167 Statements in and advice regarding trust deed

- (1) The trust deed must state—
  - (a) that, subject to any exclusion mentioned in paragraph (b)(i) of the trust deed definition, all of the debtor's estate (other than property listed in section 88(1) or which would be excluded under any other provision of this Act or of any other enactment from vesting in the trustee of a sequestrated estate) is conveyed to the trustee, and
  - (b) that the debtor agrees to convey to the trustee, for the benefit of creditors generally, any estate (wherever situated) which—
    - (i) is acquired by the debtor during the 4 years beginning with the date on which the trust deed is granted, and
    - (ii) would have been conveyed to the trustee by virtue of paragraph (a) had it been part of the debtor's estate on the date on which the trust deed was granted.
- (2) Where the debtor's dwellinghouse, or part of the debtor's dwellinghouse, is excluded as mentioned in paragraph (b)(i) of the trust deed definition from the estate conveyed to the trustee, the trust deed must also include details—
  - (a) of any secured creditor who has agreed not to claim under the trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held, and
  - (b) of that debt.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2024.

Changes to legislation: Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 2016, PART 14 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Before the debtor grants the trust deed—
- (a) the trustee must advise the debtor that granting the deed may result—
    - (i) in the debtor's estate being sequestrated,
    - (ii) in the debtor's being refused credit, whether before or after the debtor's discharge under section 184,
    - (iii) subject to any exclusion mentioned in paragraph (b)(i) of the trust deed definition, in the debtor's not being able to remain in the debtor's current place of residence,
    - (iv) subject to any such exclusion, in the debtor's being required to relinquish property which the debtor owns,
    - (v) in the debtor's being required to make contributions from income for the benefit of creditors,
    - (vi) in damage to the debtor's business interests and employment prospects, and
    - (vii) in the fact of the debtor's having granted a trust deed becoming public information,
  - (b) the trustee must provide the debtor with a copy of a debt advice and information package, and
  - (c) the trustee and the debtor must both sign a statement to the effect that the trustee has fulfilled the duties referred to in this subsection.

Commencement Information

I6 S. 167 in force at 30.11.2016 by S.S.I. 2016/294, reg. 2

168 Payment of debtor's contribution

- (1) The trust deed must state that the debtor is, during the payment period mentioned in subsection (2), to pay any contributions from income for the benefit of creditors (including, where the debtor is an individual, any contribution required by the common financial tool) at regular intervals.
- (2) The payment period is—
- (a) a period of 48 months beginning with the date on which the trust deed is granted,
  - (b) such period shorter than 48 months as is determined by the trustee, or
  - (c) such period longer than 48 months as is—
    - (i) determined by the trustee where there has been a period during which the debtor has not paid those contributions, or
    - (ii) agreed between the debtor and the trustee.
- (3) The trustee may, under subsection (2)(b), determine a shorter payment period only if, in the trustee's opinion, payment of those contributions (from income or otherwise) during that period would allow distribution of the debtor's estate to meet in full the total amount, as at the date on which the debtor grants the trust deed, of the debtor's debts (including interest).
- (4) Where the debtor is an individual, those contributions must be such as to result, over the payment period, in the payment of a sum less than the total amount, as at the date on which the debtor grants the trust deed, of the debtor's debts (including interest).

Changes to legislation: Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 2016, PART 14 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) In calculating those contributions for the purposes of subsections (1) and (4), the whole of the debtor's surplus income over the amount allowed for expenditure in the statement of the debtor's income and expenditure supplied under section 170(1)(d)(ii) must be applied.

