DOMESTIC ABUSE PROTECTION NOTICES AND ORDERS

Persons to whom, and behaviour to which, notices and orders may relate

1 Persons to whom domestic abuse protection notices and orders may relate

- (1) A domestic abuse protection notice (see section 5) or domestic abuse protection order (see section 9) may be made—
 - (a) in relation to a person (“person A”) who is aged 18 or over,
 - (b) for the purpose of protecting a person (“person B”)—
 - (i) aged 16 or over who is the partner or ex-partner of person A, and
 - (ii) with whom person A lives some or all of the time,from abusive behaviour by person A.
- (2) Person A and person B are partners if they are—
 - (a) spouses or civil partners of each other, or
 - (b) in an intimate personal relationship with each other.
- (3) Whether person A and person B are “ex-partners” is to be determined accordingly.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b)(ii), the reference to person A living with person B is a reference to those persons living, at the same time, in any place where either person A or person B lives to any extent.
- (5) References in this Part to person A and person B are to be construed in accordance with this section.

2 Meaning of abusive behaviour

- (1) In this Part, “abusive behaviour by person A” means behaviour by person A which is abusive of person B.
- (2) Behaviour by person A is abusive of person B if a reasonable person would consider the behaviour to be likely to cause person B to suffer physical or psychological harm.
- (3) Behaviour is behaviour of any kind, including (for example)—
 - (a) saying or otherwise communicating something as well as doing something,
 - (b) intentionally failing—
 - (i) to do something,
 - (ii) to say or otherwise communicate something.
- (4) Behaviour directed at a person is such behaviour however carried out, including (in particular)—
 - (a) by way of conduct towards property,
 - (b) through making use of a third party,as well as behaviour in a personal or direct manner.
- (5) In subsection \(2\), the reference to psychological harm includes fear, alarm and distress.
- (6) Behaviour may consist of a single incident or a course of conduct.

3 What constitutes abusive behaviour

- (1) Subsections \(2\) to \(4\) elaborate on when behaviour by person A is abusive of person B.
- (2) Behaviour which is abusive of person B includes (in particular)—
 - (a) behaviour directed at person B that is violent, threatening or intimidating,
 - (b) behaviour directed at person B, at a child of person B or at another person that either—
 - (i) has as its purpose (or among its purposes) one or more of the relevant effects set out in subsection \(3\), or
 - (ii) would be considered by a reasonable person to be likely to have one or more of the relevant effects set out in subsection \(3\).
- (3) The relevant effects are of—
 - (a) making person B dependent on, or subordinate to, person A,
 - (b) isolating person B from friends, relatives or other sources of support,
 - (c) controlling, regulating or monitoring person B's day-to-day activities,
 - (d) depriving person B of, or restricting person B's, freedom of action,
 - (e) frightening, humiliating, degrading or punishing person B.

- (4) In subsection \(2\)\(a\), the reference to violent behaviour includes sexual violence as well as physical violence.

Domestic abuse protection notices

4 Making of domestic abuse protection notice

- (1) A senior constable may make a domestic abuse protection notice in relation to person A if the constable has reasonable grounds for believing that—
- (a) person A has engaged in behaviour which is abusive of person B,
 - (b) it is necessary for a domestic abuse protection order to be made for the purpose of protecting person B from abusive behaviour by person A, and
 - (c) there is a risk of person A engaging in further behaviour which is abusive of person B immediately and it is necessary to make the notice for the purpose of protecting person B from that behaviour.
- (2) In subsection (1)(c), “immediately” means in the period before the sheriff can make an interim domestic abuse protection order or a domestic abuse protection order.
- (3) It does not matter whether the abusive behaviour referred to in subsection \(1\)\(a\) took place in Scotland or elsewhere.
- (4) Before making a domestic abuse protection notice in relation to person A, the senior constable must—
- (a) take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances—
 - (i) to establish whether person A has any views in relation to the notice which person A wishes to be taken into account, and if so, to obtain those views,
 - (ii) to establish whether person B has any views in relation to the notice which person B wishes to be taken into account, and if so, to obtain those views, and
 - (b) take into account—
 - (i) any views of which the senior constable becomes aware as a result of paragraph (a), and
 - (ii) the welfare of any child whose interests the senior constable considers to be relevant to the making of the notice.
- (5) A domestic abuse protection notice may be made without the consent of person B.

