

Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014

2014 anaw 4

PART 8 E+W

SOCIAL SERVICES FUNCTIONS

Local authorities

143 Social services functions of local authorities E+W

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the social services functions of a local authority are its functions under the enactments mentioned in the first column of the table in Schedule 2 to this Act (being the functions which are described in general terms in the second column of that Schedule).
- (2) The Welsh Ministers may by order—
 - (a) add entries to the table;
 - (b) remove entries from the table;
 - (c) amend entries in the table.

144 Directors of social services E+W

- (1) A local authority must appoint an officer, to be known as the director of social services, for the purposes of its social services functions.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016.

Changes to legislation: Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014, PART 8 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A local authority may not appoint a person to be its director of social services unless it is satisfied that the person has demonstrated competencies specified by the Welsh Ministers.
- (3) The Welsh Ministers must specify the competencies for the purpose of subsection (2) in a code issued under section 145 or in regulations.
- (4) Two or more local authorities may, if they consider that the same person can efficiently discharge, for both or all of them, the functions of a director of social services, appoint one person as director of social services for both or all of those authorities.
- (5) A local authority which has appointed, or jointly appointed, a person under this section must secure the provision of adequate staff for the purposes of its social services functions in order to assist the director.

Codes

145 Power to issue codes E+W

- (1) The Welsh Ministers may issue, and from time to time revise, one or more codes on the exercise of social services functions (“a code”).
- (2) A code may impose requirements, and may include guidelines setting out aims, objectives and other matters.
- (3) A local authority must, when exercising social services functions—
 - (a) act in accordance with any relevant requirements contained in a code (subject to section 147), and
 - (b) have regard to any relevant guidelines contained in it.
- (4) A code may specify that section 147 does not apply to a requirement contained in the code.
- (5) The Welsh Ministers must—
 - (a) publish each code for the time being in force on their website, and
 - (b) make available to the public codes that have been replaced or revoked (whether on their website or otherwise).

146 Issue, approval and revocation of codes E+W

- (1) Before issuing or revising a code under section 145, the Welsh Ministers must consult such persons as they think fit on a draft of the code (or revised code).

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016.

Changes to legislation: Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014, PART 8 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If the Welsh Ministers wish to proceed with the draft (with or without modifications) they must lay a copy of the draft before the National Assembly for Wales.
- (3) If, before the end of the 40 day period, the National Assembly for Wales resolves not to approve the draft, the Welsh Ministers must not issue the code (or revised code) in the form of that draft.
- (4) If no such resolution is made before the end of that period—
 - (a) the Welsh Ministers must issue the code (or revised code) in the form of the draft, and
 - (b) the code (or revised code) comes into force on the date appointed by order of the Welsh Ministers.
- (5) The 40 day period—
 - (a) begins on the day on which the draft is laid before the National Assembly for Wales, and
 - (b) does not include any time during which the National Assembly for Wales is dissolved or is in recess for more than four days.
- (6) Subsection (3) does not prevent a new draft of a code (or revised code) from being laid before the National Assembly for Wales.
- (7) The Welsh Ministers may revoke a code (or revised code) issued under this section in a further code or by direction.
- (8) A direction under subsection (7) must be laid before the National Assembly for Wales.

147 Departure from requirements in codes E+W

- (1) Where this section applies to a requirement in a code (see section 145(4)), a local authority may exercise social services functions in a way that does not comply with the requirement so far as—
 - (a) the authority considers there is good reason for it not to comply with the requirement in particular categories of cases or at all,
 - (b) it decides on an alternative policy for the exercise of its functions in respect of the subject matter of the requirement, and
 - (c) a policy statement issued by the authority in accordance with section 148 is in effect.
- (2) Where paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (1) apply, the authority—
 - (a) must follow the course set out in the policy statement, and
 - (b) is subject to the duty to comply with the requirement in the code only so far as the subject matter of the requirement is not displaced by the policy statement.
- (3) The duty to comply with a requirement in a code of practice or to follow the course set out in a policy statement does not apply to a local authority so far as it would be unreasonable for the authority to follow the code or policy statement in a particular case or category of case.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016.

