- (2) The tenant in a tenancy to which this section applies may carry out any work in the house—
  - (a) which the tenant considers necessary for the purpose of making the house suitable for the accommodation, welfare or employment of any disabled person who occupies, or intends to occupy, the house as a sole or main residence, or
  - (b) in respect of which a grant is payable in accordance with regulations made under section 15(1)(a) (grants for improving energy efficiency of houses) of the Social Security Act 1990 (c. 27).
- (3) But a tenant is not entitled to exercise the right set out in subsection (2) without the consent of the landlord, which must not be unreasonably withheld.
- (4) An application for consent to carry out work in pursuance of subsection (2) must specify the work which the tenant proposes to carry out.
- (5) The landlord may, on receipt of such an application—

  - (b) consent subject to such reasonable conditions as the landlord may impose, or
  - (c) refuse consent, provided that it is not refused unreasonably.

- (8) Where a landlord fails to comply with subsection (6)—
- (a) the landlord is to be treated as having decided to refuse consent, and
  - (b) notice of such refusal is to be treated as having been served on the applicant on the last day of the period mentioned in that subsection.
- (9) The terms of a tenancy, and of any other agreement between the landlord and the tenant in any tenancy, are of no effect in so far as they purport to negate or modify the effect of this section.
- (10) Nothing in this section entitles a tenant to carry out work for which the consent or other approval of any person is required under any other enactment unless that consent or approval has been given.
- (11) Where it is for the landlord to obtain any such consent or approval, the landlord must, if requested to do so by the tenant, take reasonable steps for the purposes of doing so (and may recover any expenses incurred in doing so from the tenant).
- (12) But the need for any such consent or approval by any person other than the landlord is not, of itself, a reasonable ground on which the landlord may impose any condition under subsection (5)(b) or, as the case may be, refuse consent under subsection (5)(c).

53 Matters relevant to application to carry out work under section 52

- (5) It is reasonable for a landlord to refuse to consent to an application to carry out work in pursuance of section 52(2), or to impose any condition on such a consent, if the carrying out of the proposed work or, as the case may be, failure to comply with that condition, would make the landlord susceptible under any enactment or rule of law to any sanction or other remedy.

- (5) In subsection (4)(e)—

  - (b) the increase is due to circumstances beyond the control of the applicant, the authority may, on receipt of a further estimate, substitute a higher amount as the amount of the approved expense in accordance with subsection (1).
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) are subject to subsections (4) and (5).
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may, by order, provide that the approved expense in relation to a grant or loan must not, unless they otherwise consent, exceed such amount as may be specified in the order.

- (7) An application falls within this subsection if it is made in connection with work in a house for either of the purposes set out in paragraphs (e) and (f) of section 71(2), where the house is (or is likely to become or, in the case of reinstatement, was) a disabled person's only or main residence.

77 Assessment of applicant's contribution

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision for the assessment, in relation to such classes of application for a grant or a subsidised loan as the regulations may specify, of an amount to be treated, for the purposes of this Part, as the applicant's contribution towards the approved expense (“the applicant's contribution”).
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may provide for the assessment to be by reference to—
  - (a) the income and other financial circumstances of any of the following—
    - (i) the applicant,

- (a) for a local authority, with the consent of the Scottish Ministers, to reduce the applicant's contribution by an amount determined by the authority in such cases as may be specified in the regulations,
- (b) for the delegation of functions conferred by this section.

VALID FROM 01/04/2009

78 Applicant's contribution: review

- (2) A request for a review must be made before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the notice under section 81(1) was given or such longer period as the authority may allow.
- (3) A review under subsection (1) is to be carried out by a person senior to the person who made the assessment being reviewed and who had no involvement in the making of the assessment.
- (4) The authority must notify the applicant of the decision reached on the review.
- (5) There is no right to request a review of a decision reached on review.

79 Amount of grant or loan

- (1) The amount of a grant is the greater of—
  - (a) the approved expense less the applicant's contribution (if any), or
  - (b) where subsection (6) applies, the amount determined by virtue of that subsection.
- (2) The amount of a standard loan is the approved expense (unless section 88(1)(b) applies).

  - (a) an interest free element, and
  - (b) a repayment element.
- (4) The amount of the interest free element is the greater of—

- (5) The amount of the repayment element is the approved expense less the amount of the interest free element.
- (6) In such cases as the Scottish Ministers may specify in regulations, the amount for the purposes of subsection (1)(b) and (4)(b) is such percentage of the approved expense as may be so specified or such other percentage as a local authority may, with the consent of the Scottish Ministers, determine.
- (7) Where the amount of a grant or of the interest free element of a subsidised loan is determined by virtue of subsection (6), the grant or subsidised loan is referred to in this Part as a “minimum percentage” grant or loan.

  - (a) no interest or other charge is to be payable in respect of the interest free element of a subsidised loan,
  - (b) the local authority may not demand repayment of that element of such a loan (or any part of it) unless the applicant to whom the loan is paid disposes of an interest in the land or premises, and
  - (c) the repayment element of such a loan is to be repaid in instalments of such amounts and at such times as the authority may determine.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a person is to be treated as disposing of an interest in any land or premises if—

- (3) In relation to a loan the notice must also advise the applicant to obtain independent advice from a suitably qualified person on the terms on which the loan is offered.
- (4) Where an authority—
- (a) refuses an application, or
  - (b) approves an application but fixes as the approved expense in respect of any land or premises an amount less than the amount of the expense estimated in the application or, as the case may be, the proportion of that expense specified in the application in respect of that land or those premises (unless the approved expense is the maximum amount which may be fixed by virtue of an order made under section 76(4)),

- and the revocation is to have effect from the day on which notice is served under paragraph (a).
- (6) An order under subsection (1) does not affect the terms or validity of the tenancy or occupancy arrangement to which it relates (otherwise than by suspending the rent or other sums payable for occupation under that tenancy or occupancy arrangement).
- (7) Revocation of an order under subsection (1) does not make any person liable to pay any rent or sums which that person would, but for the order, have been liable to pay under the tenancy or occupancy arrangement concerned while the order had effect.
- (8) Failure to comply with—
- (a) section 158(6)(b), or

- (4) That notice must specify—

- (5) The period so specified must be a period of not less than 21 days from the date on which the notice takes effect within which the local authority reasonably considers that the work can be completed.
- (6) The HMO amenity notice may also specify particular steps which the local authority requires to be taken in carrying out the work required.