5 Content and effect of notice

- (1) A domestic abuse protection notice is a notice which does one or more of the following—
- (a) requires person A to leave any place where person B lives (whether or not it is also a place where person A lives, and even if it is person A’s only or main place of residence),
 - (b) requires person A to surrender keys to any such place,
 - (c) prohibits person A from entering any such place,

 - (f) prohibits person A from approaching or contacting, or attempting to approach or contact, person B,
 - (g) prohibits person A from approaching or contacting, or attempting to approach or contact, any child usually residing with person B.
- (2) The notice may impose a requirement or prohibition mentioned in subsection \(1\) only if the senior constable who makes the notice considers it necessary for the purpose of protecting person B from abusive behaviour by person A.
- (3) The notice may also require person A—
- (a) at the time the notice is delivered to person A under section 6(4), to either—
 - (i) provide the constable delivering the notice with an address at which person A may be given notice of the hearing to be held in accordance with section 11(3), or
 - (ii) undertake to provide such an address to a constable by a specified time or to attend a specified police station at a specified time for the purpose of being given notice of the hearing, and
 - (b) to comply with any such undertaking.
- (4) The notice—
- (a) takes effect when it is given to person A in accordance with section 6(4) (except that the requirement mentioned in subsection (3) takes effect only if and when person A fails to provide an address in response to a request under section 6(5)),
 - (b) ceases to have effect in accordance with section 11(9).
- (5) In subsection (3)(a)(ii), “specified” means specified by the constable delivering the notice to person A under section 6(4).

6 Further requirements in relation to notice

- (1) A domestic abuse protection notice must be in writing.
- (2) A domestic abuse protection notice made in relation to person A must, in addition to stating each requirement and prohibition imposed by it, state that—
- (a) the senior constable who made the notice has reasonable grounds for believing that—
 - (i) person A has engaged in behaviour which is abusive of person B,
 - (ii) it is necessary for a domestic abuse protection order to be made for the purpose of protecting person B from abusive behaviour by person A, and
 - (iii) there is a risk of person A engaging in further behaviour which is abusive of person B immediately and it is necessary to make the notice for the purpose of protecting person B from that behaviour,
 - (b) person A commits an offence if person A without reasonable excuse—
 - (i) fails to do something which person A is required to do by the notice, or
 - (ii) does anything which person A is prohibited from doing by the notice,
 - (c) an application for a domestic abuse protection order under section 8(1)(a) will be made to the sheriff not later than the first court day after the day on which the notice is given to person A,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (d) a hearing will be held in accordance with section 11(3) in relation to the application not later than the first court day after the day on which the application is made,
 - (e) person A will be given notice of the hearing,
 - (f) the domestic abuse protection notice ceases to have effect—
 - (i) if the sheriff makes a domestic abuse protection order or an interim domestic abuse protection order at the hearing, when the sheriff makes the order,
 - (ii) otherwise, when the hearing ends,
 - (g) the domestic abuse protection order may impose such requirements and prohibitions as the sheriff considers necessary for the purpose of protecting person B from abusive behaviour by person A.
- (3) In subsection (2)(a)(iii), “immediately” has the meaning given by section 4(2).
- (4) The domestic abuse protection notice must be given to person A by being delivered personally by a constable.
- (5) On giving the notice, the constable must ask person A for an address at which person A may be given notice of the hearing to be held in accordance with section 11(3).

7 Offence of breaching notice

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person without reasonable excuse—
- (a) fails to do something which the person is required to do by a domestic abuse protection notice, or
 - (b) does anything which the person is prohibited from doing by such a notice.
- (2) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale (or both).

