“Notice for further particulars

3.—(1) In any case to which Rule 2(4) does not apply, the defendant may require the plaintiff, by notice in writing served within 14 days after service of the notice of intention to defend, to furnish further particulars of claim within 14 days of service of the notice for particulars.

(2) In any case to which Rule 2(4) does not apply, the plaintiff may require the defendant by notice in writing served within 14 days after service of the particulars of claim or where no notice for further particulars of claim has been served, within 14 days of service of the notice of intention to defend, to furnish particulars of any defence, set off or counterclaim within 14 days of service of the notice for particulars.

(3) Where under paragraphs (1) and (2) particulars have been duly required and—

- (a) have not been furnished within the time specified in the notice; or
- (b) if furnished, are in the opinion of the judge or district judge insufficient;

the judge or district judge may make such order as he thinks just including, in particular, an order that the proceedings be dismissed or, as the case may be, an order that the notice of intention to defend be struck out and judgment be entered accordingly.

(4) Any costs occasioned by service of a notice under paragraph (1) or (2) shall be at the discretion of the judge or district judge as the case may be.

(5) Where a defendant has served a third party notice this Rule shall, with any necessary modifications, apply as if the third party were a defendant and a plaintiff.

(6) In this Rule the words “plaintiff” and “defendant” respectively shall include a plaintiff and defendant to a counterclaim.”.

7. In Order 6A, rule 5(1) for “£5,000” substitute “£10,000”.

8. In Order 8, rule 3—

(a) in paragraph (1A) before “A certificate” insert “Subject to paragraph (1B),”;

(b) after paragraph (1A) insert—

“(1B) The plaintiff must notify the defendant in writing of his intention to lodge the certificate of readiness no later than 14 days prior to lodging the certificate.”.

9. For Order 14 rule 1 substitute—

“General procedure

1.—(1) Where by any enactment or by direction of the court any application in the course of an action or matter is expressly or by implication authorised to be made to the court or to the judge or to the district judge or chief clerk, the following provisions shall apply—

(a) the application shall be made either in or out of court and either ex parte or on notice in accordance with the terms of the relevant enactment or direction;

(b) in the absence of any express provision to the contrary the application shall be determined by the judge (or district judge as the case may be) without a hearing, unless—

(i) either party requests a hearing; or

(ii) the judge (or district judge as the case may be) otherwise directs;

(c) where either party requests that the application be dealt with by way of hearing, the party shall specify the reasons;

(d) a party may within 14 days of service of the application, object to the application being determined without a hearing, by filing in court, a notice in writing specifying the reasons;

(e) an objection made under sub-paragraph (d) shall be served on the other party;

(f) unless an objection to the application being dealt with without a hearing is received within 14 days of service of the application on the other party, it will be assumed that the other party consents to the application being determined without a hearing (unless the judge or district judge otherwise directs);

(g) where a request for a hearing under sub-paragraph (b) or an objection under sub-paragraph (d) is received, the application or objection shall be placed before the judge or district judge for consideration who may—

(i) determine the application without a hearing and make such order as he considers just; or

(ii) direct that the matter be listed for a hearing;

(h) where an application is made on notice—

(i) the notice shall be in writing and shall be served on the other party and filed in the Office before the beginning of a period of two days ending on the day of hearing of the application unless the judge or district judge or chief clerk dispenses with notice or gives leave for shorter notice; and

- (ii) the party serving the notice shall be responsible for ascertaining that the judge or district judge or, as the case may be, the chief clerk will be available to hear the application on the day, at the time and in the place for which notice is served;
- (i) where a district judge or chief clerk has made an order to which this order applies, any party may make an application to the judge on notice to vary or rescind the order and on determination of the application the judge may—
 - (i) confirm;
 - (ii) vary;
 - (iii) rescind the order; or
 - (iv) make any other order as he thinks fit.
- (2) The jurisdiction of the court to determine any application in the course of an action or matter—
 - (a) may, by direction or with the consent of the judge, be exercised by the district judge unless there is a provision to the contrary in any enactment;
 - (b) shall, in an action which is within the jurisdiction of the district judge, be exercised by the district judge.”.

