maintained by a local authority under section 82(1) of the 2004 Act, be guilty of an offence under subsection (1) of section 93 of that Act (disregarding subsection (3) of that section), “landlord”, in relation to a house, means the owner of the house.

- (2) In this Part references to a house being overcrowded are to be construed according to the definition of overcrowding in section 135 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1987

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

(c. 26); but do not include any house to which the matters mentioned in section 139(2) (a) or (b) of that Act apply.

PART 4

MISCELLANEOUS

32 Premiums

(1) In section 82 of the Rent (Scotland) Act 1984 (c. 58) (prohibition of premiums and loans on grant of protected tenancies)—

- (a) in subsection (1), “, in addition to the rent,” is repealed,
- (b) in subsection (2), “in addition to the rent” is repealed.

(2) After section 89 of that Act insert—

“89A Premiums: regulations

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision about sums which may be charged in connection with the grant, renewal or continuance of a protected tenancy.

(2) Such regulations may, in particular, specify—

- (a) categories of sum which are not to be treated as a premium for the purposes of this Part;
- (b) the maximum amount which tenants may be asked to pay in respect of such a sum.

(3) Before making regulations under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must consult—

- (a) such persons or bodies as they consider representative of the interests of—

- (i) tenants;
- (ii) private sector landlords;
- (iii) persons who act as agents for such landlords,

as they consider appropriate; and

- (b) such other persons or bodies as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate (which may include tenants, private sector landlords and persons who act as agents for such landlords).

(4) The power conferred by subsection (1) on the Scottish Ministers to make regulations—

- (a) must be exercised by statutory instrument;
- (b) may be exercised so as to make different provision for different purposes.

(5) No regulations are to be made under subsection (1) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the regulations has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, the Scottish Parliament.”.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

(3) In section 90(1) of that Act (interpretation of Part 8), for the entry for “premium” substitute—

““premium” means any fine, sum or pecuniary consideration, other than the rent, and includes any service or administration fee or charge;”.

(4) In section 115(1) of that Act (interpretation), for the entry for “premium” substitute—

““premium” has the meaning given in section 90;”.

33 Tenant information packs

After section 30 of the 1988 Act insert—

“30A Duty of landlord to provide certain information

- (1) A person who is to be the landlord under an assured tenancy (of whatever duration) must provide the person who is to be the tenant of that tenancy with the documents specified by virtue of section 30B(1) (“the standard tenancy documents”).
- (2) The standard tenancy documents must be provided no later than the date on which the assured tenancy commences.
- (3) Where there are to be joint landlords under the tenancy, the duty under subsection (1) may be satisfied by any one of them.
- (4) A person under the duty mentioned in subsection (1) who (without reasonable excuse) does not comply with that duty is guilty of an offence.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (4) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale.
- (6) Where an offence under subsection (4) committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a director, manager, secretary or similar officer of the body, or a person purporting to act in any such capacity, that person, as well as the body corporate, is guilty of an offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

30B Duty of landlord to provide certain information: further provision

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by order—
 - (a) specify the documents to be provided under section 30A(1) which may, in particular, include—
 - (i) documents containing information about the tenancy;
 - (ii) documents containing information about the house;
 - (iii) documents containing information about the person who is to be the landlord;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (iv) documents containing information about the rights and responsibilities of tenants and landlords;
 - (v) copies of documents which the person who is to be the landlord is under a duty to provide by virtue of this Act (other than section 30A(1)) or any other enactment;
 - (b) make such further provision about the documents as they think fit, including, in particular, provision about the form of, and the information to be included in (or excluded from), any of the documents;
 - (c) make provision so that the giving of a document (or copy of a document) specified under subsection (1)(a)(v), either in pursuance of the duty under section 30A(1) or by virtue of another provision of this Act or any other enactment, has the effect of satisfying all or any such obligations;
 - (d) make provision about whether the documents may be provided separately or whether they must all be provided at the same time.
- (2) Before making an order under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must consult—
- (a) such persons and bodies as they consider representative of the interests of—
 - (i) tenants;
 - (ii) private sector landlords;
 - (iii) persons who act as agents for such landlords,as they consider appropriate; and
 - (b) such other persons or bodies as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate (which may include tenants, private sector landlords and persons who act as agents for such landlords).”.

VALID FROM 22/09/2015

35 Landlord application to private rented housing panel

- (1) The 2006 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 21 (naming of panel and re-naming of committees)—
 - (a) in subsection (3), after “panel,” where it first occurs, insert “ the members of the panel, ”,
 - (b) in subsection (4)—
 - (i) the words from “the exercise” to the end become paragraph (a), and
 - (ii) after that paragraph insert—
 - “(b) the exercise by members of the panel of the functions conferred on them under sections 28A and 28C.”.
- (3) At the beginning of the title of section 22 (application to private rented housing panel) insert “ Tenant ”.
- (4) After section 28 insert—

“28A Landlord application to private rented housing panel

- (1) A landlord may apply to the private rented housing panel for assistance under section 28C in exercising the landlord's right of entry to the house concerned under section 181(4).
- (2) The president of the panel must allocate an application under subsection (1) to an individual member of the panel, and may subsequently reallocate it at any time to another individual member of the panel (the member to whom it is, for the time being, allocated being referred to as “the panel member”).
- (3) The panel member must decide whether—
 - (a) to assist the landlord in exercising the landlord's right of entry to the house concerned under section 181(4) in accordance with section 28C, or
 - (b) to reject the application (and notify the landlord accordingly).
- (4) The panel member may require the landlord to produce such further information as the panel member considers necessary to reach a decision on the application.
- (5) Where the panel member decides to assist the landlord under subsection (3)
 - (a) the panel member must send the landlord and the tenant a notice—
 - (a) indicating that—
 - (i) the panel member has decided to assist the landlord, and
 - (ii) the panel member will be seeking to arrange a suitable time for the landlord to exercise the landlord's right of entry under section 181(4), and
 - (b) informing the tenant of the tenant's right under subsection (6).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) A tenant may, within the period of 14 days beginning with the date of receipt of a notice under subsection (5) (or such longer period as the panel member considers appropriate in the circumstances), make representations to the panel member as to why it is inappropriate or unnecessary for the landlord to exercise the landlord's right of entry under section 181(4) at that time.
- (7) Where representations are made by the tenant under subsection (6), the panel member—
- (a) may make such further enquiries of the landlord and tenant as the panel member considers appropriate, and
 - (b) must decide whether to—
 - (i) continue to assist the landlord, or
 - (ii) stop assisting the landlord.
- (8) A decision—
- (a) to reject an application under subsection (3),
 - (b) of the panel member under subsection (7),
 - (c) by the panel member to stop acting in accordance with section 28C(9),
- is final.
- (9) No application may be made under subsection (1) where the landlord is—
- (a) a local authority landlord (within the meaning of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001 (asp 10)),
 - (b) a registered social landlord (being a body registered in the register maintained under section 57 of that Act), or
 - (c) Scottish Water.

28B Landlord application to private rented housing panel: further provision

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision about the making or deciding of applications under section 28A.
- (2) Those regulations may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) about the form and content of applications and notices,
 - (b) prescribing a fee to accompany applications,