Domestic abuse protection orders

8 Making of domestic abuse protection order

- (1) The chief constable—
- (a) must apply to the sheriff for a domestic abuse protection order in relation to a person to whom a domestic abuse protection notice is given,
 - (b) may apply to the sheriff for a domestic abuse protection order in relation to a person in any other case.
- (2) The sheriff may make the order—
- (a) only if the sheriff is satisfied that—
 - (i) person A has engaged in behaviour which is abusive of person B,
 - (ii) there is an immediate or imminent risk of person A engaging in further behaviour which is abusive of person B, and
 - (iii) it is necessary to make the order for the purpose of protecting person B from abusive behaviour by person A,
 - (b) without the consent of person B (but see subsection (7)).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (3) It does not matter whether the abusive behaviour referred to in subsection \(2\)\(a\)\(i\) took place in Scotland or elsewhere.
- (4) The abusive behaviour referred to in subsection \(2\)\(a\)\(iii\) must include, but need not be limited to, the behaviour referred to in subsection \(2\)\(a\)\(ii\).
- (5) The sheriff may permit person B to be a party to the proceedings.
- (6) Before determining an application under subsection \(1\), the sheriff must give an opportunity to the chief constable, person A and person B (whether or not person B is a party to the proceedings) to make representations about the application.
- (7) When determining the application, the sheriff must—
 - (a) take into account—
 - (i) any views of person B of which the sheriff is aware as to whether or not person B wishes an order to be made, and
 - (ii) where person B does not wish an order to be made, any reasons for that view of which the sheriff is aware,
 - (b) take into account any other views of person B in relation to the application of which the sheriff is aware,
(whether the sheriff is aware of those views, and any reasons for them, as a result of representations made to the sheriff by person B or otherwise).
- (8) When determining the application, the sheriff must also take into account—
 - (a) any representations made to the sheriff by the chief constable or person A,
 - (b) the welfare of any child whose interests the sheriff considers to be relevant to the application.
- (9) Subsection \(10\) applies where, on an application under subsection \(1\), the sheriff is considering making provision in an order which would relate directly to a child.
- (10) The sheriff must—
 - (a) take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to give the child an opportunity to express views in relation to the matter, and
 - (b) take into account any views of the child of which the sheriff is aware (whether as a result of paragraph \(a\) or otherwise).
- (11) In taking account of views of the child under subsection \(10\)\(b\), the sheriff must take into account the child's age and understanding.

9 Content and effect of order

- (1) A domestic abuse protection order is an order requiring person A to do, or prohibiting person A from doing, a thing or things described in the order.
- (2) Those requirements and prohibitions may include (but are not limited to) any requirement or prohibition which could be imposed by a domestic abuse protection notice (see section 5\(1\)).
- (3) The order may impose a requirement or prohibition only if the sheriff considers it necessary for the purpose of protecting person B from abusive behaviour by person A.

- (4) The sheriff has competence to make provision in a domestic abuse protection order having effect in relation to conduct at places outside the sheriff's sheriffdom as well as at places within the sheriff's sheriffdom.

10 Interim domestic abuse protection order

- (1) The sheriff may make an interim domestic abuse protection order (an “interim order”) pending determination of an application under section 8(1).
- (2) The sheriff may make an interim order only if the sheriff considers, on the balance of convenience, that it is just to do so.
- (3) In deciding whether it is, on the balance of convenience, just, the sheriff must have regard to all the circumstances, including any risk that, if an interim order is not made, person A will cause harm to person B.
- (4) An interim order may do anything which a domestic abuse protection order could do (see section 9(1) to (4)).
- (5) The sheriff may make an interim order—
 - (a) even if person A or person B has not been given such notice of the proceedings as is required by section 11(5) or rules of court,
 - (b) without giving person A or person B an opportunity to make representations about the interim order,
 - (c) without the consent of person B.
- (6) If the sheriff makes an interim order in the circumstances described in subsection (5)(a) or (b), the sheriff must hold a hearing in relation to the application under section 8(1) as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (7) An interim order—
 - (a) has effect for such period not exceeding three weeks as is specified in the order,
 - (b) ceases to have effect, if it has not already done so, on the determination of the application under section 8(1).
- (8) In sections 12 to 14, a reference to a domestic abuse protection order includes a reference to an interim order.

