

Victims and Witnesses (Scotland) Act 2014

2014 asp 1

The Bill for this Act of the Scottish Parliament was passed by the Parliament on 12th December 2013 and received Royal Assent on 17th January 2014

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision for certain rights and support for victims and witnesses, including provision for implementing Directive 2012/29/EU of the European Parliament and the Council; and to make provision for the establishment of a committee of the Mental Welfare Commission with functions relating to persons who were placed in institutional care as children.

General principles

1 General principles

- (1) Each person mentioned in subsection (2) must have regard to the principles mentioned in subsection (3) in carrying out functions conferred on the person by or under any enactment in so far as those functions relate to a person who is or appears to be a victim or witness in relation to a criminal investigation or criminal proceedings.
- (2) The persons are—
 - (a) the Lord Advocate,
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers,
 - (c) the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland,
 - (d) the Scottish Court Service,
 - (e) the Parole Board for Scotland.
- (3) The principles are—
 - (a) that a victim or witness should be able to obtain information about what is happening in the investigation or proceedings,
 - (b) that the safety of a victim or witness should be ensured during and after the investigation and proceedings,
 - (c) that a victim or witness should have access to appropriate support during and after the investigation and proceedings,
 - (d) that, in so far as it would be appropriate to do so, a victim or witness should be able to participate effectively in the investigation and proceedings.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Victims and Witnesses (Scotland) Act 2014. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Scottish Ministers may by order modify subsection (2).
- (5) An order under subsection (4) is subject to the affirmative procedure.

[^{F1}1A. Further general principles applicable to victims

- (1) Each person mentioned in section 1(2) must have regard to the principles mentioned in subsection (2) in carrying out functions conferred on the person by or under any enactment in so far as those functions relate to a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to a criminal investigation or criminal proceedings.
- (2) The principles are—
- (a) that victims should be treated in a respectful, sensitive, tailored, professional and non-discriminatory manner,
 - (b) that victims should, as far as is reasonably practicable, be able to understand information they are given and be understood in any information they provide,
 - (c) that victims should have their needs taken into consideration,
 - (d) that, when dealing with victims who are children, the best interests of the child should be considered, taking into account the child's age, maturity, views, needs and concerns, and
 - (e) that victims should be protected from—
 - (i) secondary and repeat victimisation,
 - (ii) intimidation, and
 - (iii) retaliation.
- (3) In this section, “child” means a person under 18 years of age.]

3B. The Victims' Code for Scotland

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must prepare and publish a document, known as the Victims' Code for Scotland, setting out the following information (or directing the reader as to where that information is set out)—
 - (a) the types of support that victims may obtain and from whom that support can be obtained,
 - (b) the procedures for making complaints with regard to a criminal offence and the victim's role in connection with such procedures,
 - (c) how and under what conditions victims may obtain protection, including special measures under sections 271 to 271M of the 1995 Act and measures under section 9C of this Act,
 - (d) how and under what conditions victims may access legal advice, legal aid or any other sort of advice which the Scottish Ministers consider relevant to the needs of victims,
 - (e) how and under what conditions victims may obtain compensation,
 - (f) how and under what conditions victims are entitled to interpretation and translation,
 - (g) in relation to a criminal offence which was not committed in Scotland, any measures, procedures or arrangements, which are available to protect victims' interests in Scotland,
 - (h) the available procedures for making complaints against any competent authority in relation to a breach of victims' rights under this or any other enactment,
 - (i) the contact details for all competent authorities,
 - (j) the available restorative justice services, and
 - (k) how and under what conditions victims may be reimbursed for the reasonable expenses incurred by them as a result of their participation in criminal proceedings.
- (2) The Victims' Code for Scotland may include such other information as the Scottish Ministers consider relevant to the needs of victims.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies where—
 - (a) a competent authority, other than the Scottish Ministers, receives a request for translation of the Victims' Code for Scotland by virtue of section 3F and transmits that request to the Scottish Ministers, or
 - (b) a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence, and who does not understand or speak English, requests that the Scottish Ministers translate the Victims' Code for Scotland into a language which that person understands.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers must—
 - (a) translate the Code into the language required by the authority or, as the case may be, the person, and
 - (b) provide a copy of the translated Code to the authority or, as the case may be, the person.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers must keep the Victims' Code for Scotland under review and may modify it from time to time.

*Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Victims and Witnesses (Scotland) Act 2014. (See end of Document for details)*

- (6) Where under subsection (5) the Scottish Ministers modify the Victims' Code for Scotland they must publish the modified Code.

3C. Victims' right to receive information

- (1) The chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland must ensure that, as soon as reasonably practicable after a constable identifies a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence, a constable informs the person that the person may request, from any competent authority—
- (a) a copy of the Victims' Code for Scotland, and
 - (b) information relating to the rights of victims.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies where a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence requests from a competent authority a copy of the Victims' Code for Scotland.
- (3) As soon as reasonably practicable after the request is made, the authority must—
- (a) provide the person with a copy of the Code, or
 - (b) advise the person where a copy of the Code may be obtained.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies where a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence requests from a competent authority information relating to the rights of victims.
- (5) As soon as reasonably practicable after the request is made, the authority must—
- (a) provide the person with such information held by, or accessible to, the authority which the authority considers relevant to the request, and
 - (b) provide the person with contact details for any other competent authority which the authority considers may hold or be able to access information relevant to the request.
- (6) Where, by virtue of this section, a competent authority is to provide a person with a copy of the Victim's Code for Scotland or information relating to the rights of victims, the authority may do so by such means as the authority considers appropriate having regard to the needs of the person.
- (7) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) a request made by a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence to a constable or a member of police staff is deemed to be a request made to the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland, and
 - (b) a request made by a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence to a procurator fiscal is deemed to be a request made to the Lord Advocate.

Provision of support to victims

3D. Referral to providers of victim support services

3E. Victims' right to understand and be understood

- (1) Subsection (2) applies in relation to any contact—
 - (a) between a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence and a competent authority, and
 - (b) which is for the purposes of a relevant function.
- (2) The authority must take such measures as the authority considers appropriate in order to assist the person—
 - (a) to understand the information given to the person by the authority, and
 - (b) to be understood in the person's interaction with the authority.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies in relation to any communication, in any form—
 - (a) between a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence and a competent authority, and
 - (b) which is for the purposes of a relevant function.
- (4) The authority must ensure that communications—
 - (a) are as clear and easy to understand as possible, and
 - (b) take into account any personal characteristics of the person which may affect the person's ability to understand the communication and be understood in responding to the communication.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies in relation to the first contact—
 - (a) between a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence and a competent authority, and
 - (b) which is for the purposes of a relevant function.
- (6) Where the authority considers that the person requires assistance to communicate, the authority must allow the person to be assisted by someone of the person's choice unless—
 - (a) the authority considers that such assistance would be contrary to the interests of the person or prejudicial to any criminal proceedings, or
 - (b) the assistance is required for the purposes of the person giving evidence at a hearing in relevant criminal proceedings.
- (7) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) any contact between a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence (V) and a constable or a member of police staff is deemed to be contact between V and the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland,
 - (b) any contact between V and a procurator fiscal is deemed to be contact between V and the Lord Advocate,
 - (c) any communication between a constable or a member of police staff and V is deemed to be communication between the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland and V, and
 - (d) any communication between a procurator fiscal and V is deemed to be communication between the Lord Advocate and V.
- (8) In this section—

“a hearing in relevant criminal proceedings” means any hearing in the course of any criminal proceedings in the High Court, sheriff court or justice of the peace court in relation to an offence or alleged offence,

9A. Victims' right to protection during criminal investigations

- (1) During a criminal investigation into an offence or alleged offence, the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland must ensure that—
- (a) a relevant interview is conducted without undue delay after a complaint about the offence or alleged offence has been made to a constable,
 - (b) the number of relevant interviews is kept to a minimum,