10. In Order 14 for rule 6 substitute—

“Application for interim injunction, etc

6.—(1) Where any party or intending party desires, before the hearing, an immediate order—

- (a) in the nature of an injunction; or
- (b) for the appointment of a receiver; or
- (c) for taking any accounts; or
- (d) for making any inquiries;

he may apply to the judge or district judge on affidavit setting forth the facts rendering the order immediately necessary and the judge or district judge may make such order as he thinks fit.

(2) Where a district judge makes an interim order under paragraph (1) above, the application must be brought before a judge within 7 days of that interim order being made.”.

11. In Order 15—

- (a) in rule 1—
 - (i) for paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) substitute—

“1.—(1) Within 14 days of further particulars being furnished in accordance with Order 5 rule 3(2) there shall, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this Order, be discovery by any party to any proceedings of the documents which are or have been in their possession, custody or power relating to any matter in question in the proceedings.

(2) Nothing in this Order shall be taken as preventing the parties agreeing to dispense with or limit the discovery of documents which they would otherwise be required to make to each other.

(2A) Subject to the provisions of this rule, the parties to proceedings must make discovery by exchanging lists of documents in Form 68 which are or have been in his possession, custody or power relating to any matter in question between them in the proceedings.

(2B) Without prejudice to any directions given by the district judge under Order 11 rule 2B, paragraph (2A) shall not apply in third party proceedings, including proceedings under that Order involving fourth or subsequent parties.

(2C) Unless the chief clerk, judge or district judge otherwise orders, in any proceedings where liability is admitted or where the proceedings arise out of an accident on land due to a collision or apprehended collision involving a vehicle, discovery shall be limited to disclosure of any documents in relation to special damage.

(2D) Paragraph (2A) shall not be taken as requiring a defendant in proceedings for the recovery of any penalty recoverable by virtue of any enactment to make discovery of any documents.

(2E) Paragraphs (2C) and (2D) shall apply in relation to a counterclaim as they apply in relation to any proceedings.

(2F) On the application to the chief clerk of any party required by this rule to make discovery of documents, the chief clerk, or where the application has been referred to the judge or district judge in chambers, the judge or district judge may—

- (a) order that the parties to the action or any of them shall make discovery under paragraph (2A) of such documents or classes of documents only, or as to such only of the matters in question, as may be specified in the order; or
- (b) if satisfied that discovery by all or any of the parties is not necessary, or not necessary at that stage of the action, order that there shall be no discovery of documents by any or all of the parties either at all or at that stage; and the chief clerk, judge or district judge shall make such an order and so far as he is of the opinion that discovery is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the proceedings or for saving costs.

(2G) An application for an order under paragraph (2F) may be made to the chief clerk ex parte without notice and before the expiration of the period within which, by virtue of this rule, discovery of documents in the action is required to be made.

(3) If any party fails to comply with paragraphs (1) and (2A) the other party may apply to the chief clerk ex parte without notice for an order directing the other party to make discovery.”;

- (ii) omit paragraph (4);
 - (iii) in paragraph (5) for “in Form 68B” substitute “under paragraph (3)”;
 - (iv) omit paragraph (10);
- (b) for rule 12 substitute—

“Discovery by interrogatories

12.—(1) Any party to any proceedings may in accordance with the following provisions of this Part serve on any other party interrogatories relating to any matter in question between the applicant and that other party in the proceedings which are necessary either—

- (a) for disposing fairly of the proceedings; or
- (b) for saving costs.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (1), a party may apply to the judge or district judge as the case may be on notice for an order giving him leave to serve on any other party interrogatories relating to any matter in question between the applicant and that other party in the proceedings.