11 Hearing to be held where domestic abuse protection notice has been given

- (1) This section applies in relation to an application made under section 8(1)(a) (following a domestic abuse protection notice being given to person A).
- (2) The application must be made not later than the first court day after the day on which the notice is given.
- (3) The sheriff must hold a hearing in relation to the application not later than the first court day after the day on which the application is made.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) The hearing must be concluded on the day on which it begins.
- (5) The chief constable must—
 - (a) give person A notice of the hearing by—
 - (i) leaving it at an address given to a constable by person A (whether given in accordance with section 5(3) or 6(5) or otherwise in connection with the giving of notice under this subsection), or
 - (ii) giving it to person A on person A attending a police station in accordance with section 5(3) or otherwise delivering it to person A personally,
 - (b) give person B notice of the hearing by—
 - (i) leaving it at the address at which person B usually resides, or
 - (ii) delivering it to person B personally.
- (6) But the sheriff must hold the hearing even if notice is not given in accordance with subsection \(5\).
- (7) At the hearing, the sheriff may—
 - (a) determine the application (but see section 8(6)),
 - (b) make an interim domestic abuse protection order (an “interim order”), or
 - (c) continue the proceedings without determining the application or making an interim order.
- (8) The sheriff may not make an interim order or a domestic abuse protection order before the hearing is held.
- (9) The domestic abuse protection notice ceases to have effect—
 - (a) if the sheriff makes a domestic abuse protection order or an interim order at the hearing, when the sheriff makes the order,
 - (b) otherwise, when the hearing ends.

12 Extension, variation or discharge of order

- (1) The sheriff may, before the expiry of a domestic abuse protection order, extend, vary or discharge the order on the application of—
 - (a) the chief constable,
 - (b) person A,
 - (c) person B.
- (2) The sheriff may permit a person mentioned in subsection \(1\) to be a party to proceedings relating to an application made by another person mentioned in that subsection.
- (3) Before determining an application under subsection \(1\), the sheriff must give an opportunity to the chief constable, person A and person B (whether or not the chief constable or person B is a party to the proceedings) to make representations about the application.
- (4) When determining the application, the sheriff must—
 - (a) take into account—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (i) any views of person B of which the sheriff is aware as to whether or not person B wishes the order to be extended, varied or discharged, and
 - (ii) where person B's wishes are as mentioned in subsection (5), any reasons for that view of which the sheriff is aware,
 - (b) take into account any other views of person B in relation to the application of which the sheriff is aware,
- (whether the sheriff is aware of those views, and any reasons for them, as a result of representations made to the sheriff by person B or otherwise).
- (5) The wishes of person B referred to in subsection (4) are—
 - (a) a wish for the order not to be extended,

- (7) Subsection (8) applies where, on an application under subsection (1), the sheriff is considering—

 - (b) varying an order to—
 - (i) include provision which would relate directly to a child, or
 - (ii) remove or alter provision which relates directly to a child.
- (8) The sheriff must—
 - (a) take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to give the child an opportunity to express views in relation to the matter, and
 - (b) take into account any views of the child of which the sheriff is aware (whether as a result of paragraph (a) or otherwise).
- (9) In taking account of views of the child under subsection (8)(b), the sheriff must take into account the child's age and understanding.
- (10) In this section and sections 13 and 14, a reference to extending a domestic abuse protection order includes a reference to extending the period for which a particular provision of the order has effect.

13 Extension, variation or discharge of order: further provision

- (1) On an application under section 12(1) to extend a domestic abuse protection order, the sheriff—
 - (a) may extend the order only if satisfied that it is necessary to do so,
 - (b) must—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (i) vary the order so as to remove any requirement or prohibition which the sheriff is satisfied is no longer necessary,
 - (ii) discharge the order if satisfied that the order is no longer necessary.
- (2) A domestic abuse protection order may—
- (a) be extended for—
 - (i) in the case of an order made under section 8(2), such period not exceeding one month as the sheriff may specify,
 - (ii) in the case of an interim domestic abuse protection order, such period as the sheriff may specify,
 - (b) be extended on more than one occasion.
- (3) But the maximum period for which the order may have effect, including any period for which it is extended, is—

- (a) discharge the order if satisfied that the order is no longer necessary,
 - (b) if the sheriff does not discharge the order, vary the order so as to remove any requirement or prohibition which the sheriff is satisfied is no longer necessary.
- (6) The sheriff may extend, vary or discharge a domestic abuse protection order without the consent of person B (but see section 12(4)).
- (7) In this section, “necessary” means necessary for the purpose of protecting person B from abusive behaviour by person A.

