

EXPLANATORY NOTES

DOMESTIC ABUSE (SCOTLAND) ACT 2018

INTRODUCTION

THE ACT

THE STRUCTURE AND A SUMMARY OF THE ACT

PART 1 – OFFENCE AS TO DOMESTIC ABUSE

Engaging in course of abusive behaviour

Section 1 – Abusive behaviour towards partner or ex-partner

Section 2 – What constitutes abusive behaviour

Section 3 – Extra-territorial jurisdiction

Evidence, aggravation and defence

Section 4 – Evidence of impact on victim

Section 5 - Aggravation in relation to a child

Section 6 - Defence on grounds of reasonableness

Presumption, alternative and penalty

Section 7 - Presumption as to the relationship

Section 8 - Alternative available for conviction

Section 9 - Penalty for offence under section 1(1)

Section 10 – Meaning of references to behaviour

Section 11 – Meaning of partner and ex-partner

PART 2 – FURTHER AND FINAL MATTERS

Section 12 – The 1995 Act etc.

The schedule – details

PART 1 – RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

Chapter 1 – restriction on bail in solemn cases

Chapter 2 - conduct of precognition and defence

Bail condition concerning precognition

Prohibition on conduct of own defence

Chapter 3 – vulnerable witnesses and expert evidence

Special measures for vulnerable witnesses

Presentation of certain expert evidence

Chapter 4 – victim safety and non-harassment

Victim safety in relation to sentencing

Consideration of non-harassment order

PART 2 – MINOR AND CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS

Section 13 – Ancillary provision

Section 14 – Reporting requirement

Section 15 – Commencement

PARLIAMENTARY HISTORY