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Victims and Witnesses (Scotland) Act 2014. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) relevant interviews are carried out only where strictly necessary for the purposes of the criminal investigation,
 - (d) during a relevant interview, the person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to the offence or alleged offence is permitted to be accompanied by the person's chosen legal representative and a person of the person's choice, unless a constable makes a reasoned decision to the contrary, and
 - (e) medical examinations of the person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to the offence or alleged offence are kept to a minimum and are carried out only where strictly necessary for the purposes of the investigation.
- (2) In this section, a "relevant interview" means an interview of a person who is or appears to be the victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence conducted or arranged by a constable for the purposes of a criminal investigation into the offence or alleged offence.

9B. Individual assessment of victims in criminal investigations

- (1) The chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland must ensure that a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence is assessed by a constable in order to determine whether the person—
- (a) has protection needs, and
 - (b) would benefit from the use of any of the measures listed in section 9C(3) during a relevant interview.
- (2) The assessment of a person under subsection (1) must be carried out for the purposes of a criminal investigation in relation to the offence or alleged offence—
- (a) as soon as reasonably practicable after a constable identifies that person as a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to the offence or alleged offence, and
 - (b) as soon as reasonably practicable after any material change in the matters specified in subsection (4).
- (3) For the purposes of an assessment under subsection (1), the following persons must always be considered to have protection needs—
- (a) persons under 18 years of age, and
 - (b) any person who would be a deemed vulnerable witness within the meaning of section 271(5) of the 1995 Act if they were to give evidence at, or for the purposes of, a hearing in relevant criminal proceedings.
- (4) For the purposes of an assessment of a person under subsection (1), the constable must consider—
- (a) the views of the person,
 - (b) the nature and circumstances of the offence or alleged offence,
 - (c) the nature of the evidence which the person is likely to give,
 - (d) the relationship (if any) between the person and the person suspected or accused of the offence or alleged offence,
 - (e) the person's age and maturity,
 - (f) any behaviour towards the person on the part of—
 - (i) the person suspected or accused of the offence or alleged offence,
 - (ii) members of the family, or associates, of the person suspected or accused of the offence or alleged offence,

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Victims and Witnesses (Scotland) Act 2014. (See end of Document for details)

- (iii) any other person who is likely to be a suspect or an accused in relation to the offence or alleged offence,
 - (iv) any other person who is likely to be a witness in criminal proceedings in relation to the offence or alleged offence, and
 - (g) such other matters as the constable considers to be relevant.
- (5) For the purposes of this section and section 9C, a person has protection needs if they are vulnerable to—
- (i) secondary and repeat victimisation,
 - (ii) intimidation, and
 - (iii) retaliation.
- (6) In this section—
- “a hearing in relevant criminal proceedings” means any hearing in the course of any criminal proceedings in the High Court, sheriff court or justice of the peace court in relation to an offence or alleged offence,
 - “relevant interview” has the same meaning as in section 9A(2).

9C. Measures to assist victims in criminal investigations

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where an assessment of a person under section 9B(1) finds that the person—
- (a) has protection needs, and
 - (b) would benefit from the use of the measures listed in subsection (3) during a relevant interview.
- (2) Where this subsection applies, the measures listed in subsection (3) may be used for the purposes of any relevant interview.
- (3) The measures are—
- (a) conducting the relevant interview in premises designed or adapted for that purpose,
 - (b) conducting the relevant interview by or through professionals trained for that purpose,
 - (c) ensuring that all relevant interviews are conducted by the same person or persons.
- (4) The constable who is conducting or arranging the relevant interview must determine which, if any, of the measures listed in subsection (3) are to be used having regard to—
- (a) the needs and views of the person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to the offence or alleged offence,
 - (b) the interests of justice, and
 - (c) any practical constraints on the use of any of the measures in those circumstances.
- (5) In this section, “relevant interview” has the same meaning as in section 9A(2).]

