High hedge notices

2 Application for high hedge notice

- (1) Where subsection (2) applies, an owner or occupier of a domestic property (referred to in this Act as the “applicant”) may apply to the relevant local authority for a high hedge notice.
- (2) This subsection applies where the applicant considers that the height of a high hedge situated on land owned or occupied by another person adversely affects the enjoyment of the domestic property which an occupant of that property could reasonably expect to have.

3 Pre-application requirements

- (1) Before making an application under section 2(1), the applicant must take all reasonable steps to resolve the matters in relation to the high hedge which would otherwise be the subject of the application.

4 Fee for application

- (1) An application must be accompanied by a fee of such amount (if any) as the relevant local authority may fix.

- (3) A fee fixed by an authority must not exceed an amount which it considers represents the reasonable costs of an authority in deciding an application under this Act.
- (4) A fee paid to an authority may be refunded by it in such circumstances and to such extent as it may determine.
- (5) An authority must publish information on the circumstances in which and the extent to which it may normally be considered appropriate for a fee paid to the authority to be refunded under subsection (4).
- (6) When publishing information in accordance with subsection (5), an authority must have regard to any guidance on the refund of application fees issued by the Scottish Ministers under section 31(1).

- (5) After the end of the period of 28 days referred to in subsection (3)(b), the authority must decide—
- (a) whether the height of the high hedge adversely affects the enjoyment of the domestic property which an occupant of that property could reasonably expect to have, and
 - (b) if so, whether any action to remedy the adverse effect or to prevent the recurrence of the adverse effect (or both) should be taken by the owner in relation to the high hedge (any action that is to be taken being referred to in this Act as the “initial action”).
- (6) If the authority decides under subsection (5)(b) that initial action should be taken, the authority must—
- (a) specify a reasonable period of time within which the initial action is to be taken (the “compliance period”), and
