Arrest without warrant

1 Power of a constable

- (1) A constable may arrest a person without a warrant if the constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person has committed or is committing an offence.
- (2) In relation to an offence not punishable by imprisonment, a constable may arrest a person under subsection (1) only if the constable is satisfied that it would not be in the interests of justice to delay the arrest in order to seek a warrant for the person's arrest.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), it would not be in the interests of justice to delay an arrest in order to seek a warrant if the constable reasonably believes that unless the person is arrested without delay the person will—
 - (a) continue committing the offence, or
 - (b) obstruct the course of justice in any way, including by—
 - (i) seeking to avoid arrest, or
 - (ii) interfering with witnesses or evidence.
- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, an offence is to be regarded as not punishable by imprisonment for the purpose of subsection (2) only if no person convicted of the offence can be sentenced to imprisonment in respect of it.

2 Exercise of the power

- (1) A person may be arrested under section 1 more than once in respect of the same offence.
- (2) A person may not be arrested under section 1 in respect of an offence if the person has been officially accused of committing the offence or an offence arising from the same circumstances as the offence.
- (3) Where—
 - (a) a constable who is not in uniform arrests a person under section 1, and
 - (b) the person asks to see the constable's identification,
 the constable must show identification to the person as soon as reasonably practicable.

Procedure following arrest

3 Information to be given on arrest

When a constable arrests a person (or as soon afterwards as is reasonably practicable), a constable must inform the person—

- (a) that the person is under arrest,
- (b) of the general nature of the offence in respect of which the person is arrested [^{F1}(if any)],
- (c) of the reason for the arrest,
- (d) that the person is under no obligation to say anything, other than to give the information specified in section 34(4), and
- (e) of the person's right to have—
 - (i) intimation sent to a solicitor under section 43, and
 - (ii) access to a solicitor under section 44.

4 Arrested person to be taken to police station

(1) Where a person is arrested by a constable outwith a police station, a constable must take the person as quickly as is reasonably practicable to a police station.

[^{F2}(1A) But subsection (1) need not be complied with if—

- (a) either the warrant under which the person was arrested or an enactment requires that following the arrest the person be taken to a particular place (other than a police station), and
- (b) the taking of the person to that place would be unnecessarily delayed by taking the person to a police station first.]

(2) Subsection (1) ceases to apply, and the person must be released from police custody immediately, if—

- (a) the person has been arrested [^{F3}in respect of an offence] without a warrant,

- (b) the person has not yet arrived at a police station in accordance with this section, and
 - (c) in the opinion of a constable there are no reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person has committed—
 - (i) the offence in respect of which the person was arrested, or
 - (ii) an offence arising from the same circumstances as that offence.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, subsection (1) ceases to apply if, before arriving at a police station in accordance with this section, the person is released from custody under—
- (a) section 25(2), or
 - (b) section 28(3A) of the 1995 Act.

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply when—
- (a) a person is in police custody having been arrested at a police station, or
 - (b) a person is in police custody and has been taken to a police station in accordance with section 4.
- (2) The person must be informed as soon as reasonably practicable—
- (a) that the person is under no obligation to say anything, other than to give the information specified in section 34(4),
 - (b) of any right the person has to have intimation sent and to have access to certain persons under—
 - (i) section 38,
 - (ii) section 40,
 - (iii) section 43,
 - (iv) section 44.
- (3) The person must be provided as soon as reasonably practicable with such information (verbally or in writing) as is necessary to satisfy the requirements of Articles 3 and 4 of Directive 2012/13/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council on the right to information in criminal proceedings.