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Victims and Witnesses (Scotland) Act 2014. (See end of Document for details)

Victims and Witnesses (Scotland) Act 2014. (See end of Document for details)

- (g) grandchildren and great-grandchildren of the person, and
- (h) where the person is deceased, anyone who was a family member of the person under paragraphs (a) to (g) immediately before the person's death.

9E. Victims' right to protection of privacy

- (1) Subsection (2) applies during any interaction between—
 - (a) a competent authority, and
 - (b) a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence or any of that person's family members, which is for the purposes of a relevant function.
- (2) The authority must take reasonable steps to—
 - (a) protect the privacy of that person,
 - (b) where that person or family member is a child, prevent disclosure of any information that could lead to the identification of the child, and
 - (c) prevent the disclosure of any images of the person or any of the person's family members.
- (3) This section is without prejudice to any other obligation placed, or power conferred, on a competent authority, either at common law or in any enactment, to—
 - (a) protect the privacy of a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence or that person's family members,
 - (b) prevent the identification of a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence or that person's family members,
 - (c) disclose, or order or permit the disclosure of, any information about a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence or that person's family members.
- (4) This section does not apply to the giving of evidence in a hearing in relevant criminal proceedings by—
 - (a) a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence, or
 - (b) any of that person's family members.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, any interaction between—
 - (a) a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence or any of that person's family members, and
 - (b) a constable or a member of police staff, is deemed to be an interaction between that person or family member and the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, any interaction between—
 - (a) a person who is or appears to be a victim in relation to an offence or alleged offence or any of that person's family members, and
 - (b) a procurator fiscal,
 is deemed to be an interaction between that person or family member and the Lord Advocate.
- (7) In this section—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Victims and Witnesses (Scotland) Act 2014. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) An order under subsection (5) or (6) is subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (8) In this section, “support services”, in relation to a victim, means any type of service or treatment which is intended to benefit the physical or mental health or wellbeing of the victim.

253C Restitution order, fine and compensation order: order of preference

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where a court considers in relation to an offence that it would be appropriate—
- (a) to make a restitution order,
 - (b) to impose a fine, and
 - (c) to make a compensation order.
- (2) If the person convicted of the offence (“P”) has insufficient means to pay an appropriate amount under a restitution order, to pay an appropriate fine and to pay an appropriate amount in compensation, the court should prefer a compensation order and then a restitution order over a fine.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies where a court considers in relation to an offence that it would be appropriate—
- (a) to make a restitution order, and
 - (b) to impose a fine or make a compensation order.
- (4) If P has insufficient means to pay an appropriate amount under a restitution order and to pay an appropriate fine or, as the case may be, an appropriate amount in compensation, the court should prefer a compensation order and then a restitution order over a fine.

253D Application of receipts

- (1) This section applies where the court makes a restitution order in relation to a person (“P”) convicted of an offence and also in respect of the same offence or different offences in the same proceedings—
- (a) imposes a fine and makes a compensation order, or
 - (b) imposes a fine or makes a compensation order.
- (2) A payment by P must be applied in the following order—
- (a) the payment must first be applied in satisfaction of the compensation order,
 - (b) the payment must next be applied in satisfaction of the restitution order,
 - (c) the payment must then be applied in satisfaction of the fine.

 - (f) subject to subsection (3) below, section 219(1)(b), (2), (3), (5), (6) and (8),
 - (g) sections 220 to 224,
 - (h) section 248B.
- (3) In the application of the provisions of section 219 mentioned in subsection (2) (f) for the purposes of subsection (1)—
 - (a) a court may impose imprisonment in respect of a fine and decline to impose imprisonment in respect of a restitution order but not vice versa,
 - (b) where a court imposes imprisonment both in respect of a fine and a restitution order, the amounts in respect of which imprisonment is imposed are to be aggregated for the purposes of section 219(2).”.