14 Interim extension or variation of order

- (1) The sheriff may, on an application under section 12(1) to extend or vary a domestic abuse protection order, extend or (as the case may be) vary the order on an interim basis pending determination of the application.
- (2) The sheriff may extend or vary the order under subsection (1) only if the sheriff considers, on the balance of convenience, that it is just to do so.
- (3) In deciding whether it is, on the balance of convenience, just, the sheriff must have regard to all the circumstances including any risk that—
 - (a) if the order is not extended or (as the case may be) varied on an interim basis, person A will cause harm to person B,

- (b) in the case of an application to vary an order, if the order is varied on an interim basis, person A will cause harm to person B before the application is determined.
- (4) The sheriff may extend or vary the order on an interim basis—
 - (a) even if the chief constable, person A or person B has not been given such notice of the proceedings as is required by rules of court,
 - (b) without giving the chief constable, person A or person B the opportunity to make representations about the interim extension or (as the case may be) variation of the order,
 - (c) without the consent of person B.
- (5) If the sheriff extends or varies the order on an interim basis in the circumstances described in subsection \(4\)\(a\) or \(b\), the sheriff must hold a hearing in relation to the application under section 12\(1\) as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (6) The extension or variation of an order on an interim basis—
 - (a) has effect for such period as is specified by the sheriff (but see also section 13\(3\)),
 - (b) ceases to have effect, if it has not already done so, on the determination of the application under section 12\(1\).

- (3) Subsections \(4\) to \(6\) apply with respect to proceedings relating to an application made in accordance with this section.
- (4) A sheriff before whom the proceedings are brought may make an order transferring the proceedings to a sheriff of another sheriffdom if satisfied that it would be more appropriate for the proceedings to be dealt with by a sheriff of the other sheriffdom.
- (5) A sheriff may make an order under subsection \(4\)—
 - (a) on the application of a party to the proceedings, or
 - (b) on the sheriff's own initiative.
- (6) Where an order is made under subsection \(4\), a sheriff of the sheriffdom to which the proceedings are to be transferred has jurisdiction and competence to consider and determine the proceedings.
- (7) This section does not affect any power that a sheriff has to decline jurisdiction in any case.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (8) In schedule 1 of the Courts Reform (Scotland) Act 2014 (civil proceedings, etc. in relation to which summary sheriff has competence), in paragraph 2, after subparagraph (f) insert—
- “(g) a domestic abuse protection order under section 8(2) of the Domestic Abuse (Protection) (Scotland) Act 2021,
 - (h) an interim domestic abuse protection order under section 10(1) of that Act.”.

 - (b) where the appeal is remitted to the Court of Session under section 112 of the 2014 Act—
 - (i) the Sheriff Appeal Court, or
 - (ii) the Court of Session.

- (7) The decision appealed against continues in effect until the appeal is disposed of, unless suspended by—
- (a) the Sheriff Appeal Court, or
 - (b) the Court of Session.
- (8) But where the decision appealed against under section 113 of the 2014 Act is a decision to remit the case back to the sheriff, the sheriff may not take any further action in the case until the appeal under that section is disposed of.

17 Offence of breaching order

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person without reasonable excuse—
 - (a) fails to do something which the person is required to do by a domestic abuse protection order or an interim domestic abuse protection order, or
 - (b) does anything which the person is prohibited from doing by such an order.
- (2) A person who commits an offence under subsection \(1\) is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both),

18 Applications under sections 8(1) and 12(1): power to specify additional applicants

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision enabling a person mentioned in subsection (2) to make, in circumstances specified in the regulations, an application—

Relationship with orders regulating contact and residence

19 Relationship of notice or order with order regulating contact or residence

For the avoidance of doubt—

- (a) nothing in a court order which regulates contact with, or the residence of, a child limits the requirements or prohibitions that may be imposed by a notice or order under this Part, and
- (b) accordingly, it is not a defence to a charge of committing an offence under section 7(1) or 17(1) that person A was doing something which person A was entitled to do by virtue of such a court order.

Reporting

20 Reporting on operation of Part

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must as soon as practicable after the end of the reporting period lay before the Scottish Parliament a report setting out, in relation to that period—
