FINANCIAL REDRESS: REDRESS PAYMENTS

CHAPTER 1

DETERMINATION OF APPLICATIONS FOR REDRESS PAYMENTS

Applications

29 Application for a redress payment

- (1) An application for a redress payment must—
 - (a) be made to the Scottish Ministers,
 - (b) be received during the application period,
 - (c) be an application for—
 - (i) a fixed rate payment,
 - (ii) an individually assessed payment, or
 - (iii) a next of kin payment,
 - (d) be made in such form, if any, as Ministers require, and
 - (e) contain or be accompanied by such information or evidence as Ministers require.
- (2) An application may relate to one or more relevant care settings in which abuse took place.
- (3) Other than as provided for in section 30, only one application may be made in respect of a person who was abused.
- (4) On receiving an application, the Scottish Ministers must provide the summary of options to the applicant.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) The Scottish Ministers must provide any application received, and any information or evidence accompanying it, to Redress Scotland.
- (6) The Scottish Ministers must publicise any requirements which are for the time being set under subsection (1)(d) or (e).