Commencement Information

I8 S. 169 in force at 30.11.2016 by S.S.I. 2016/294, reg. 2

170 Documents to be sent to creditors

- (1) Not later than 7 days after the date of registration under section 169, the trustee must send to every creditor known to the trustee (other than any secured creditor who has, as mentioned in paragraph (b)(ii) of the trust deed definition, agreed not to claim under the trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held)—
- (a) a copy of the trust deed,
  - (b) a copy of such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of a creditor making a statement of claim,
  - (c) a copy of the notice mentioned in section 169,
  - (d) a statement of the debtor's affairs, prepared by the trustee, containing—
    - (i) a list of the debtor's assets and liabilities,
    - (ii) a statement of the debtor's income and expenditure as at the date on which the trust deed was granted (being, where the debtor is a living individual, a statement in the [F3] form prescribed for that purpose by the Protected Trust Deeds (Forms) (Scotland) Regulations 2016]),
    - (iii) a statement as to the extent to which those assets and that income will not vest in the trustee,
    - (iv) a statement as to whether, and if so on what basis, the [F4EU] insolvency proceedings regulation applies to the trust deed,
    - <sup>F5</sup>(v) . . . . .
    - (vi) a statement as to whether the creditors are likely to be paid a dividend and the amount of the dividend that is expected to be paid,
    - (vii) if the case is one in which there is an exclusion such as is mentioned in paragraph (b)(i) of the trust deed definition, a statement by the trustee, on the basis of the information for the time being available to the trustee, as to what the effect of that exclusion is likely to be on any such dividend,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2024.

*Changes to legislation: Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 2016, PART 14 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 July 2024. - (viii) a statement that the trustee on request must provide a copy of any valuation held by the trustee which has been made by a third party and which relates to an asset of the debtor, any statement showing the amount due by the debtor under a security and any document showing the income for the time being of the debtor,
  - (ix) a copy of any agreement referred to in section 175(1),
  - (x) a statement explaining the conditions which require to be fulfilled before the trust deed will become a protected trust deed and the consequences of its so becoming,
  - (xi) details of any protected trust deed in respect of which, in the 6 months preceding publication of the notice provided for in section 169, the debtor has been discharged in terms of section 184(1) (or regulation 24(1) of the Protected Trust Deeds (Scotland) Regulations 2013 (S.S.I. 2013/318)) or been refused a letter of discharge under section 184(8) (or regulation 24(8) of those regulations), and
  - (xii) where a secured creditor's agreement has been obtained by virtue of paragraph (b) of section 166(2), a statement containing the valuation made by virtue of paragraph (a) of that section and a statement of the amount owed, in respect of the security held, to that creditor, and
- (e) a statement, in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph, of the trustee's anticipated realisations from the trust deed.
- (2) The trust deed must be acceded to by the creditors to whom the trustee is required by subsection (1) to send documents (those creditors being in this Part referred to as “the notified creditors”) but is deemed to have been acceded to by them unless, within the relevant period, the trustee receives notification in writing from a majority in number, or no fewer than  $\frac{1}{3}$  in value, of them that they object to the trust deed being granted protected status.

Textual Amendments

F8 Ss. 171A-171C and cross-heading inserted (1.7.2024) by The Protected Trust Deeds \(Miscellaneous Amendment\) \(Scotland\) Regulations 2024 \(S.S.I. 2024/198\), regs. 1(1), 3(3)

171A Removal of protected status where material error or irregularity

- (1) If, within 3 months of the trust deed being registered in the register of insolvencies under section 171(2), the trustee becomes aware that any of the conditions set out in sections 164, 165, 166(2) (where it applied) or 167 to 170 were not met at the point of registration due to a material error or irregularity, the trustee must notify AiB.
- (2) Where AiB is notified under subsection (1), AiB must decide whether the trust deed should cease to have protected status (see section 163).
- (3) If AiB decides under subsection (2) that the trust deed should cease to have protected status AiB must, as soon as reasonably practicable, notify the trustee and the debtor in writing of that decision.
- (4) Where the trustee receives a notification under subsection (3) the trustee must, as soon as reasonably practicable, notify every creditor known to the trustee (other than any secured creditor who has, as mentioned in paragraph (b)(ii) of the trust deed definition, agreed not to claim under the trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held).
- (5) A notice under subsection (3) or (4) must state—
  - (a) the fact that a decision under subsection (2) has been made,
  - (b) the date on which the decision was made, and
  - (c) the ground or grounds for the decision.
- (6) Where a notice is issued under subsection (3)—
  - (a) the trust deed ceases to have protected status 14 days after that notice is given (but see section 171B), and
  - (b) AiB must, as soon as reasonably practicable, remove the entry for the trust deed in the register of insolvencies.

171B Decision under section 171A: application to review

- (1) The debtor, the trustee or a creditor may apply to AiB for a review of its decision under section 171A(2).
- (2) An application under subsection (1) must be made within 14 days beginning with the date that decision was notified under section 171A(3).
- (3) If an application for review under subsection (1) is made, AiB's decision under section 171A(2) is suspended until the determination of that review by AiB.
- (4) If an application for a review under subsection (1) is made, AiB must—
  - (a) confirm or revoke the decision within 21 days beginning with the day on which the application is made, and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2024.