6 Information to be recorded by police

- (1) There must be recorded in relation to any arrest by a constable—
 - (a) the time and place of arrest,
 - [^{F4}(b) either—
 - (i) the general nature of the offence in respect of which the person is arrested, or
 - (ii) if the person is arrested otherwise than in respect of an offence, the reason for the arrest,]
 - (c) if the person is taken from one place to another while in police custody (including to a police station in accordance with section 4)—
 - (i) the place from which, and time at which, the person is taken, and
 - (ii) the place to which the person is taken and the time at which the person arrives there,
 - (d) the time at which, and the identity of the constable by whom, the person is informed of the matters mentioned in section 3,
 - (e) the time at which the person ceases to be in police custody.
- (2) Where relevant, there must be recorded in relation to an arrest by a constable—
 - (a) the reason that the constable who released the person from custody under subsection (2) of section 4 formed the opinion mentioned in paragraph (c) of that subsection,
 - (b) the time at which, and the identity of the person by whom, the person is—
 - (i) informed of the matters mentioned in subsection (2) of section 5, and
 - (ii) provided with information in accordance with subsection (3) of that section,
 - (c) the time at which, and the identity of the person by whom, the person is informed of the matters mentioned in section 20,
 - (d) the time at which the person requests that intimation be sent under—
 - (i) section 38,
 - (ii) section 43,
 - (e) the time at which intimation is sent under—
 - (i) section 38,
 - (ii) section 41,
 - (iii) section 42,

14 Test for sections 7, 11 and 13

- (1) For the purposes of sections 7(4), 11(3)(b) and 13(2), the test is that—
 - (a) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person has committed an offence, and
 - (b) keeping the person in custody is necessary and proportionate for the purposes of bringing the person before a court or otherwise dealing with the person in accordance with the law.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1)(b), in considering what is necessary and proportionate for the purpose mentioned in that subsection regard may be had to—
 - (a) whether the person's presence is reasonably required to enable the offence to be investigated fully,
 - (b) whether the person (if liberated) would be likely to interfere with witnesses or evidence, or otherwise obstruct the course of justice,
 - (c) the nature and seriousness of the offence.

15 Medical treatment

- (1) Subsection (2) applies when—
 - (a) a person is in police custody having been arrested without a warrant,
 - (b) since being arrested, the person has not been charged with an offence by a constable, and
 - (c) the person is at a hospital for the purpose of receiving medical treatment.
- (2) If authorisation to keep the person in custody has not been given under section 7, that section has effect as if—
 - (a) each reference in subsection (2) of that section to a police station were a reference to the hospital, and
 - (b) the words after the reference to a police station in paragraph (b) of that subsection were omitted.
- (3) Where authorisation is given under section 7 when a person is at a hospital, authorisation under that section need not be sought again if, while still in custody, the person is taken to a police station in accordance with section 4.
- (4) Subsections (5) and (6) apply for the purpose of calculating the 12 hours mentioned in sections 9 and 11.
- (5) Except as provided for in subsection (6), no account is to be taken of any period during which a person is—
 - (a) at a hospital for the purpose of receiving medical treatment, or
 - (b) being taken as quickly as is reasonably practicable—
 - (i) to a hospital for the purpose of receiving medical treatment, or
 - (ii) to a police station from a hospital to which the person was taken for the purpose of receiving medical treatment.

Investigative liberation

16 Release on conditions

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
- (a) a person is being held in police custody by virtue of authorisation given under section 7,
 - (b) a constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person has committed a relevant offence, and
 - (c) either—
 - (i) the person has not been subject to a condition imposed under subsection (2) in connection with a relevant offence, or
 - (ii) it has not been more than 28 days since the first occasion on which a condition was imposed on the person under subsection (2) in connection with a relevant offence.
- (2) If releasing the person from custody, a constable may impose any condition that an appropriate constable considers necessary and proportionate for the purpose of ensuring the proper conduct of the investigation into a relevant offence (including, for example, a condition aimed at securing that the person does not interfere with witnesses or evidence).
- (3) A condition under subsection (2)—
- (a) may not require the person to be in a specified place at a specified time,
 - (b) may require the person—
 - (i) not to be in a specified place, or category of place, at a specified time, and
 - (ii) to remain outwith that place, or any place falling within the specified category (if any), for a specified period.
- (4) A condition imposed under subsection (2) is a liberation condition for the purposes of schedule 1.
- (5) In subsection (2), “an appropriate constable” means a constable of the rank of sergeant or above.
- (6) In this section, “a relevant offence” means—
- (a) the offence in connection with which the authorisation under section 7 has been given, or
 - (b) an offence arising from the same circumstances as that offence.