(3) A proposed interrogatory which does not relate to such a matter as is mentioned in paragraph (1) shall be disallowed notwithstanding that it might be admissible in oral cross-examination of a witness.

(4) Interrogatories shall be answered on affidavit (unless the judge or district judge directs otherwise) and the affidavit shall be delivered to the applicant within the time specified in the—

- (a) interrogatories (not being less than 21 days from the date of service); or
- (b) order.

(5) In this Part—

“interrogatories without order” means interrogatories served under paragraph (1);

“ordered interrogatories” means interrogatories served under paragraph (2) or interrogatories which are required to be answered pursuant to an order made on an application under rule 12A(2) and, where such an order is made, the interrogatories shall not, unless the judge or district judge orders otherwise, be treated as interrogatories without order for the purposes of rule 12A(1).

12.—(6) Unless the context otherwise requires, the provisions of this Part apply to both interrogatories without order and ordered interrogatories.”;

(c) after rule 12 insert—

“Interrogatories without order

12A.—(1) Interrogatories without order may be served on a party not more than twice.

(2) A party on whom interrogatories without order are served may, within 14 days of service of the interrogatories, apply to the judge or district judge for the interrogatories to be varied or withdrawn and, on any such application, the judge or district judge may make such order as he thinks fit (including an order that the party who served the interrogatories shall not serve further interrogatories without order).

(3) Interrogatories without order shall not be served on the Crown.

Ordered interrogatories

12B.—(1) Where an application is made for leave to serve interrogatories, a copy of the proposed interrogatories shall be served with the notice of application and filed in the Office before the beginning of a period of two days ending on the day of hearing of the application.

(2) In deciding whether to give leave to serve interrogatories the judge or district judge shall take into account any offer made by the party to be interrogated to give particulars or to make admissions or to produce documents relating to any matter in question and whether or not interrogatories without order have been administered.

(3) If an order is made granting leave to serve interrogatories it shall be drawn up by the applicant in Form 69A and shall be signed and sealed by the chief clerk who shall file the order and issue a certificate copy to the applicant or his solicitor for service.”.

12. In Order 19 (Assessors) for rule 5 (Remuneration) substitute—

“Remuneration

5. Every assessor shall receive for each half day’s attendance a fee of—

- (a) £32.96 as from 25 February 2013; or
- (b) £33.60 as from 25 February 2014

together with such sum for his expenses as the Judge or district judge may order.”.

13. In Order 21, in rule 2(2)(b) for “Rule 36” substitute “Rule 39”.

14. In Order 24—

- (a) in rule 2B(1) for “any medical report or other accompanying or supplemental document served or disclosed pursuant to the provisions of this Order” substitute “any report or other accompanying or supplemental document served or disclosed pursuant to the provisions of Part III or rule 2D of this Order”;
- (b) in rule 2B(2) omit the word “medical”;
- (c) after rule 2C insert—

“Disclosure of evidence in clinical negligence actions

2D.—(1) For the purposes of this rule—

- (a) “clinical negligence” means negligence in connection with the diagnosis of any illness, or the care or treatment of any patient, in consequence of any act or omission to act by a person employed or engaged for such purposes; and
- (b) “medical evidence” means—
 - (i) the evidence contained in any medical report or other accompanying or supplemental document emanating from the maker of the report which is intended by him to accompany or supplement such report and includes surgical and radiological evidence and any ancillary expert or technical evidence; and
 - (ii) any other evidence of a medical, surgical or radiological nature which a party proposes to adduce at the trial by means of oral testimony.

