

2013 CHAPTER 10

Part 2

Marine Planning

Marine plans

Duty to keep relevant matters under review

7.—(1) The Department must keep under review the matters which may be expected to affect the exercise of its functions relating to—

- (a) the identification of areas which are to be marine plan areas, and
- (b) the preparation, adoption, review, amendment or withdrawal of marine plans for those areas.

The reference in paragraph (b) to review is a reference to the functions of the Department under section 9.

(2) The matters include—

- (a) the physical, environmental, social, cultural and economic characteristics of the Northern Ireland inshore region and of the living resources which the region supports;
- (b) the purposes for which any part of the region is used;
- (c) the communications, energy and transport systems of the region;
- (d) any other considerations which may be expected to affect those matters.

(3) The matters also include—

- (a) any changes which could reasonably be expected to occur in relation to any such matter;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marine Act (Northern Ireland) 2013, Section 7. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the effect that any such changes may have in relation to the sustainable development of the region, its natural resources, or the living resources dependent on the region.
- (4) The reference in subsection (2)(a) to the cultural characteristics of the Northern Ireland inshore region includes a reference to characteristics of that region which are of a historic or archaeological nature.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marine Act (Northern Ireland) 2013, Section 7.
