Section I U.K.

Animals and goods other than those subject to official controls at border control posts under section II

Article 44 U.K.

Official controls on animals and goods other than those subject to official controls at border control posts under Section II

1 To ascertain compliance with the rules referred to in Article 1(2), the competent authorities shall perform official controls regularly, on a risk basis and with appropriate frequency, on animals and goods entering [^{F4}Great Britain] and to which Articles 47 and 48 do not apply.

2 On animals and goods referred to in paragraph 1 the appropriate frequency of the official controls shall be determined, taking into account:

- a the risks to human, animal or plant health, animal welfare or, as regards GMOs and plant protection products, also to the environment, associated with different types of animals and goods;
- b any information indicating the likelihood that consumers might be misled, in particular as to the nature, identity, properties, composition, quantity, durability, country of origin or place of provenance, method of manufacture or production of goods;
- c the history of compliance with the requirements established by the rules referred to in Article 1(2) applicable to the animals or goods concerned:
 - (i) of the third country and establishment of origin or place of production, as appropriate;
 - (ii) of the exporter;
 - (iii) of the operator responsible for the consignment;
- d the controls that have already been performed on the animals and goods concerned; and
- e the guarantees that the competent authorities of the third country of origin have given with regard to compliance of the animals and goods with the requirements established by the rules referred to in Article 1(2) or with requirements recognised to be at least equivalent thereto.

3 The official controls provided for in paragraph 1 shall be performed at an appropriate place within the customs territory of the [^{F5}United Kingdom], including:

- a the point of entry into [^{F6}Great Britain];
- b a border control post;
- c the point of release for free circulation in [^{F7}Great Britain];
- d the warehouses and the premises of the operator responsible for the consignment;
- e the place of destination.

4 Notwithstanding paragraphs 1 and 3, the competent authorities at border control posts and other points of entry into [^{F8}Great Britain] shall perform official controls on the following whenever they have reason to believe that their entry into [^{F8}Great Britain] may pose a risk to human, animal or plant health, animal welfare or, as regards GMOs and plant protection products, also to the environment:

- a means of transport, including where empty; and
- b packaging, including pallets.

Article 45 U.K.

Types of official controls on animals and goods other than those subject to official controls at border control posts under Section II

- 1 Where official controls are performed in accordance with Article 44(1), they shall:
- always include a documentary check; and
 - include identity checks and physical checks depending on the risk to human, animal or plant health, animal welfare or, as regards GMOs and plant protection products, also to the environment.
- 2 The competent authorities shall carry out the physical checks referred to in point (b) of paragraph 1 under appropriate conditions allowing investigations to be conducted properly.
- 3 Where the documentary checks, identity checks or physical checks referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article show that animals and goods do not comply with the rules referred to in Article 1(2), Article 66(1), (3) and (5), Articles 67, 68, and 69, Article 71(1) and (2), Article 72(1) and (2), Articles 137 and 138 shall apply.
- 4 The [^{F9}appropriate authority may make regulations] to supplement this Regulation concerning the cases where and the conditions under which competent authorities may request operators to notify the arrival of certain goods entering [^{F10}Great Britain].

Section III U.K.

Action in the event of suspicion of Non-compliance and of Non-compliance of animals and goods entering [^{F86}Great Britain]

Article 65 U.K.

Suspicion of non-compliance and intensified official controls

1 In the event of suspicion of non-compliance of consignments of the categories of animals and goods referred to in Articles 44(1) and 47(1) with the rules referred to in Article 1(2), the competent authorities shall perform official controls in order to confirm or to eliminate that suspicion.

2 Consignments of animals and goods which are not declared by operators to consist of the categories of animals and goods referred to in Article 47(1), shall be subject to official controls by the competent authorities where there is reason to believe that such categories of animals or goods are present in the consignment.

3 The competent authorities shall place the consignments referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 under official detention pending the outcome of the official controls provided for in those paragraphs.

Article 66 U.K.

Measures to be taken in cases of non-compliant consignments entering [^{F90}Great Britain]

1 The competent authorities shall place under official detention any consignment of animals or goods entering [^{F91}Great Britain] which does not comply with the rules referred to in Article 1(2) and shall refuse its entry into [^{F91}Great Britain].

