

Housing (Scotland) Act 2010 2010 asp 17

PART 11

CHANGE OF LANDLORD: SECURE TENANTS

130 Market value of eligible house

- (1) It is for the local authority landlord to instruct either of the following to determine the market value of an eligible house—
  - (a) the district valuer, or
  - (b) a qualified valuer nominated by the local authority landlord and accepted by the applicant.
- (2) In determining the market value of an eligible house, the valuer must have regard to the price which the house would realise if sold on the open market by a willing seller, with the following assumptions—
  - (a) that it was sold on the day on which the application to acquire the house was made,
  - (b) that it was sold subject to the tenancy held by the qualifying tenant but otherwise with vacant possession,
  - (c) that it was to be conveyed with the same right and subject to the same burdens as would apply to an acquisition under this Part,
  - (d) that the only prospective acquirers were the persons who were approved persons on the date on which the application was made, and
  - (e) that the applicant would, within a reasonable period, carry out such works as are reasonably necessary to put the house into the state of repair required by the local authority landlord's repairing obligations.
- (3) Where a valuer determines that the house would not realise any price if offered for sale in accordance with subsection (2) that price may be taken to be—
  - (a) a negative value equal to the amount which would require to be paid to an approved person in order that the approved person would willingly acquire the house, or
  - (b) where an approved person would willingly acquire the house for no consideration, nil, and the house's market value may accordingly be determined to be a negative value or nil.

(4) Where market value is determined to be a negative value or nil-

- (a) the reference in section 129 to selling the house is to be read as a reference to disposing of it, and
- (b) where the market value is determined to be a negative value, the obligation to pay falls on the local authority landlord.
