

SCHEDULE D5

Re-employed pensioners

Part II

Combined Benefits

New entitlement to single pension

14. In relation to a person who—

(a) before 1st April 1972—

(i) became entitled to an annual pension under the former regulations, and

(ii) again became a contributory employee, and

(b) has not since he again became a contributory employee had a disqualifying break in service, this Part has effect as if references to the first retirement pension were references to that annual pension and references to a retirement grant were references to a retiring allowance under the former regulations.