The competent authorities shall isolate or quarantine, as appropriate, any such consignment and the animals belonging to it shall be kept, cared for or treated under appropriate conditions pending any further decision. If possible, the competent authorities shall also take into account the interest of providing special care in respect of certain types of goods.

2 The [^{F92}appropriate authority may make regulations laying] down rules on the practical arrangements for the isolation and quarantine provided for in the second subparagraph of paragraph 1 of this Article. ^{F93} ...

3 The competent authority shall, as regards the consignment referred to in paragraph 1 order, without delay, the operator responsible for the consignment to:

- b re-dispatch the consignment outside [^{F94}Great Britain] in accordance with Article 72(1) and (2); or
- c subject the consignment to special treatment in accordance with Article 71(1) and (2) or to any other measure necessary to ensure compliance with the rules referred to in Article 1(2), and, where appropriate, allocate the consignment for purposes other than those for which it was originally intended.

Any action referred to in points (a), (b) and (c) of the first subparagraph shall be performed in compliance with the rules referred to in Article 1(2), including in particular, as regards consignments of live animals, those intended to spare animals any avoidable pain, distress or suffering.

When the consignment consists of plants, plant products or other objects, points (a), (b) and (c) of the first subparagraph shall be applied either to the consignment or to lots thereof.

Before ordering the operator to take action in accordance with (a), (b) and (c) of the first subparagraph, the competent authority shall hear the operator concerned, unless immediate action is necessary in order to respond to a risk to human, animal or plant health, animal welfare or, as regards the GMOs and plant protection products, also to the environment.

4 Where the competent authority orders the operator to take one or more of the actions laid down in point (a), (b) or (c) of the first subparagraph of paragraph 3, that competent authority may exceptionally authorise the action to be taken in respect of a part of the consignment only, provided that the partial destruction, re-dispatch, special treatment, or other measure:

- a is such as to ensure compliance;
- b does not pose a risk to human, animal or plant health or to animal welfare or, as regards GMOs and plant protection products, also to the environment; and
- c does not disrupt official control operations.

5 The competent authorities shall immediately notify any decision to refuse entry of a consignment as provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article, and any order issued in accordance with paragraphs 3 and 6 of this Article and with Article 67 to:

- ^{F95}a
- b the competent authorities of the other [^{F96}constituent territories of the British Islands];
- c the customs authorities;
- d the competent authorities of the third country of origin; and
- e the operator responsible for the consignment.

That notification shall be performed via the [^{F97}appropriate computerised information management system].

6 If a consignment of the categories of animals or goods referred to in Article 47(1) is not presented for the official controls referred to therein, or is not presented in accordance with the requirements laid down in Articles 50(1) and (3), 56(1), (3) and (4), or with the rules adopted under Article 48, Article 49(4), Article 51, Article 53(1) and Article 58, the competent authorities shall order that such consignment be retained or recalled, and placed under official detention without delay.

Paragraphs 1, 3 and 5 of this Article shall apply to such consignments.

7 The measures referred to in this Article shall be applied at the expense of the operator responsible for the consignment.

Section IV U.K.

Approval of the pre-export controls

Article 73 U.K.

Approval of pre-export controls performed by third countries

- 1 The [F111appropriate authority may make regulations approving.] upon request of a third country, specific pre-export controls that that third country carries out on consignments of animals and goods prior to export to [F112Great Britain] with a view to verifying that the exported consignments satisfy the requirements of the rules referred to in Article 1(2). Such approval shall only apply to consignments originating in the third country concerned and may be granted for one or more categories of animals or goods. ^{F113}...
- 2 The approval provided for in paragraph 1 shall specify:
- a the maximum frequency of official controls to be performed by the competent authorities [F114on] entry of the consignments into [F112Great Britain], where there is no reason to suspect non-compliance with the rules referred to in Article 1(2) or fraudulent or deceptive practices;
 - b the official certificates that must accompany consignments entering [F112Great Britain];