“Victim surcharge

253F Victim surcharge

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a person (“P”) is convicted of an offence other than an offence, or offence of a class, that is prescribed by regulations by the Scottish Ministers,
 - (b) the court does not make a restitution order, and

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Victims and Witnesses (Scotland) Act 2014. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the court imposes a sentence, or sentence of a class, that is so prescribed.
- (2) Except in such circumstances as may be prescribed by regulations by the Scottish Ministers, the court, in addition to dealing with P in any other way, must order P to pay a victim surcharge of such amount as may be so prescribed.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), if P is convicted of two or more offences in the same proceedings, the court must order P to pay only one victim surcharge in respect of both or, as the case may be, all the offences.
- (4) Any sum paid in respect of a victim surcharge is to be paid to the clerk of any court or any other person (or class of person) authorised by the Scottish Ministers for the purpose.
- (5) Regulations under this section may make different provision for different cases and in particular may include provision—
 - (a) prescribing different amounts for different descriptions of offender,
 - (b) prescribing different amounts for different circumstances.
- (6) Where provision is made by virtue of subsection (5), the Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision for determining which victim surcharge is payable in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (3).
- (7) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative procedure.

253G The Victim Surcharge Fund

- (1) A person to whom any sum is paid under section 253F(4) in respect of a victim surcharge must pay the sum to the Scottish Ministers.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers must pay any sum received by virtue of subsection (1) into a fund to be known as the Victim Surcharge Fund.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers must establish, maintain and administer the Victim Surcharge Fund for the purpose of securing the provision of support services for persons who are or appear to be the victims of crime and prescribed relatives of such persons.
- (4) Any payment out of the fund may be made only to—
 - (a) a person who is or appears to be the victim of crime,
 - (b) a prescribed relative of a person who is or appears to be the victim of crime,
 - (c) a person who provides or secures the provision of support services for persons who are or appear to be victims of crime, or
 - (d) the Scottish Ministers or, with the consent of the Scottish Ministers, a person specified by order by virtue of subsection (5) in respect of outlays incurred in administering the fund.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers may delegate to such person as they may specify by order the duties imposed on them by subsection (3) of establishing, maintaining and administering the Victim Surcharge Fund.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Victims and Witnesses (Scotland) Act 2014. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision about the administration of the Victim Surcharge Fund including provision for or in connection with—
- (a) the making of payments out of the fund,
 - (b) the keeping of financial and other records,
 - (c) the making of reports to the Scottish Government containing such information and in respect of such periods as may be specified.
- (7) An order under subsection (5) and regulations under subsection (6) are subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (8) In this section—
- “prescribed” means prescribed by the Scottish Ministers by regulations,
- “support services”, in relation to a person who is or appears to be the victim of crime, means any type of service or treatment which is intended to benefit the physical or mental health or wellbeing of the person or a prescribed relative of the person.
- (9) Regulations under subsections (3), (4) and (8) are subject to the negative procedure.

253H Application of receipts

- (1) This section applies where the court orders the payment of a victim surcharge in relation to a person (“P”) convicted of an offence and also in respect of the same offence or different offences in the same proceedings—
- (a) imposes a fine and makes a compensation order, or
 - (b) imposes a fine or makes a compensation order.
- (2) A payment by P must be applied in the following order—
- (a) the payment must first be applied in satisfaction of the compensation order,
 - (b) the payment must next be applied in satisfaction of the victim surcharge,
 - (c) the payment must then be applied in satisfaction of the fine.

253J Enforcement: application of certain provisions relating to fines

- (1) The provisions of this Act specified in subsection (2) apply in relation to victim surcharges as they apply in relation to fines but subject to the modifications mentioned in subsection (2) and to any other necessary modifications.
- (2) The provisions are—
- (a) section 211(3) and (4),
 - (b) section 212,
 - (c) section 213 (with the modification that subsection (2) is to be read as if the words “or (4)” were omitted),