Changes to legislation: Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 2016, PART 14 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) notify the debtor, the trustee and (where relevant) the creditor who made the application under subsection (1) of the outcome.
- (5) If, under subsection (4), AiB—
- (a) confirms a decision, the decision takes effect 21 days after the day on which AiB notifies the debtor, the trustee and (where relevant) the creditor who made the application under subsection (1) of the outcome of its review,
  - (b) revokes a decision, the decision is of no effect.
- (6) The trustee must, as soon as reasonably practicable following receipt of a notification under subsection (4), notify the outcome of the review to every creditor known to the trustee.

171C Effect of removal of protected status

A trust deed ceasing to have protected status by virtue of a decision under section 171A is not to—

- (a) invalidate any acts of the trustee between the date the trust deed was registered and the date a decision under section 171A takes effect,
- (b) prevent the trust deed from re-attaining protected status provided the conditions in sections 164-170, so far as applicable, are met, or
- (c) prevent the debtor from—
  - (i) making a debtor application under section 2 or, as the case may be, 6,
  - (ii) applying for a moratorium under section 195 or, as the case may be, 196,
  - (iii) applying for a debt payment programme within the meaning of section 2 of the 2002 Act.]

172 Effect of protected status: general

- (1) Where a trust deed has protected status then—
- (a) subject to section 177, a creditor who (either or both)—
    - (i) is not a notified creditor, or
    - (ii) notified the trustee, during the relevant period, of objection to the trust deed,has no higher right to recover the debt than a creditor who has acceded to, or been deemed by virtue of section 170(2) to have acceded to, the trust deed, and
  - (b) an application for sequestration of the debtor's estate may not be made by the debtor while the trust deed subsists.
- (2) A creditor ceases to be deemed (by virtue of section 170(2)) to have acceded to a trust deed [<sup>F9</sup>if AiB agrees that the debtor should not be discharged from the trust deed under section 184A].
- (3) Where a secured creditor's agreement has been obtained by virtue of section 166(2)
- (b) and the trust deed becomes a protected trust deed, that creditor is not entitled—
    - (a) to make a claim under the protected trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2024.

Changes to legislation: Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 2016, PART 14 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) to do diligence against the assets conveyed to the trustee under the protected trust deed, or
- (c) to petition for the sequestration of the debtor during the subsistence of the protected trust deed.

173 Effect of protected status on diligence against earnings

- (1) This section applies where a trust deed has protected status.
- (2) On the date of protection, any current earnings arrestment, maintenance arrestment, or, subject to subsection (3), conjoined arrestment order ceases to have effect.
- (3) Any sum paid, before the date of protection, by the employer to the sheriff clerk under a conjoined arrestment order must be disbursed by the sheriff clerk under section 64 of the Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987 even if the date of disbursement is after the date of protection.
- (4) A deduction from earnings order under that Act of 1987 is not competent after the date of protection to secure the payment of any amount due by the debtor under a maintenance calculation (within the meaning of that Act) in respect of which a claim could be made under the trust deed.
- (5) The execution of an earnings arrestment or the making of a conjoined arrestment order is not competent, after the date of protection, to enforce a debt in respect of which the creditor is entitled to make a claim under the trust deed.