17 Conditions ceasing to apply

- (1) A condition imposed on a person under section 16(2) ceases to apply—
 - (a) at the end of the day falling 28 days after the first occasion on which a condition was imposed on the person under section 16(2) in connection with a relevant offence, or
 - (b) before then, if—
 - (i) the condition is removed by a notice under section 18,
 - (ii) the person is arrested in connection with a relevant offence,
 - (iii) the person is officially accused of committing a relevant offence, or
 - (iv) the condition is removed by the sheriff under section 19.
- (2) In subsection (1), “a relevant offence” means—
 - (a) the offence in connection with which the condition was imposed, or
 - (b) an offence arising from the same circumstances as that offence.

18 Modification or removal of conditions

- (1) A constable may by notice modify or remove a condition imposed under section 16(2).
- (2) A notice under subsection (1)—
 - (a) is to be given in writing to the person who is subject to the condition,
 - (b) must specify the time from which the condition is modified or removed.
- (3) A constable of the rank of inspector or above must keep under review whether or not—
 - (a) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a person who is subject to a condition imposed under section 16(2) has committed a relevant offence, and
 - (b) the condition imposed remains necessary and proportionate for the purpose of ensuring the proper conduct of the investigation into a relevant offence.
- (4) Where the constable referred to in subsection (3) is no longer satisfied as to the matter mentioned in paragraph (a) of that subsection, a constable must give notice to the person removing any condition imposed in connection with a relevant offence.
- (5) Where the constable referred to in subsection (3) is no longer satisfied as to the matter mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection, a constable must give notice to the person—
 - (a) modifying the condition in question, or
 - (b) removing it.
- (6) Where a duty to give notice to a person arises under subsection (4) or (5), the notice—
 - (a) is to be given in writing to the person as soon as practicable, and

19 Review of conditions

- (1) A person who is subject to a condition imposed under section 16(2) may apply to the sheriff to have the condition reviewed.
- (2) Before disposing of an application under this section, the sheriff must give the procurator fiscal an opportunity to make representations.
- (3) If the sheriff is not satisfied that the condition is necessary and proportionate for the purpose for which it was imposed, the sheriff may—
 - (a) remove the condition, or
 - (b) impose an alternative condition that the sheriff considers to be necessary and proportionate for that purpose.
- (4) For the purposes of sections 17 and 18, a condition imposed by the sheriff under subsection (3)(b) is to be regarded as having been imposed under section 16(2).

CHAPTER 4

POLICE INTERVIEW

Rights of suspects

31 Information to be given before interview

- (1) Subsection (2) applies to a person who—
 - (a) is in police custody, or
 - (b) is attending at a police station or other place voluntarily for the purpose of being interviewed by a constable.
- (2) Not more than one hour before a constable interviews the person about an offence which the constable has reasonable grounds to suspect the person of committing, the person must be informed—
 - (a) of the general nature of that offence,
 - (b) that the person is under no obligation to say anything other than to give the information specified in section 34(4),
 - (c) about the right under section 32 to have a solicitor present during the interview, and
 - (d) if the person is in police custody, about any right which the person has under Chapter 5.
- (3) A person need not be informed under subsection (2)(d) about a right to have intimation sent under either of the following sections if the person has exercised the right already—
 - (a) section 38,
 - (b) section 43.
- (4) For the purpose of subsection (2), a constable is not to be regarded as interviewing a person about an offence merely by asking the person for the information specified in section 34(4).
- (5) Where a person is to be interviewed by virtue of authorisation granted under section 35, before the interview begins the person must be informed of what was specified by the court under subsection (6) of that section.

