EXPLANATORY NOTES

COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Final provisions

Section 35: Commencement

78. This section sets out when provisions of the Act, once enacted, will come into force. The following “framework” provisions will come into force on the day after Royal Assent: sections 32 and 33 (on regulation-making powers); section 34 (on interpretation); section 35 (commencement); section 36 (on repeal); and section 37 (on the short title).
79. The sections listed in subsection (2) – on touting, trading, advertising and enforcement, including all substantive regulation-making powers under the Act – come into force on a day to be appointed by the Scottish Ministers in regulations.
80. The remainder of the Act, once enacted, comes into force after a period of two months following the day after Royal Assent.
