 - (c) after that Part insert as Part 2 the text in schedule 1 of this Act.

3 Interim recognition of different sex relationships formed outwith Scotland

- (1) This section applies to a civil partnership between persons of different sexes—
 - (a) which is formed when they register as civil partners of each other—
 - (i) in England or Wales under Part 2 of the 2004 Act,
 - (ii) in Northern Ireland under Part 4 of the 2004 Act,
 - (b) which is formed when they register as civil partners of each other outside the United Kingdom under an Order in Council made under section 210 or 211 of the 2004 Act, or
 - (c) which they are treated under Chapter 2 of Part 5 of the 2004 Act as having formed (at the time determined under that Chapter) by virtue of having registered an overseas relationship.
- (2) Two persons in a civil partnership—

- (a) mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (c) are to be treated as being in a marriage formed under the law of the country or territory in which the civil partnership or (as the case may be) overseas relationship is registered,
 - (b) mentioned in subsection (1)(b) are to be treated as having formed a marriage in the part of the United Kingdom in which the civil partnership is, by virtue of section 210(5) or (as the case may be) 211(4) of the 2004 Act, to be treated as having been registered.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) prevents persons in a civil partnership to which this section applies—
- (a) presenting themselves as civil partners of each other,
 - (b) presenting their relationship as a civil partnership.
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) cease to have effect when section 6 comes into force (which is when it will become possible to register a civil partnership between persons of different sexes in Scotland).
- (5) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations—
- (a) provide for subsection (2) not to apply for purposes specified in the regulations,
 - (b) make transitional or saving provision in connection with subsection (2) ceasing to have effect.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (5) are subject to the negative procedure.
- (7) In this section, “the 2004 Act” means the Civil Partnership Act 2004.

 - (c) both.”,
 - (b) in subsection (3) after “(1)(b)” insert “in relation to civil partnerships between persons of the same sex”,
 - (c) after subsection (3) insert—

“(3A) The Registrar General may grant an authorisation to a person under subsection (1)(b) in relation to civil partnerships between persons of different sexes only if the religious or belief body of which the person is a member—

 - (a) is prescribed by virtue of section 94A(2A)(a)(i), or
 - (b) has nominated members (whether or not including that person) under section 94B(1A).”.

10 Second registration of civil partnership

- (1) The Civil Partnership Act 2004 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 97 insert—

“97A Second civil partnership registration

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
 - (a) two people have registered a specified relationship (within the meaning of section 213) or a relationship which meets the general conditions (within the meaning of section 214), whether before or after section 10 of the Civil Partnership (Scotland) Act 2020 comes into force, and
 - (b) that relationship would result in them being treated as having formed a civil partnership under the law of Scotland (by virtue of section 1(1)(b) and Chapter 2 of Part 5) but for the fact that they cannot prove that the relationship has been registered as mentioned in section 212(1)(b).
- (2) An authorised registrar may, on an application made by the parties to the relationship, subject to the approval of the Registrar General and to subsection (3), register their civil partnership as if they had not already registered that relationship with each other.
- (3) Sections 85 to 100 apply for the purpose of registering a civil partnership under this section as they apply to registering a civil partnership under section 1, subject to the modifications set out in subsections (4) to (11).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) Section 85 (formation of civil partnership by registration) applies as if the words “the approved celebrant or, as the case may be,”, in both places where they occur, were omitted.
- (5) Section 86 (eligibility) does not apply in respect of the parties already being in civil partnership with each other.
- (6) Section 88 (notice of proposed civil partnership) applies as if after subsection (1) there were inserted—
- “(1A) Both parties must submit to the authorised registrar a statutory declaration—
- (a) stating that they have previously registered their relationship, and
 - (b) specifying the date, place and country or territory at which, and the circumstances in which, they did so.”.

(7) Section 93A does not apply.

(8) Section 94 (the civil partnership schedule) applies as if after subsection (1) there were inserted—

“(1A) In the case of a civil partnership to be registered under section 97A, the civil partnership schedule is to contain such modifications as the Registrar General may direct to indicate that the parties have previously entered into a civil partnership with each other.”.

(9) Section 94A (persons who may register civil partnerships) applies as if subsections (1)(a), (2), (2A)(a), (2B), (3), (4)(a) and (b) and (5) were omitted.

(10) Sections 94B to 94E do not apply.

(11) Section 95 (further provision as to registration) applies as if after subsection (2) there were inserted—

“(2A) As soon as practicable after the civil partnership schedule has been signed in accordance with section 85, the authorised registrar must make an endorsement on it in the following terms—

“This civil partnership registration was carried out under section 97A of the Civil Partnership Act 2004, following a statutory declaration by the parties that they registered a relationship with each other on [date] at [place] in [country or territory].”.”.”.

Dissolution

11 Postponement of decree of dissolution where religious impediment to marry exists

- (1) The Civil Partnership Act 2004 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 121 insert—

“121A Postponement of decree of dissolution where religious impediment to marry exists

- (1) Notwithstanding that irremediable breakdown of a civil partnership has been established in an action for dissolution, the court may—
 - (a) on the application of a party (“the applicant”), and
 - (b) if satisfied—
 - (i) that subsection (2) applies, and
 - (ii) that it is just and reasonable to do so,postpone the grant of decree in the action until it is satisfied that the other party has complied with subsection (3).
 - (2) This subsection applies where—
 - (a) the applicant is prevented from entering into a religious marriage by virtue of a requirement of the religion of that marriage, and
 - (b) the other party can act so as to remove, or enable or contribute to the removal of, the impediment which prevents that marriage.
 - (3) A party complies with this subsection by acting in the way described in subsection (2)(b).
 - (4) The court may, whether or not on the application of a party and notwithstanding that subsection (2) applies, recall a postponement under subsection (1).
 - (5) The court may, before recalling a postponement under subsection (1), order the other party to produce a certificate from the relevant religious body confirming that the other party has acted in the way described in subsection (2)(b).
 - (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), a religious body is “relevant” if the applicant considers the body competent to provide the confirmation referred to in that subsection.
 - (7) In this section—

“religious marriage” means a marriage solemnised by a marriage celebrant of a specified religious body, and “religion of that marriage” is to be construed accordingly,

“specified” means specified by regulations made by the Scottish Ministers.
 - (8) Any reference in this section to a marriage celebrant of a specified religious body is a reference to—
 - (a) a minister, clergyman, pastor or priest of such a body,
 - (b) a person who has, on the nomination of such a body, been registered under section 9 of the Marriage (Scotland) Act 1977 as empowered to solemnise marriages,
 - (c) any person who is recognised by such a body as entitled to solemnise marriages on its behalf.”.
- (3) In section 126(4) (regulations), for “or 106(3)(a)(i)” substitute “, 106(3)(a)(i) or 121A(7)”.