32 Right to have solicitor present

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply to a person who—
 - (a) is in police custody, or
 - (b) is attending at a police station or other place voluntarily for the purpose of being interviewed by a constable.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2019. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 2016, PART 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The person has the right to have a solicitor present while being interviewed by a constable about an offence which the constable has reasonable grounds to suspect the person of committing.
- (3) Accordingly—
 - (a) unless the person consents to being interviewed without having a solicitor present, a constable must not begin to interview the person about the offence until the person's solicitor is present, and
 - (b) the person's solicitor must not be denied access to the person at any time while a constable is interviewing the person about the offence.
- (4) Despite subsection (3)(a) a constable may, in exceptional circumstances, proceed to interview the person without a solicitor being present if it is necessary to interview the person without delay in the interests of—
 - (a) the investigation or the prevention of crime, or
 - (b) the apprehension of offenders.
- (5) A decision to allow the person to be interviewed without a solicitor present by virtue of subsection (4) may be taken only by a constable who—
 - (a) is of the rank of sergeant or above, and
 - (b) has not been involved in investigating the offence about which the person is to be interviewed.
- (6) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a constable is not to be regarded as interviewing a person about an offence merely by asking the person for the information specified in section 34(4).
- (7) Where a person consents to being interviewed without having a solicitor present, there must be recorded—
 - (a) the time at which the person consented, and
 - (b) any reason given by the person at that time for waiving the right to have a solicitor present.

33 Consent to interview without solicitor

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply for the purpose of section 32(3)(a).
- (2) A person may not consent to being interviewed without having a solicitor present if—
 - (a) the person is under 16 years of age
 - (b) the person is 16 or 17 years of age and subject to a compulsory supervision order, or an interim compulsory supervision order, made under the Children's Hearings (Scotland) Act 2011, or
 - (c) the person is 16 years of age or over and, owing to mental disorder, appears to a constable to be unable to—
 - (i) understand sufficiently what is happening, or
 - (ii) communicate effectively with the police.

- (3) A person to whom this subsection applies (referred to in subsection (5) as “person A”) may consent to being interviewed without having a solicitor present only with the agreement of a relevant person.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies to a person who is—
 - (a) 16 or 17 years of age, and
 - (b) not precluded by subsection (2)(b) or (c) from consenting to being interviewed without having a solicitor present.
- (5) For the purpose of subsection (3), “a relevant person” means—
 - (a) if person A is in police custody, any person who is entitled to access to person A by virtue of section 40(2),
 - (b) if person A is not in police custody, a person who is—
 - (i) at least 18 years of age, and
 - (ii) reasonably named by person A.
- (6) In subsection (2)(c)—
 - (a) “mental disorder” has the meaning given by section 328 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003,
 - (b) the reference to the police is to any—
 - (i) constable, or
 - (ii) person appointed as a member of police staff under section 26(1) of the Police and Fire Reform (Scotland) Act 2012.

34 Questioning following arrest

- (1) Subsections (2) and (4) apply where—
 - (a) a person is in police custody in relation to an offence, and
 - (b) the person has not been officially accused of committing the offence or an offence arising from the same circumstances as the offence.
- (2) A constable may put questions to the person in relation to the offence.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this section is to be taken to mean that a constable cannot put questions to the person in relation to any other matter.
- (4) The person is under no obligation to answer any question, other than to give the following information—
 - (a) the person's name,
 - (b) the person's address,
 - (c) the person's date of birth,
 - (d) the person's place of birth (in such detail as a constable considers necessary or expedient for the purpose of establishing the person's identity), and
 - (e) the person's nationality.

Person officially accused

35 Authorisation for questioning

- (1) The court may authorise a constable to question a person about an offence after the person has been officially accused of committing the offence.
- (2) The court may grant authorisation only if it is satisfied that allowing the person to be questioned about the offence is necessary in the interests of justice.
- (3) In deciding whether to grant authorisation, the court must take into account—
- (a) the seriousness of the offence,
 - (b) the extent to which the person could have been questioned earlier in relation to the information which the applicant believes may be elicited by the proposed questioning,
 - (c) where the person could have been questioned earlier in relation to that information, whether it could reasonably have been foreseen at that time that the information might be important to proving or disproving that the person has committed an offence.
- (4) Where subsection (5) applies, the court must give the person an opportunity to make representations before deciding whether to grant authorisation.
- (5) This subsection applies where—
- (a) a warrant has been granted to arrest the person in respect of the offence, or
 - (b) the person has appeared before a court in relation to the offence.
- (6) Where granting authorisation, the court—
- (a) must specify the period for which questioning is authorised, and
 - (b) may specify such other conditions as the court considers necessary to ensure that allowing the proposed questioning is not unfair to the person.
- (7) A decision of the court—
- (a) to grant or refuse authorisation, or
 - (b) to specify, or not to specify, conditions under subsection (6)(b),
- is final.
- (8) In this section, “the court” means—
- (a) where an indictment has been served on the person in respect of the High Court, a single judge of that court,
 - (b) in any other case, the sheriff.

