4 Local authority duty to make other travel arrangements

- (1) This section applies in relation to a child of compulsory school age if—
- the child is receiving education or training at a relevant place,
 - the child is ordinarily resident in a local authority's area, and
 - the local authority consider that travel arrangements are necessary to facilitate the attendance of the child each day at the relevant place where the child receives education or training.
- (2) The local authority must make suitable travel arrangements to facilitate the attendance of the child each day at the relevant places where the child receives education or training. But this duty is subject to the provisions of section 5.
- (3) A local authority must not charge a child or a parent who is an individual for any travel arrangements made in accordance with subsection (2).
- (4) Travel arrangements made in accordance with subsection (2) may include the payment of the whole, but not part, of a child's travel expenses.
- (5) In considering whether travel arrangements are suitable for the purposes of this section, a local authority must have regard in particular to—
- the assessment they carry out in accordance with section 2(2);
 - the transport arrangements they are under a duty to make for the child under section 3;
 - the age of the child;
 - any disability or learning difficulty of the child;
 - the nature of the routes which the child could reasonably be expected to take.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/09/2021.

- (6) For the purposes of this section, travel arrangements are not suitable if—
- (a) they cause unreasonable levels of stress for the child,
 - (b) they take an unreasonable amount of time, or
 - (c) they are unsafe.
- (7) In considering whether travel arrangements are necessary for the purposes of this section a local authority—
- (a) must have regard in particular to the matters specified in subsection (5);
 - (b) may have regard in particular to whether or not the child is attending the nearest suitable relevant place to the child's place of ordinary residence.
- (8) Subsection (7)(b) applies if—
- (a) the child is not looked after by a local authority, and
 - (b) arrangements have been made by the local authority for enabling the child to attend a suitable relevant place nearer to the child's place of ordinary residence.
- (9) For the purposes of this section, a relevant place is suitable for a child if the education or training provided there is suitable, having regard to the age, ability and aptitudes of the child and any learning difficulties he or she may have.

- (3) All six of the following conditions apply to any learner who is a registered pupil at a relevant school.
- (4) The first, third and fourth of the following conditions apply to any learner who is not a registered pupil at a relevant school.
- (5) The first condition is that before any decision is taken to withdraw travel arrangements—
 - (a) the learner and the parent of the learner are given the opportunity to make representations, and
 - (b) those representations are considered by the local authority.
- (6) The second condition is that the head teacher of the relevant school at which the learner is a registered pupil—
 - (a) is consulted about the decision to withdraw travel arrangements; and
 - (b) is given notice of the decision at least 24 hours before the withdrawal takes effect.
- (7) The third condition is that the decision to withdraw travel arrangements is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (8) The fourth condition is that the local authority gives notice of the withdrawal of travel arrangements to the learner's parent at least 24 hours before the withdrawal takes effect.
- (9) The fifth condition is that the period of withdrawal does not exceed 10 consecutive school days.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/09/2021.

Changes to legislation: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (10) The sixth condition is that the period of withdrawal would not result in the learner having travel arrangements withdrawn for more than 30 school days in the school year in which the withdrawal takes effect.
- (11) In determining whether a decision to withdraw travel arrangements is reasonable for the purposes of subsection (7), the following matters in particular must be taken into account—
- (a) whether the period of withdrawal is proportionate in the circumstances of the case,
 - (b) any special circumstances relevant to the withdrawal of travel arrangements which are known to the local authority (or of which the authority ought to be aware) including in particular—
 - (i) the learner's age,
 - (ii) any [^{F6}learning difficulty] the learner may have,
 - (iii) any disability the learner may have,
 - (iv) whether the learner would lose an opportunity to take a public examination, and
 - (v) whether suitable alternative travel arrangements can reasonably be made by the learner's parent.
- (12) A notice under subsection (6) or (8) must be in writing and specify—
- (a) the period for which travel arrangements are to be withdrawn, and
 - (b) the authority's reasons for withdrawal of the travel arrangements.
- (13) For the purposes of this section and section 17, a “relevant school” means—
- (a) a maintained school,
 - (b) a pupil referral unit, or
 - (c) a non-maintained special school.
- (14) Regulations may—
- (a) amend or repeal either or both of subsections (9) and (10);
 - (b) make provision for reviews of decisions under subsection (2);
 - (c) make provision for appeals from decisions under subsection (2).
- (15) Regulations under subsection (14)(c) may in particular—
- (a) specify the categories of person who may appeal;
 - (b) specify the circumstances in which appeals may be made;
 - (c) provide for the constitution of appeals panels;
 - (d) provide for appeal procedures;
 - (e) make provision about the effect of appeal decisions;
 - (f) provide for the payment of allowances to members of appeals panels;
 - (g) require the provision of information about appeals.

General

24 General interpretation

(1) In this Measure—

“academic year” (“blwyddyn academaidd”) means any period from 1 August to 31 July;

“disability” (“anabledd”) and “disabled person” (“person anabl”) have the same meaning as in section 1 of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (c. 50);

“education” (“addysg”) does not include higher education;

“learning difficulty” (“anhawster dysgu”) in respect of a person means—

- (a) a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of persons of the same age, or
- (b) a disability which either prevents or hinders that person from using facilities of a kind provided at relevant places, but a person is not to be taken as having a learning difficulty solely because the language (or form of the language) in which the person is taught or will be taught is different from a language (or form of a language) which has at any time been spoken in the person's home;

“local authority” (“awdurdod lleol”) means a [^{F23}local authority] in Wales; but in any reference to a child looked after by a local authority it means a council of a county or county borough in Wales exercising social services functions within the meaning of [^{F24}the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014.]

“maintained school” (“ysgol gynhelir”) means a community, foundation or voluntary school, a community or foundation special school or a maintained nursery school;

“non-maintained special school” (“ysgol arbennig nas cynhelir”) means a school approved under section 342 of the Education Act 1996;

“nursery education” (“addysg feithrin”) means education suitable for children who have not attained compulsory school age;

“prescribed” (“rhagnodi”) means prescribed in regulations;

“regulations” (“rheoliadau”) means regulations made by the Welsh Ministers;

“work experience” (“profiad gwaith”) means work experience arranged for—

- (a) a registered pupil of a maintained school or a pupil referral unit, or
- (b) a student enrolled at an institution within the further education sector, by, or on behalf of, the governing body of the relevant educational institution.

(2) References in this Measure to a child who is looked after by a local authority have the same meaning as they have in [^{F25}section 74 of the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014].

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the Education Act 1996 and the provisions of this Measure are to be read as if those provisions were contained in the Education Act 1996.

(4) Where an expression is given for the purposes of any provision of this Measure a meaning different from that given to it for the purposes of the Education Act 1996, the