147 HMO amenity notices: relevant matters

- (1) In reaching a decision for the purposes of section 146(1)(b) in relation to any living accommodation, the local authority must have regard to—

- (3) The owner of any living accommodation commits an offence by, without reasonable excuse, representing an HMO licence which has ceased to have effect as having effect in relation to the living accommodation.

- (4) A person commits an offence if the person, without reasonable excuse, does anything as agent for the owner of any living accommodation which directly permits or facilitates the occupation of the living accommodation—
  - (a) as an HMO which requires to be licensed under this Part at any time when—
    - (i) it is not so licensed, or
    - (ii) an HMO licence does not authorise the person to do so, or
  - (b) at any time during which a requirement under section 145(2) has effect in relation to it.
- (5) An agent specified in an HMO licence commits an offence if the agent, without reasonable excuse, causes any condition included in the HMO licence to be breached at any time during which the living accommodation concerned is an HMO which requires to be licensed under this Part.
- (6) A person commits an offence by preventing or obstructing any person from exercising a power conferred by section 181(1)(e) (powers of entry).

155 Defences

- (1) The owner of an HMO which requires to be licensed under this Part but which is not so licensed has reasonable excuse for not holding an HMO licence if—
  - (a) either of the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2) apply, and
  - (b) the owner—
    - (i) has taken reasonable steps with a view to securing that the living accommodation concerned stops being an HMO which requires to be licensed under this Part, but
    - (ii) despite having taking those steps, is unable to stop it from being such an HMO without breaching the terms of any tenancy or occupancy arrangement under which any person occupied it on the day on which the HMO licence was revoked or, as the case may be, on which the exemption ceased to have effect.
- (2) The circumstances mentioned in subsection (1)(a) are—
  - (a) that an HMO licence held by the owner in respect of the HMO has been revoked,
  - (b) that the HMO requires to be licensed under this Part by virtue only of the fact that an exemption provided by an order by the local authority under section 127(2) has ceased to have effect.
- (3) A licence holder has reasonable excuse for breaching a condition of an HMO licence if the licence holder—
  - (a) has taken reasonable steps with a view to securing that the condition is not breached, but
  - (b) despite having taken those steps, cannot secure compliance with the condition without breaching the terms of any tenancy or occupancy arrangement under which any person occupied the living accommodation concerned on the day on which the HMO licence was granted or, as the case may be, varied so as to include that condition.
- (4) Subsections (1) and (3) do not affect the generality of the defence of reasonable excuse.

(5) It is not an offence under section 154(2)(b) or (4)(b) to permit or, as the case may be, to do anything which permits or facilitates the occupation by any person of the living accommodation concerned if that person occupied it on the day from which the requirement in question has effect.

(6) Where—

- (a) the owner of living accommodation has applied for an HMO licence in respect of it, and
- (b) the local authority has not determined the application,

it is not an offence to do anything as agent for that owner which would otherwise be an offence under section 154(4)(a) if that act does not entitle a person to occupy the living accommodation before an HMO licence is granted in respect of it.

156 Penalties etc.

(1) A person guilty of an offence under section 154 is liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding—

- (a) in the case of an offence under subsection (1) or (4)(a) of that section, £20,000,
- (b) in the case of an offence under subsection (2), (4)(b) or (5) of that section, £10,000,
- (c) in the case of an offence under subsection (3) or (6) of that section, level 3 on the standard scale.

(2) Within 6 days of the court convicting a person of an offence under section 154, the clerk of court must provide to the local authority which granted the HMO licence—

- (a) an extract of the conviction and sentence (if any), and
- (b) a note of any order made under section 157(2).

157 Disqualification orders etc.

(1) This section applies where a court convicts a person of an offence under section 154 (other than an offence under subsection (6) of that section committed by a person who is not the owner of the living accommodation concerned nor an agent acting for that owner).

(2) Where this section applies, the court may, in addition to imposing a penalty under section 156, by order—

- (a) revoke any HMO licence which has effect in relation to the living accommodation concerned,
- (b) where the convicted person is the owner of the living accommodation concerned, disqualify the owner (and, where the owner is not an individual, any director, partner or other person concerned in the management of the owner) from holding an HMO licence for such period not exceeding 5 years as may be specified in the order,
- (c) where the convicted person acted as agent for the owner of the living accommodation concerned, disqualify the convicted person (and, where the convicted person is not an individual, any director, partner or other person concerned in the management of the convicted person) from being able to act as agent for any licence holder for such period not exceeding 5 years as may be specified in the order.

- (5) The court may, on summary application by a person disqualified by an order under subsection (2)(b), revoke the order with effect from such date as the court may specify.

- (7) No application may be made for the purposes of subsection (5) during the first year of a disqualification.
- (8) The court may order the applicant to pay the whole or part of the expenses arising from an application made for the purposes of subsection (5).