36 Authorisation: further provision

- (1) An application for authorisation may be made—
 - (a) where section 35(5) applies, by the prosecutor, or
 - (b) in any other case, by a constable.
- (2) In subsection (1)(a), “the prosecutor” means—
 - (a) where an indictment has been served on the person in respect of the High Court, Crown Counsel, or
 - (b) in any other case, the procurator fiscal.
- (3) Where an application for authorisation is made in writing (rather than orally) it must—
 - (a) be made in such form as may be prescribed by act of adjournal (or as nearly as may be in such form), and
 - (b) state whether another application has been made for authorisation to question the person about the offence or an offence arising from the same circumstances as the offence.
- (4) Authorisation ceases to apply as soon as either—
 - (a) the period specified under section 35(6)(a) expires, or
 - (b) the person's trial in respect of the offence, or an offence arising from the same circumstances as the offence, begins.
- (5) For the purpose of subsection (4)(b), a trial begins—
 - (a) in proceedings on indictment, when the jury is sworn,
 - (b) in summary proceedings, when the first witness for the prosecution is sworn.
- (6) In this section—

“authorisation” means authorisation under section 35,

“the offence” means the offence referred to in section 35(1).

37 Arrest to facilitate questioning

- (1) On granting authorisation under section 35, the court may also grant a warrant for the person's arrest if it seems to the court expedient to do so.
- (2) The court must specify in a warrant granted under subsection (1) the maximum period for which the person may be detained under it.
- (3) The person's detention under a warrant granted under subsection (1) must end as soon as—
 - (a) the period of the person's detention under the warrant becomes equal to the maximum period specified under subsection (2),

- (b) the authorisation ceases to apply (see section 36(4)), or
 - (c) in the opinion of the constable responsible for the investigation into the offence referred to in section 35(1), there are no longer reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person has committed—
 - (i) that offence, or
 - (ii) an offence arising from the same circumstances as that offence.
- (4) For the purpose of subsection (3)(a), the period of the person's detention under the warrant begins when the person—
- (a) is arrested at a police station, or
 - (b) arrives at a police station, having been taken there in accordance with section 4.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt—
- (a) if the person is on bail when a warrant under subsection (1) is granted, the order admitting the person to bail is not impliedly recalled by the granting of the warrant,
 - (b) if the person is on bail when arrested under a warrant granted under subsection (1)—
 - (i) despite being in custody by virtue of the warrant the person remains on bail for the purpose of section 24(5)(b) of the 1995 Act,
 - (ii) when the person's detention under the warrant ends, the bail order continues to apply as it did immediately before the person's arrest,
 - (c) if the person is subject to an undertaking given under section 25(2)(a), the person remains subject to the undertaking despite—
 - (i) the granting of a warrant under subsection (1),
 - (ii) the person's arrest and detention under it.

Vulnerable persons

42 Support for vulnerable persons

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
- (a) a person is in police custody,
 - (b) a constable believes that the person is 16 years of age or over, and
 - (c) owing to mental disorder, the person appears to the constable to be unable to—
 - (i) understand sufficiently what is happening, or
 - (ii) communicate effectively with the police.
- (2) With a view to facilitating the provision of support of the sort mentioned in subsection (3) to the person as soon as reasonably practicable, the constable must ensure that intimation of the matters mentioned in subsection (4) is sent to a person who the constable considers is suitable to provide the support.
- (3) That is, support to—
- (a) help the person in custody to understand what is happening, and
 - (b) facilitate effective communication between the person and the police.
- (4) Those matters are—
- (a) the place where the person is in custody, and
 - (b) that support of the sort mentioned in subsection (3) is, in the view of the constable, required by the person.
- (5) In this section—
- (a) “mental disorder” has the meaning given by section 328 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003,
 - (b) the references to the police are to any—
 - (i) constable, or
 - (ii) person appointed as a member of police staff under section 26(1) of the Police and Fire Reform (Scotland) Act 2012.
