

Coronavirus (Extension and Expiry) (Scotland) Act 2021

2021 asp 19

6 Reporting on status of eviction provisions

- (1) Each report required by section 15(1) of the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020 must also include information on the operation during the period to which the report relates of schedule 1 of that Act, including in particular—
 - (a) the measures in place to protect tenants from eviction and any plans for further measures the Scottish Ministers propose to put in place to protect tenants from eviction,
 - (b) the number of notices of proceedings issued to tenants in social housing as a result of rent arrears in the period,
 - (c) the total value of rent arrears in the social housing sector accumulated during the period, and
 - (d) the number of eviction orders because of rent arrears issued by the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland during the period.
- (2) But subsection (1) does not require a report to include information on the operation of a provision if the provision has been expired before the period to which the report relates.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Extension and Expiry) (Scotland) Act 2021, Section 6.