- (b) it entitles a supplier to terminate the contract or the supply, or do any other thing, because the individual becomes subject to an insolvency procedure other than a trust deed, or
  - (c) it entitles a supplier to terminate the contract or the supply because of an event that occurs, or may occur, after a trust deed granted by the debtor is granted protected status.
- (3) Where an insolvency-related term of a contract ceases to have effect under this section the supplier may—
  - (a) terminate the contract, if the condition in subsection (4) is met,
  - (b) terminate the supply, if the condition in subsection (7) is met.
- (4) The condition in this subsection is that—
  - (a) the trustee under the trust deed consents to the termination of the contract,
  - (b) on application by the supplier the court grants permission for the termination of the contract, or
  - (c) any charges in respect of the supply that are incurred after the date of protection of the trust deed are not paid within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which payment is due.
- (5) An application by the supplier under subsection (4)(b) is to be made to the sheriff who, had a petition for sequestration of the estate been presented at the date the trust deed was granted, would have had jurisdiction to hear that petition in terms of section 15(1) or (3).
- (6) The court may grant permission under subsection (4)(b) only if satisfied that the continuation of the contract would cause the supplier hardship.
- (7) The condition in this subsection is that—
  - (a) the supplier gives written notice to the trustee under the trust deed that the supply will be terminated unless the trustee personally guarantees the payment of any charges in respect of the continuation of the supply after the date of protection of the trust deed, and
  - (b) the trustee does not give that guarantee within the period of 14 days beginning with the day the notice is received.
- (8) For the purposes of securing that the interests of suppliers are protected, where—
  - (a) an insolvency-related term of a contract (the “original term”) ceases to have effect by virtue of subsection (1), and
  - (b) a subsequent trust deed granted by the debtor is granted protected status, the contract is treated for the purposes of subsections (1) to (7) as if, immediately before the subsequent trust deed granted by the debtor is granted protected status, it included an insolvency-related term identical to the original term.
- (9) A contract for the supply of essential goods or services is a contract for a supply mentioned in section 222(4).
- (10) An insolvency-related term of a contract for the supply of essential goods or services to a debtor is a provision of the contract under which—
  - (a) the contract or the supply would terminate, or any other thing would take place, because a trust deed granted by the debtor is granted protected status,

174 Deductions by virtue of protected trust deed from debtor's earnings

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) a debtor is required to pay to the trustee, by virtue of a protected trust deed, a contribution from income for the benefit of creditors,
  - (b) in respect of that contribution, an amount is required to be paid from the debtor's earnings from employment, and
  - (c) the debtor has failed on two consecutive occasions to pay that amount to the trustee.
- (2) Following a request by the trustee, the debtor must give the debtor's employer an instruction, in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this section, to make—
- (a) deductions of specified amounts from the debtor's earnings, and
  - (b) payments to the trustee of the amounts so deducted.
- (3) The trustee may give the debtor's employer an instruction, in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this section (being a form to the same effect as is mentioned in subsection (2)), if the debtor fails to comply with the requirement imposed by that subsection.
- (4) If agreed between the debtor and the trustee, the debtor may give the debtor's employer a variation to an instruction mentioned in subsection (2).
- (5) The employer must comply with any instruction given in accordance with subsection (2) or (3) (or, if an instruction under subsection (2) is varied in accordance with subsection (4), with that instruction as so varied).
- (6) The instruction having been delivered, the employer must, while it is in effect—
- (a) deduct the sum specified in it on every pay day, and
  - (b) pay the sum deducted to the trustee as soon as it is reasonable to do so.
- (7) Where an employer fails without good cause to make a payment due under an instruction, the employer is—
- (a) liable to pay on demand by a trustee the amount that should have been paid, and

- (b) not entitled to recover from a debtor the amount paid to the debtor in breach of the instruction.
- (8) An employer may, on making a payment due under an instruction—
  - (a) charge a fee equivalent to the fee chargeable for the time being under section 71 (employer's fee for operating diligence against earnings) of the Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987, and
  - (b) deduct that fee from the balance due to the debtor.
- (9) The trustee must, without delay after the discharge of a debtor under section 184, notify in writing any person who has received an instruction under subsection (2) or (3) (or an instruction under subsection (2) varied in accordance with subsection (4)) that the instruction is recalled.

175 Agreement in respect of debtor's heritable property

- (1) Subject to the conditions in subsection (2), the trustee may, in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this section as at the date on which the trust deed is granted, agree—
  - (a) not to realise any specified heritable estate of the debtor which has been conveyed to the trustee,
  - (b) to relinquish the trustee's interest in respect of such heritable estate, and
  - (c) to recall any notice of inhibition in respect of such heritable estate in accordance with paragraph 3(3) of schedule 4.
- (2) The conditions are that the debtor must—
  - (a) pay any amount determined by the trustee by a date so determined,
  - (b) pay a monthly amount so determined for a period so determined (being, in a case where there is a contribution from income, a period following the payment period applicable by virtue of section 168(2)), and
  - (c) co-operate with the administration of the trust.
- (3) The amount of the debtor's payments under paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) must be determined in accordance with a valuation made by a chartered surveyor, or other qualified third party, of the debtor's heritable estate as at the date of grant of the trust deed.
- (4) If the debtor fails to fulfil a condition mentioned in subsection (2), the trustee may withdraw from the agreement.
- (5) The trustee must, as soon as is practicable, send a copy of the agreement (in the form mentioned in subsection (1)) to AiB and to every creditor known to the trustee other than any secured creditor who has, as mentioned in paragraph (b)(ii) of the trust deed definition, agreed not to claim under the trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held.
- (6) This section does not apply to the debtor's dwellinghouse (or any part of that dwellinghouse) if the dwellinghouse or part is, by virtue of an exclusion such as is

