EXPLANATORY NOTES

COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Appeals

Section 13 – Effect of appeal

39. This section provides that, where an appeal has been made against a high hedge notice, the notice has no effect until the appeal is either determined, withdrawn or abandoned. The section also provides that where an appeal has been made against the withdrawal or variation of a notice, the withdrawal or variation has no effect until the appeal is either determined, withdrawn or abandoned.
