PART 2

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Property factor enforcement orders

21 Variation and revocation of property factor enforcement orders

- (1) The homeowner housing committee which made a property factor enforcement order may, at any time—
 - (a) vary the order in such manner as they consider reasonable, or
 - (b) where they consider that the action required by the order is no longer necessary, revoke it.
- (2) Where subsection (3) applies, the committee must vary the property factor enforcement order—
 - (a) so as to extend, or further extend, the period within which any action required by the order must be executed, and
 - (b) in such other manner as they think fit.
- (3) This subsection applies where—
 - (a) the committee consider, on the submission of the property factor or otherwise, that any action required by a property factor enforcement order has not been, or will not be, executed during the period within which the order requires the work to be executed, and
 - (b) the committee—
 - (i) consider that satisfactory progress has been made in executing the action required, or
 - (ii) have received a written undertaking from the property factor stating that the action required will be executed by a later date which the committee consider satisfactory.
- (4) References in this Act to a property factor enforcement order or to action required by such an order are, where the order has been varied under this section, to be treated as
