PART 6

UNCRC COMPATIBILITY ISSUES IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

PROSPECTIVE

33 UNCRC compatibility issues in relation to decisions to prosecute children

- (1) The 1995 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 288B insert—

“288BZA UNCRC compatibility issue in relation to decision to prosecute child: restriction on judicial remedies

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) by virtue of section 7(1)(b) of the UNCRC Incorporation Act, a UNCRC compatibility issue has arisen—
 - (i) in criminal proceedings brought against a person who is a child, or who was a child at the time the proceedings were brought,
 - (ii) otherwise than in connection with an appeal against conviction or an appeal against both conviction and sentence,
 - (b) in determining the UNCRC compatibility issue, a court finds that the prosecutor, by bringing criminal proceedings against the person, has acted in a way which is made unlawful by section 6(1) of the UNCRC Incorporation Act, and
 - (c) by reason only of the finding mentioned in paragraph (b), a court is considering—
 - (i) deserting the proceedings pro loco et tempore or simpliciter,

- (ii) dismissing the indictment or (as the case may be) the complaint or any part of it.
- (2) Despite section 8(1) of the UNCRC Incorporation Act, a court—
 - (a) may not—
 - (i) desert the proceedings pro loco et tempore or simpliciter, except on the motion of the prosecutor, or
 - (ii) dismiss the indictment or (as the case may be) the complaint or any part of it, but
 - (b) must instead—
 - (i) give the prosecutor an opportunity to reconsider the bringing of criminal proceedings against the person in a way which is compatible with the UNCRC requirements,
 - (ii) adjourn or continue the proceedings to another diet to allow such reconsideration, and
 - (iii) following any such reconsideration, decide whether the bringing of criminal proceedings against the person is compatible with the UNCRC requirements.
- (3) But a court is not required to act in accordance with subsection (2) if—
 - (a) it considers that there is no reasonable prospect of the bringing of criminal proceedings against the person being reconsidered in a way which is compatible with the UNCRC requirements,
 - (b) it considers that there are exceptional circumstances which justify not doing so, or
 - (c) it decides under subsection (2)(b)(iii) that the bringing of criminal proceedings against the person is incompatible with the UNCRC requirements.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies where—
 - (a) the court adjourns or continues the proceedings in accordance with subsection (2)(b)(ii), or
 - (b) by virtue of subsection (3), the court decides to desert the proceedings pro loco et tempore.
- (5) Before adjourning or continuing the proceedings or (as the case may be) deserting the proceedings pro loco et tempore, the court must give the prosecutor an opportunity—
 - (a) in solemn proceedings, to make an application under section 65(3) or (5) for an extension of any of the following periods which apply in respect of the proceedings—
 - (i) the periods of 11 months and 12 months mentioned in section 65(1), including those periods as extended under section 65(3), on appeal under section 65(8) or under section 74(4)(c),
 - (ii) the periods of 80 days, 110 days and 140 days mentioned in section 65(4), including those periods as extended under section 65(5) or on appeal under section 65(8),
 - (b) in summary proceedings in respect of which the period of 40 days mentioned in section 147(1) applies, to make an application under