178 Creditor's application as respects intrusions of trustee

- (1) A creditor who is not sent a copy of the notice mentioned in section 169 or who has notified the trustee of objection to the trust deed within the relevant period may apply to the sheriff under this section.
- (2) Where on such an application the sheriff is satisfied, on grounds other than those on which a petition under section 177(1)(b) has been or could have been presented by the creditor, that the intrusions of the trustee with the estate of the debtor have been so unduly prejudicial to the creditor's claim that the creditor should not be bound by the trustee's discharge, the sheriff may order that the creditor is not to be so bound.
- (3) On the sheriff making an order under subsection (2), the sheriff clerk must—
  - (a) send a copy of the order to the trustee, and
  - (b) send a copy of the order to AiB for registration in the register of insolvencies.
- (4) Any application under subsection (1) must be made within 28 days after the registration in the register of insolvencies of the trustee's statement of realisation and distribution of estate under the protected trust deed, as mentioned in section 186(8)(b).
- (5) The sheriff to whom the application may be made is the sheriff to whom a petition for sequestration would be brought in respect of the debtor by virtue of section 15(1) or (3).

183 Remuneration payable to trustee under protected trust deed

- (1) For work done by the trustee in administering the trust, the trustee under a protected trust deed is entitled to remuneration consisting only of—
  - (a) a fixed fee which must be set out in a form prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph,
  - (b) an additional fee based on a percentage of the total assets and contributions realised by the trustee, being a fee set out in a form so prescribed, and
  - (c) outlays incurred—
    - (i) after the date on which the trust deed is granted, or
    - (ii) before that date on a single valuation of any item of the debtor's heritable estate specified or valued in such a valuation.
- (2) In the event of unforeseen circumstances the fixed fee may be increased by—
  - (a) approval by a majority in value of the notified creditors, or
  - (b) approval by AiB (all notified creditors having first been asked to approve the increase).
- (3) AiB must approve an increase in the fixed fee if satisfied—
  - (a) that a majority in value of the notified creditors have not refused to approve the increase, and
  - (b) that the increase is required for work to be completed by the trustee for the benefit of the creditors generally, being work which was not foreseen in submitting a form by virtue of section 170(1)(e).
- (4) In deciding whether or not to grant the approval mentioned in subsection (2)(b), AiB may determine the amount of any increase in the fixed fee.
- (5) The trustee is entitled to include work done in seeking to comply with section 166(2) (whether or not a secured creditor has agreed not to claim under the trust deed) in the fixed fee and any outlays incurred.
- (6) Any debt due to a third party for work done before the granting of the trust deed does not rank higher than any other creditor's claim.
- (7) The trustee is entitled to recover from the debtor's estate any audit fee charged by AiB under paragraph 1 or 2 of schedule 4 in accordance with such rate as may be prescribed under section 205.
- (8) AiB may, at any time, audit the trustee's accounts and fix the outlays of the trustee in the administration of the trust.

184 Protected trust deed: discharge of debtor

- (1) If the conditions set out in subsection (2) are met then, subject to subsections (6) and (9) and to section 185(1)—
  - (a) the debtor falls to be discharged from all debts and obligations —
    - (i) in terms of the protected trust deed, or
    - (ii) for which the debtor was liable as at the date that deed was granted, and
  - (b) the trustee under the protected trust deed must send—
    - (i) to AiB, an application for discharge of the debtor from the trust deed (being an application in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph), and
    - (ii) to the debtor, a copy of that application.
- (2) The conditions are—
  - (a) that the trustee makes a statement (being a statement in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph) that, to the best of the trustee's knowledge, the debtor has—
    - (i) met the debtor's obligations in terms of the trust deed, and
    - (ii) co-operated with the administration of the trust, and
  - (b) any notice of inhibition under paragraph 3 of schedule 4 has been recalled or has expired.
- (3) Subject to subsection (9), on receipt of the application referred to in subsection (1)(b)
  - (i), AiB must register it in the register of insolvencies and the date of discharge is the date on which it is so registered.
- (4) AiB must without delay notify the trustee of—
  - (a) the fact of registration, and
  - (b) the date of the debtor's discharge.
- (5) The trustee must, within 7 days after receipt of the notification mentioned in subsection (4), notify the debtor and every creditor known to the trustee of the information set out in that notification.
- (6) The letter of discharge does not—
  - (a) discharge the debtor from—
    - (i) any liability arising after the date on which the protected trust deed was granted,
    - (ii) any liability or obligation mentioned in section 145(3),
    - (iii) any liability for a debt in respect of which a security is held if the secured creditor has, as mentioned in paragraph (b)(ii) of the trust deed definition, agreed not to claim under the trust deed for any of the debt in respect of which the security is held, or
  - (b) affect the rights of a secured creditor.