(2) In actions grounded on an allegation of clinical negligence—

- (a) where the plaintiff proposes to adduce at the hearing evidence (other than medical evidence) obtained from any expert for the purpose of assisting the judge or district judge as the case may be in assessing damages, he shall—
 - (i) insofar as he then has in his possession or power that evidence, disclose it to the other party or parties within 14 days after service upon him of the defendant’s notice of intention to defend; and
 - (ii) insofar as he thereafter obtains any such evidence before the date of hearing, disclose it to the defendant and any other party or parties within 21 days of receiving it and in any case before the hearing.”;

(d) in rule 9(7)(a)—

- (i) for “£12.65” substitute “the fee set out in paragraph (7A)”;

- (ii) omit “£17.82”;
- (e) after rule 9(7) insert—
 - “(7A) The sum to be paid or tendered under paragraph (7)(a) to –
 - (a) a police officer is-
 - (i) £12.90 as from 25 February 2013; or
 - (ii) £13.16 as from 25 February 2014; and
 - (b) any other person is-
 - (i) £18.18 as from 25 February 2013; or
 - (ii) £18.53 as from 25 February 2014.”;
 - (f) for Part III substitute the Part set out in Schedule 1.
- 15. In Order 33 (Decrees), in rule 10 for paragraph (6) substitute—
 - “(6) Where the decree is such as is referred to in paragraph (4), the statement shall specify the total amount of the instalments (if any) paid to the date of the affidavit lodged under paragraph (3) and the decree shall issue for the whole amount remaining due on foot of the decree after deducting such instalments (if any) as have been paid thereunder as shown in the said affidavit but with the addition to the costs therein stated of a sum of-
 - (a) £7.49 as from 25 February 2013; or
 - (b) £7.63 as from 25 February 2014
 as the costs and outlay of the said affidavit.”.
- 16. In Order 55, rule 11(1)—
 - (a) in sub-paragraph (b) omit “or”;
 - (b) after sub-paragraph (b) insert—
 - “(ba) claimed diffuse mesothelioma or any asbestosis related disease; or”;
 - (c) in sub-paragraph (c)(vi) omit “or”;
 - (d) after sub-paragraph (c)(vii) insert—
 - “(viii) the Consumer Credit Act 1974; or
 - (ix) the Special Educational Needs and Disability (Northern Ireland) Order 2005.”.
- 17. In Order 55, rule 11 omit paragraphs (4) and (5).
- 18. In Order 55 for rule 17 substitute—
 - “Services fee for postal service
 - 17. Where service of a civil bill or other document has been effected by post under Rule 3(2)(a) of Order 6, the solicitor shall be entitled to a fee inclusive of outlay in lieu of the fees payable to process servers as follows-
 - (a) £2.78 as from 25 February 2013; or
 - (b) £2.84 as from 25 February 2014.”.
- 19. In Order 55, rule 19(1)(a) for “£5,000” substitute “£10,000”.
- 20. In Form 2, for “Judge” substitute “judge or district judge”.
- 21. In Form 19, for “£15,000” substitute “£30,000”.

SCHEDULE 1

Rule 14(f)

“PART III
MEDICAL EVIDENCE

I. PRELIMINARY

Application and interpretation

35.—(1) This Part of this Order applies to all actions in respect of personal injury or death.

(2) For the purposes of this Order—

“medical evidence” means—

- (a) the evidence contained in any medical report or other accompanying or supplemental document as specified in rule 44 and includes surgical and radiological evidence and any ancillary expert or technical evidence; and
- (b) any other evidence of a medical, surgical or radiological nature which a party proposes to adduce at the hearing by means of oral testimony; and the expressions “medical expert” and “medical examination” shall be construed accordingly; and “clinical negligence” means negligence in connection with the diagnosis of any illness, or the care or treatment of any patient, in consequence of any act or omission to act by a person employed or engaged for such purposes.

Restrictions on medical evidence

36. No party shall, except with the leave of the judge or district judge as the case may be or on consent, adduce medical evidence at the hearing the contents of which he has not disclosed to the other parties in accordance with rules.

Failure to comply with rules

37. Where any party fails to comply with any of the provisions of this order, the judge or district judge may stay the action or strike out that party’s defence, as the case may be, or make such order as the judge or district judge considers appropriate.

PART IV
GENERAL RULES

Application

38. This Part of this Order applies to all proceedings for damages in respect of personal injury or death except actions grounded on an allegation of clinical negligence.

