Notification of holdings

4.—(1) A person who intends to keep a pig on a holding shall inform the Department in writing beforehand, giving details of—

- (a) the name and address of the keeper of the pig;
- (b) the address or an accurate description of the location of the holding;
- (c) the name and address of the owner and, if different, the occupier of the holding;
- (d) the address or an accurate description of the location of the premises on the holding on which the pig is intended to be kept; and
- (e) any other species of animals on the holding and any numbers or codes used to identify any cattle, sheep, goats or poultry on the holding.

(2) A notification made to the Department under article 3 of the Aujeszky's Disease Order (Northern Ireland) 1994 or paragraph 3 and Annex 1 of the Schedule to the Aujeszky's Disease Scheme Order (Northern Ireland) 1994(5) shall, notwithstanding the revocation of those Orders, be regarded as a notification for the purpose of paragraph (1).

(3) On receiving notification under paragraph (1) the Department may allocate to the keeper a holding code.

(4) A person shall not move a pig onto a holding until a holding code has been allocated.

(5) A person shall not move a pig to different premises on a holding until the address or an accurate description of those premises has been notified in writing or by electronic communication to the Department.

(6) If there is any change to the information notified pursuant to paragraphs (1) or (2) or if the keeper stops keeping pigs on any premises on the holding, the keeper shall notify the Department in writing or by electronic communication within 7 days of the change.

PART 2

HOLDING REGISTERS

Holding register

5.—(1) A keeper shall maintain a holding register in which the following information shall be recorded in chronological order—

- (a) in the case of births, the number of pigs born and the date of identification, within 48 hours of the application of the identification mark;
 - (b) in the case of the replacement of an identification mark with a different identification mark, the date of replacement, the old identification mark (if known), and the new identification mark, within 48 hours of the replacement;
 - (c) in the case of movements onto or off a holding, the date of movement, the number of pigs moved and the serial number of the movement document, within 48 hours of the movement;
 - (d) in the case of the death of identified pigs, the date of discovery of the death and the number of pigs that have died, within 48 hours of the discovery of the death; and
 - (e) the total number of pigs on the holding once per year.
- (2) A keeper shall keep the holding register for 3 years from the last date of entry.

Commencement Information

I5 Art. 5 in operation at 19.3.2012, see art. 1

Notification of pigs on a holding

6. A keeper shall notify the Department of the total number of pigs on the holding by such a date as the Department may from time to time determine and in such form and in such manner as the Department may specify.

Commencement Information

I6 Art. 6 in operation at 19.3.2012, see art. 1

PART 3

IDENTIFICATION

Ear tags and tattoos

7.—(1) An ear tag shall be—

- (a) easy to read during the pig's lifetime;
- (b) made of either metal or plastic or a combination of metal and plastic;
- (c) tamper-resistant;
- (d) incapable of re-use;
- (e) designed to remain attached to the pig without harming it;

- (f) printed with the keeper's holding code.
- (2) A person shall not sell or supply an ear tag except in accordance with the conditions of a licence issued by the Department.
- (3) A tattoo shall be applied either by tattoo forceps, in which case it shall be on an ear, or by slap-marking equipment in which case it shall be on the shoulder.
- (4) As an alternative to applying a tattoo by methods referred to in paragraph (3) a keeper may apply a tattoo to a shoulder of a pig by means of equipment which uses compressed air to drive the tattooing pins into the skin of the pig.
- (5) A tattoo shall be easy to read during the pig's lifetime.
- (6) A tattoo shall bear a holding code or in the case of a pig being moved direct to slaughter, a tattoo may bear a holding code or curer mark.

I7 Art. 7 in operation at 19.3.2012, see art. 1

Identification of pigs

- 8.—(1) Subject to paragraph (6), a person shall not move a pig off a holding unless it is identified in accordance with this article.
- (2) A pig shall be identified with an ear tag bearing a holding code and an individual identification number by the time it reaches 6 months of age or before it is moved off the holding, whichever is earlier.
- (3) Paragraph (2) does not apply in the case of a pig that is kept for meat production and which is under the age of 6 months. Any such pig may be identified with an ear tag or tattoo.
- (4) When an individual identification number is applied to a pig, the same number shall not be applied to any other pig on the same holding.
- (5) An identification mark applied on a holding shall bear the holding code or curer mark allocated to the keeper of that holding.
- (6) Paragraphs (2) to (5) do not apply to a pig which was identified in accordance with the Aujeszky's Disease Order (Northern Ireland) 1994.

Commencement Information

I8 Art. 8 in operation at 19.3.2012, see art. 1

Removing or defacing an identification mark

- 9.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a person shall not remove or deface an identification mark except in accordance with the conditions of a licence issued by the Department.
- (2) A person may remove an ear tag if the welfare of the pig requires urgent removal.

Commencement Information

I9 Art. 9 in operation at 19.3.2012, see art. 1

Status: Point in time view as at 31/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Pigs (Records, Identification and Movement) Order (Northern Ireland) 2012. (See end of Document for details)

Replacement of an identification mark

10.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a person shall not replace an identification mark applied under this Order or the Aujeszky's Disease Order (Northern Ireland) 1994 except under the conditions of a licence issued by the Department.

