Ability to allow duplicate charity names as part of merger

- 4 (1) The 2005 Act is modified as follows.
 - (2) In section 5 (determination of applications), after subsection (2), insert—
 - “(3) Despite subsection (2)(a), where—
 - (a) an applicant’s name falls within section 10 only because it is the same as, or too like, the name of a charity, and
 - (b) the application for entry in the Register is being made as part of a proposed charity merger (within the meaning of section 64A(2)) involving that charity,OSCR is entitled, but not required, to refuse to enter the applicant on the grounds of the applicant’s name.”.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

(3) In section 12 (power of OSCR to require charity to change name), after subsection (3), insert—

“(3A) But, for the purposes of subsection (3)(a), where—

- (a) a charity's name falls within section 10 only because it is the same as, or too like, the name of another charity, and
- (b) one of the charities was entered in the Register with that name by virtue of section 5(3),

OSCR may direct either one or both of the charities to change its name under subsection (3)(a) only if OSCR is satisfied that it is no longer appropriate for the names to be the same or so alike.”.

Change of name: delaying decision or granting or refusing consent

5 (1) The 2005 Act is modified as follows.

(2) In section 11 (change of name)—

(a) in subsection (3)—

(i) for “, directs the charity not to change its name,” substitute “—

- (a) refuses its consent, or
- (b) directs the charity not to change its name to that proposed new name for a period of not more than 6 months specified in the direction,”

- “(3) Nothing in this section, or in any of sections 5(2)(a), 11(4), 12(3), 54(4)(a) or 57(3)(a), requires OSCR to undertake any investigation into the working name of a charity.”.
- (4) In section 12 (power of OSCR to require charity to change name)—
- (a) in subsection (1), for “of” to the end substitute “or working name of another charity is the same as or too like its name or working name, request OSCR to conduct a review.”,
- (b) after subsection (2), insert—
- “(2A) OSCR may, if satisfied following such a review that the working name of a charity (“charity A”) is the same as or too like the name or working name of another charity (“charity B”), as appropriate—
- (a) direct charity B to change its name,
- (b) direct either one or both of the charities to stop using its working name within such period as may be specified in the direction.”,
- (c) for subsection (3), substitute—
- “(3) At any other time—
- (a) where OSCR considers that a charity's name falls within section 10, it must direct the charity to change its name,
- (b) where OSCR considers that a charity's working name is objectionable, it may direct the charity to stop using that working name within such period as may be specified in the direction.”,
- (d) after subsection (3A) (inserted by paragraph 4), insert—
- “(3B) A direction under this section—
- (a) may be revoked at any time,
- (b) may be varied, but only by extending the period specified in it.”,

- (b) in paragraph (e), after “12(2)” insert “or (2A)”.

(7) In section 106 (general interpretation), after the definition of “SCIO”, insert—
 ““working name”, in relation to a charity, means a name that is not the charity’s name but which is used to identify the charity and under which it carries out activities.”.

Giving notice to OSCR: removal of 42 day rule

- 7 (1) The 2005 Act is modified as follows.
- (2) In section 11 (change of name), in subsection (2), the words “, not less than 42 days before doing so,” are repealed.
- (3) In section 16 (changes which require OSCR’s consent), in subsection (4)—
- (a) the words “, not less than 42 days before the date on which the action is to be taken,” are repealed,
 - (b) the words “specifying that date” are repealed.

Consent to and notification of changes

- 8 (1) The 2005 Act is modified as follows.
- (2) In section 16 (changes which require OSCR’s consent), at the end of subsection (4), insert “(unless the action is one for which, by virtue of subsection (3), consent under subsection (1) is not required).”.
- (3) In section 17 (notification of other changes), for subsection (2), substitute—
 “(2) Paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (1) are subject to section 16.”.
- (4) The heading of section 17 becomes “Notification of changes”.