- (4) Where AiB receives an application under subsection (1) or (2), and AiB agrees that the debtor should not be discharged from the trust deed, AiB must notify the trustee of that conclusion as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (5) Where the trustee receives a notification from AiB under subsection (4), the trustee must—
  - (a) within 7 days, inform the debtor by notice in writing—
    - (i) of the fact and the reason for the refusal,
    - (ii) that the debtor is not discharged from the debtor’s debts and obligations in terms of the trust deed, and
    - (iii) of the debtor’s right to apply to the sheriff for a direction under section 189(1), and
  - (b) within 21 days of the date the notice is sent to the debtor under paragraph (a), send a copy of that notice to AiB.
- (6) Where AiB considers that the debtor should be discharged from the trust deed, AiB must issue such direction to the trustee as it considers appropriate.
- (7) Section 184(7) applies for the purposes of this section in the same way as it applies for the purposes of section 184(2)(a)(i).
- (8) Nothing in this section prevents the trustee from being discharged under section 186.

186 Protected trust deed: discharge of trustee

- (1) This section applies where a trustee under a protected trust deed has made the final distribution of the trust estate among the creditors.
- (2) Within 28 days after the date of final distribution, the trustee must apply for discharge to such of those creditors as have acceded (or are deemed to have acceded) to the trust deed.
- (3) Any application under subsection (2) must be in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of that subsection.
- (4) The trustee must send AiB by the date of application—
  - (a) a copy of the application, and
  - (b) the accounts of the trustee's intromissions for the last period for which accounts must be sent under section 181(1).
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (2), the “date of final distribution” is the date on which all of the estate distributed has been placed beyond the control of the trustee.
- (6) A creditor who does not respond to the application within 14 days after it is made is deemed to have agreed to the trustee's discharge.
- (7) If a majority of the creditors in value consent to the application the trustee is discharged.
- (8) On being discharged, the trustee must within 28 days of the discharge—
  - (a) inform AiB of the discharge,
  - (b) send AiB, for registration in the register of insolvencies, a statement of realisation and distribution of estate under the protected trust deed, and
  - (c) send AiB, where accounts submitted under subsection (4)(b) require to be revised, a copy of the revised accounts.
- (9) A statement under subsection (8)(b) must be in such form as may be prescribed for the purposes of that subsection.
- (10) Where the trustee's discharge is granted under this section, the discharge also applies as regards any previous trustee under the trust deed unless, under section 189, a person with an interest obtains an order to the contrary from the sheriff.

[<sup>F15</sup>186A Replacement of trustee in a protected trust deed

- (1) AiB may, of its own accord or on the representation of any person, appoint itself as trustee in a protected trust deed where AiB is satisfied that—
  - (a) the trustee under a protected trust deed is unable to continue to act under that protected trust deed (including, for example, because the trustee is no longer authorised to act as an insolvency practitioner or because the trustee has died),
  - (b) all reasonable efforts have been made to appoint a replacement trustee but without success, and
  - (c) it is necessary, taking account of all the circumstances, for AiB to become the trustee in the protected trust deed.
- (2) Before appointing itself as trustee under subsection (1), AiB must—
  - (a) take into account any representations made by an interested person,
  - (b) consider the public interest, and
  - (c) consider AiB's capacity and resources.
- (3) Where AiB becomes the trustee in a protected trust deed by virtue of subsection (1), AiB must—
  - (a) notify—
    - (i) the debtor, and
    - (ii) each creditor of whom AiB is aware, and
  - (b) make an appropriate entry in the register of insolvencies.
