Licensing of Wild Game Processing Facilities

Right of appeal

5.—(1) Any person who is aggrieved by the refusal or revocation of a licence or by any condition of a licence may appeal to a magistrates' court against the decision.

(2) Article 37(2) and (3) of the Order shall have effect in relation to an appeal against a condition of a licence as they have effect in relation to an appeal under that Article.

(3) Without prejudice to Articles 8 to 12 of the Order, where the Department has refused a licence under regulation 3 or revoked the licence of any premises under regulation 4, a person who, immediately before such refusal or revocation has been lawfully using them as a wild game processing facility for the dressing or cutting up of wild game, the flesh of which is subsequently consigned or sold for consignment to relevant EEA State for human consumption, may continue to use them for that purpose, subject to any reasonable condition imposed by the Department for the protection of public health, until the time for appealing has expired and, if an appeal is lodged, until the appeal is finally disposed of or abandoned.