Removal from Register: protection of assets

- 9 (1) Section 19 (removal from register: protection of assets) of the 2005 Act is modified as follows.
- (2) For subsection (1) substitute—
 “(1) A body removed from the Register (under section 18 or otherwise) continues to be under a duty to apply its protected charitable assets—
- (a) in accordance with its charitable purposes as set out in its entry in the Register immediately before its removal (its “most recent purposes”), and
 - (b) to provide public benefit in Scotland or elsewhere.
- (1A) In this section, “protected charitable assets” means—
- (a) any property acquired, or any property representing property acquired, before the body was removed from the Register,
 - (b) any property representing income which accrued before the body was removed from the Register, and
 - (c) the income from any such property.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (1B) The application of protected charitable assets in accordance with a body’s most recent purposes is not to be presumed to be for the public benefit.
- (1C) In determining whether a body is applying its protected charitable assets for public benefit, section 8(2) applies subject to the modifications in subsection (1D).
- (1D) The modifications are that—
- (a) in the opening words, the reference to determining whether a body provides or intends to provide public benefit is to be read as if it were a reference to determining whether a body is applying its protected charitable assets for public benefit,
 - (b) in the closing words of paragraph (a), the reference to the consequence of the body exercising its functions is to be read as if it were a reference to the consequence of the body applying its protected charitable assets.”.
- (3) In subsection (2), for “property and income referred to in subsection (1)” substitute “its protected charitable assets”.
- (4) In subsection (4), for “property or income” substitute “protected charitable assets”.
- (5) In subsection (5)—
- (a) in paragraph (a)—
 - (i) for “property or income”, in both places where it occurs, substitute “protected charitable assets”,
 - (ii) before “purposes” insert “charitable”,
 - (b) in paragraph (b), for “property and income” substitute “protected charitable assets”.
- (6) In subsection (7)—
- (a) for “property or income”, in the first place where it occurs, substitute “protected charitable assets”,
 - (b) for “that property or income” substitute “the protected charitable assets”.

Provision of documents: period for compliance

- 10 (1) Section 23 (entitlement to information about charities) of the 2005 Act is modified as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), the words “in such form as the person may reasonably request” are repealed.
- (3) After subsection (1), insert—
- “(1A) Where a person is entitled to a copy document under subsection (1), the person is entitled to be given it—
- (a) within 28 days of the date on which the request is received by the charity, and
 - (b) in such form as the person may reasonably request.”.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

Disclosure of information by and to designated religious charities

- 11 (1) The 2005 Act is modified as follows.
- (2) The heading of section 24 becomes “Disclosure of information by and to OSCR: public bodies or office-holders”.
- (3) After section 24, insert—

“24A Disclosure of information by and to OSCR: designated religious charities

- (1) OSCR may disclose any information to a designated religious charity—
- (a) for any purpose connected with the exercise of OSCR’s functions, or
 - (b) for the purpose of enabling or assisting the charity in relation to the exercise of any supervisory or disciplinary functions in respect of the component parts of the charity.
- (2) A designated religious charity may disclose any information to OSCR for the purpose of enabling or assisting OSCR to exercise any functions.”.
- (4) In section 25 (removal of restrictions on disclosure of certain information)—
- (a) in subsection (1), after paragraph (b) insert—
 - “(ba) OSCR from disclosing any information to a designated religious charity for—
 - (i) any purpose connected with the exercise of OSCR’s functions,
 - (ii) the purpose of enabling or assisting that charity in relation to the exercise of any supervisory or disciplinary functions in respect of the component parts of the charity,
 - (bb) a designated religious charity from disclosing any information to OSCR for the purpose of enabling or assisting OSCR to exercise any functions,”
 - (b) after subsection (2), insert—
 - “(3) Nothing in this section authorises the making of a disclosure that contravenes the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, the provision made in this Act enabling or requiring the disclosure of information as mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (1) is to be taken into account).
 - (4) In this section, “the data protection legislation” has the meaning given by section 3(9) of the Data Protection Act 2018.”.

Retention of accounting records

- 12 (1) Section 44 (accounts) of the 2005 Act is modified as follows.
- (2) In subsection (2), for “in which they are made” substitute “to which they relate”.
- (3) After subsection (2), insert—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

“(2A) Where the charity ceases to be a charity before the end of the period mentioned in subsection (2), the records must be preserved for the remainder of that period by—

- (a) the body which was the charity, or
- (b) where that body ceases to exist, a person notified to OSCR who, immediately before it ceased to exist, was—
 - (i) a charity trustee of the charity, or
 - (ii) where the body was not a charity at that time, concerned in the management or control of the body.”.

(4) In subsection (3), for “Subsection (2) is” substitute “Subsections (2) and (2A) are”.

Ability to appoint person to prepare statement of account

13 (1) Section 45 (failure to provide statement of account) of the 2005 Act is modified as follows.

(2) For subsection (1), substitute—

“(1) This section applies where—

- (a) a charity has failed to send a copy of its statement of account to OSCR in pursuance of section 44(1)(d), and
- (b) the time by which the statement was due to be sent to OSCR by virtue of provision made under section 44(4)(f) has passed.”.

Reports from auditors etc.