(2) A keeper shall replace an identification mark if it has—

- (a) become illegible;
- (b) been removed for welfare reasons; or
- (c) been lost.

(3) A keeper shall replace an identification mark to which paragraph (2) applies as soon as possible following discovery and in any event within 28 days of the discovery and shall either—

- (a) apply a new identification mark and cross-refer that new identification mark with the original identification mark (if known) in the register kept in accordance with article 5; or
- (b) if the original identification mark was applied on the holding, the keeper may apply an identical identification mark.

Additional requirements for movements of pigs to a show

12. A person shall not move a pig off a holding—

- (a) to a show; or
- (b) for breeding purposes with the intention of returning the pig to the holding from which it was moved, unless it is identified with an eartag bearing a holding code and individual identification number.

Commencement Information

I12 Art. 12 in operation at 19.3.2012, see art. 1

Identification of pigs moved onto a holding from outside the European Union

13.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3) a keeper importing a pig from outside the European Union shall apply an ear tag to the pig containing the following information, in the following order—

- (a) the holding code of the holding into which the imported pig is introduced;
- (b) an individual identification number;
- (c) any other information, if the keeper wishes to apply such information; and
- (d) the letter “F”.

(2) The ear tag shall be applied to the pig within 30 days of its arrival at the holding of destination and, in any event, before it is moved off that holding.

(3) If a new identification mark is applied, a keeper shall cross-refer the new identification mark with the original identification mark (if known) in the register kept in accordance with article 5.

(4) Paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) shall not apply in the case of a pig which is moved directly to a slaughterhouse and is slaughtered within 30 days of arrival in Northern Ireland.

Commencement Information

I13 Art. 13 in operation at 19.3.2012, see art. 1

PART 4

MOVEMENTS

Movement of pigs

14.—(1) A person transporting pigs off a holding shall carry a movement document signed by the keeper which specifies—

- (a) the name, address and the holding code of the holding of departure;
- (b) the name, address and the holding code of the holding of destination;
- (c) the date of the movement;
- (d) the number of pigs that the document covers;
- (e) the most recently applied identification mark of each pig being moved; and
- (f) in the case of a movement from a market, the lot numbers of the pigs being moved.

(2) The movement document shall be given to the keeper of the holding of destination, who shall—

- (a) complete it with their name, address, holding code, their signature and date of arrival of the pig on the holding of destination; and
- (b) keep it for a period of 3 years with the holding register.

(3) In the case of a pig moved onto a holding from a place outside Northern Ireland the keeper shall, within 7 days of the pig arriving on that holding, send a copy of the movement document to the Divisional Veterinary Office.

(4) The keeper of the holding of departure shall —

- (a) send a copy of the movement document to the Divisional Veterinary Office within 7 days of the pigs leaving the holding, except in the case of a movement to a market, slaughterhouse or show; and

Status: Point in time view as at 31/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Pigs (Records, Identification and Movement) Order (Northern Ireland) 2012. (See end of Document for details)

(b) keep a copy of the movement document for a period of 3 years with the holding register.

(5) In the case of a movement to or from a market, a slaughterhouse or a show, the operator shall send a copy of the movement document to the Divisional Veterinary Office on the day of the movement to which it relates, or where this is not practicable on the next working day.

(6) Where the Department has authorised a person to notify the movement of a pig by means of electronic communication, that person may electronically transmit the information required under paragraphs (4)(a) and (5) to the centralised computer database, within the time periods specified in those paragraphs.

(7) The centralised computer database means the database operated by the Department for the purposes of Article 3 of the Directive.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order implements Council Directive 2008/71/EC on the identification and registration of pigs (O.J. No. L 213 8.08.2008, p.31).

Part 1 of the Order deals with authorisations and notification of holdings. Any person who keeps pigs on a holding is required to notify certain particulars to the Department. On receiving a notification the Department may allocate a holding code (article 4(3)).

Part 2 of the Order makes provision for every keeper to keep an up-to-date holding register and requires each keeper to inform the Department of the number of pigs on the holding (articles 5 and 6).

Part 3 of the Order sets out some general provisions in relation to the application of identification devices (article 7).

Article 8 makes provision for the application of identification marks to pigs.

Article 9 prohibits the removal or defacement of identification marks applied under article (7).

Article 10 sets out provisions for the removal or replacement of identification marks on pigs where they have become lost or illegible.

Articles 11 to 13 impose additional requirements for the identification of pigs destined for export, movement to shows or being imported from a country outside the European Union.

Part 4 makes provision for a movement document to accompany a pig between holdings (article 14).

Part 5 of the Order makes provision for record keeping requirements for pigs at markets (article 15), slaughterhouses (article 16) and shows (article 17).

Part 6 of the Order contains miscellaneous provisions including article 18 which provides for walking licences for pet pigs. Article 19 specifies the conditions whereby the Department may restrict the movement of a pig off a holding or restrict the movement of pigs onto or off a holding. Article 20 contains transitional and saving provisions. Article 21 revokes the Animals (Records) Order (Northern Ireland) 1997 and amends the Sales, Markets and Lairs Order (Northern Ireland) 1975.

Status:

Point in time view as at 31/12/2020.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Pigs (Records, Identification and Movement) Order (Northern Ireland) 2012.