 - d the competent authorities of the third country under the responsibility of which pre-export controls must be performed; and
 - e where appropriate, any delegated body to which those competent authorities may delegate certain tasks. Such delegation may only be approved if it meets the criteria set out in Articles 28 to 33 or equivalent conditions.
- 3 The approval provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article may only be granted to a third country if the evidence available and, where appropriate, a ^{F116}... control performed in accordance with Article 120, demonstrate that the system of official controls in that third country is able to ensure that:
- a the consignments of the animals or goods exported to [^{F112}Great Britain] meet the requirements of the rules referred to in Article 1(2), or equivalent requirements; and
 - b the controls performed in the third country prior to dispatch to [^{F112}Great Britain] are sufficiently effective to replace or reduce the frequency of the documentary, identity checks and physical checks laid down in the rules referred to in Article 1(2).
- 4 The competent authorities or a delegated body specified in the approval shall:
- a be responsible for contacts with [^{F112}Great Britain]; and
 - b ensure that the official certificates referred to in point (b) of paragraph 2 accompany each consignment that is controlled.
- 5 The [^{F117}appropriate authority may make regulations laying] down detailed rules and criteria for approving pre-export controls performed by third countries in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article and for official controls performed by the competent authorities of the [^{F118}constituent territories of Great Britain] on animals and goods subject to the approval referred in that paragraph. ^{F119}...

Section V U.K.

Cooperation between authorities in relation to consignments from third countries

Article 75 U.K.

Cooperation between authorities in relation to consignments entering ^{F126}Great Britain] from third countries

1 Competent authorities, customs authorities and other authorities ^{F127}... dealing with animals and goods entering ^{F128}Great Britain] shall cooperate closely to ensure that the official controls on consignments of animals and goods entering ^{F128}Great Britain] are performed in accordance with the requirements of this Regulation.

For that purpose, competent authorities, customs authorities and other authorities shall:

- a ensure reciprocal access to information which is necessary for the organisation and conduct of their respective activities in relation to animals and goods entering ^{F128}Great Britain]; and
- b ensure the timely exchange of such information, including via electronic means.

2 The ^{F129}appropriate authority may make regulations laying] down rules on uniform cooperation arrangements that competent authorities, customs authorities and other authorities referred to in paragraph 1 are required to put in place to ensure:

- a access by competent authorities to the information necessary for the immediate and complete identification of the consignments of animals and goods entering ^{F128}Great Britain] that are subject to official controls at a border control post in accordance with Article 47(1);
- b the reciprocal update, through exchanges of information or synchronisation of relevant data sets, of information gathered by competent authorities, customs authorities and other authorities on consignments of animals and goods entering ^{F128}Great Britain]; and
- c the swift communication of decisions taken by such authorities on the basis of the information referred to in points (a) and (b).

Article 76 U.K.

Cooperation between authorities in relation to consignments not subject to specific controls at borders

1 Paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 of this Article shall apply in the case of consignments of animals and goods other than those subject to controls at entry into ^[F131]Great Britain] as required by Article 47(1) of this Regulation and for which a customs declaration for release for free circulation has been made in accordance with point 12 of Article 5 of Regulation (EU) No 952/2013 and Articles 158 to 202 of that Regulation ^[F132]or with any corresponding provisions under the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018].

2 Customs authorities shall suspend release for free circulation when they have reason to believe that the consignment may present a risk to human, animal or plant health, animal welfare or, as regards GMOs and plant protection products, also to the environment, and immediately notify the competent authorities of such suspension.

3 A consignment whose release for free circulation has been suspended pursuant to paragraph 2 shall be released if, within three working days of the suspension of release, the competent authorities have not requested customs authorities to continue the suspension or have informed customs authorities that no risk is present.

4 Where the competent authorities consider that a risk to human, animal or plant health, animal welfare or, as regards GMOs and plant protection products, also to the environment, is present;

- a they shall request the customs authorities not to release the consignment for free circulation and to include the following statement on the commercial invoice accompanying the consignment and on any other relevant accompanying document or the relevant electronic equivalents:

Product presents a risk — release for free circulation not authorised — Regulation ^X1 2017/625];

- b no other customs procedure shall be permitted without the consent of the competent authorities; and