148 Policy statements: requirements and ancillary powers E+W

- (1) A policy statement issued under section 147(1) must set out—
 - (a) how the local authority proposes that social services functions should be exercised differently from the requirement in the relevant code, and
 - (b) the authority's reasons for proposing that different course.
- (2) An authority that has issued a policy statement may—
 - (a) issue a revised policy statement;
 - (b) give notice revoking a policy statement.
- (3) A policy statement (or revised statement) must state—
 - (a) that it is issued under section 147(1), and
 - (b) the date on which it is to take effect.
- (4) An authority that issues a policy statement (or revised statement), or gives a notice under subsection (2)(b), must—
 - (a) arrange for the statement or notice to be published;
 - (b) send a copy of the statement or notice to the Welsh Ministers.

Intervention by central government

150 Grounds for intervention E+W

For the purposes of this Part, the grounds for intervention in the exercise by a local authority of its social services functions are as follows—

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016.

Changes to legislation: Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014, PART 8 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

GROUND 1 - the local authority has failed, or is likely to fail, to comply with a duty that is a social services function;

GROUND 2 - the local authority has acted, or is proposing to act, unreasonably in the exercise of a social services function;

GROUND 3 - the local authority is failing, or is likely to fail, to perform a social services function to an adequate standard.

151 Warning notice E+W

- (1) The Welsh Ministers may give a warning notice to a local authority if they are satisfied that one or more of grounds 1 to 3 exist in relation to the local authority.
- (2) The Welsh Ministers must specify each of the following in the warning notice—
 - (a) the grounds for intervention;
 - (b) the reasons why they are satisfied that the grounds exist;
 - (c) the action they require the local authority to take in order to deal with the grounds for intervention;
 - (d) the period within which the action is to be taken by the local authority (“the compliance period”);
 - (e) the action they are minded to take if the local authority fails to take the required action.
- (3) Where the Welsh Ministers give a warning notice under subsection (1), they must—
 - (a) within 21 days of the giving of the notice, lay a copy of the notice before the National Assembly for Wales, and
 - (b) within 90 days of the giving of the notice, report to the National Assembly for Wales on the action taken by the local authority in response to the warning notice.

152 Power of Welsh Ministers to intervene E+W

- (1) The Welsh Ministers have the power to intervene under this Part in the exercise of social services functions by a local authority if subsection (2) or (3) applies.
- (2) This subsection applies if—
 - (a) the Welsh Ministers have given a warning notice, and
 - (b) the local authority has failed to comply, or secure compliance, with the notice to the Welsh Ministers' satisfaction within the compliance period.
- (3) This subsection applies if the Welsh Ministers are satisfied that one or more of grounds 1 to 3 exist in relation to the local authority and they have reason to believe that—

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016.

Changes to legislation: *Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014, PART 8 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. - (a) there is a related risk to the health or safety of any person that calls for urgent intervention under this Part, or
 - (b) the local authority is unlikely to be able to comply, or secure compliance, with a warning notice.
- (4) The Welsh Ministers must, within 90 days of the date on which they begin to intervene in the exercise of a local authority's social services functions, report to the National Assembly for Wales on the steps taken pursuant to the intervention.
- (5) Where the Welsh Ministers have the power to intervene, they must keep the circumstances giving rise to the power under review.
- (6) If the Welsh Ministers conclude that the grounds for intervention have been dealt with to their satisfaction or that the exercise of their powers under this Part would not be appropriate for any other reason, they must notify the local authority of their conclusion in writing.
- (7) The Welsh Ministers' power to intervene continues in effect until they give notice under subsection (6).
- (8) Until such time as notice is given under subsection (6), the Welsh Ministers must, every 6 months from the date on which they begin to intervene in the exercise of a local authority's social services functions, report to the National Assembly for Wales on the steps being taken pursuant to the intervention.
- (9) Where the Welsh Ministers have the power to intervene, they are not limited to taking the action they said they were minded to take in a warning notice.