Medical report to be served on the defendant

39. The plaintiff shall serve on the defendant medical evidence substantiating the personal injuries alleged in the civil bill within 14 days after service upon him of the defendant's notice of intention to defend.

Medical examination of another party; disclosure of report

40. Any party who has been afforded medical examination of another party shall disclose to that other party any medical evidence resulting from such examination within 21 days of receiving it and in any case before the first day of the hearing.

Disclosure of medical evidence

41. Subject to rule 39, where a party proposes to adduce at the hearing medical evidence obtained from any medical expert, he shall disclose all relevant medical evidence obtained at any time from that medical expert to the relevant party or parties in accordance with rule 36 or within 21 days of receiving it and in any case before the first day of the hearing.

Evidence received during the hearing

42. Where a party obtains on or after the first day of the hearing any report of evidence of the kind mentioned in rule 39 or 40, he shall disclose that report or evidence to the relevant party or parties immediately.

Party to furnish name and address of doctor, etc.

43. Any party to an action shall furnish to any other party on demand the name and address of any medical practitioner or the name of any hospital from whom or at which he received any medical or surgical treatment material to the action.

Mode of disclosure

44.—(1) A party serving or disclosing medical evidence under this Part of the Order shall do so by furnishing copies of any relevant medical report or reports, together with any documents emanating from the maker of the report which are intended by him to accompany or supplement any such report, or a document containing a sufficient record of any such evidence as is referred to in the definition of medical evidence in rule 35(2). All such reports or other documents shall be signed and dated by the relevant medical expert and shall specify his professional qualifications.

(2) On the ex parte application of any party bound to serve or disclose any medical report under this Order, the judge or district judge as the case may be may give him leave—

- (i) to adduce at the hearing the evidence contained in any report without serving or disclosing the report; or
- (ii) to omit or amend any part of any report when serving or disclosing the report.

Variation between evidence disclosed and evidence at hearing

45. Where a party's medical evidence at the hearing varies from the evidence which that party has disclosed to another party, the judge or district judge may on the application of any party adjourn the hearing or make any such order, on such terms as to costs and otherwise, as to the judge or district judge may seem appropriate.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

PART V

CLINICAL NEGLIGENCE ACTIONS

Application

46. This Part of this Order applies to proceedings for damages in respect of personal injury which are grounded on an allegation of clinical negligence.

Disclosure of medical evidence on the issue of liability

47.—(1) Where more than one party to such an action proposes to adduce at the hearing medical evidence obtained from any medical expert on the issue of liability, each party shall—

- (i) insofar as they then have in their possession or power that evidence, disclose it to the other party or parties simultaneously within 28 days after service of the notice of intention to defend; and
- (ii) insofar as any party thereafter obtains any such evidence before the date of the hearing, disclose it to the other party or parties within 21 days of receiving it and in any case before the hearing.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (1) shall be interpreted as imposing an obligation on any party to disclose evidence obtained from any medical expert on liability except where the party or parties to whom disclosure is to be made is also relying on such evidence and simultaneous exchange is to take place.

Disclosure of medical evidence on the issue of damages

48.—(1) Where the plaintiff proposes to adduce at the hearing medical evidence obtained from any medical expert for the purpose of assisting the judge or district judge in assessing damages, he shall—

- (i) insofar as he then has in his possession or power that evidence, disclose it to the other party or parties within 14 days after service upon him of the defendant's notice of intention to defend; and
- (ii) insofar as he thereafter obtains any such evidence before the date of the hearing, disclose it to the other party or parties within 21 days of receiving it and in any case before the hearing.

(2) Where the defendant or any other party proposes to adduce at the hearing medical evidence obtained from any medical expert for the purpose of assisting the judge or district judge in assessing damages, he shall—

- (i) insofar as he then has in his possession or power that evidence, disclose it to the plaintiff and any other party or parties within 28 days after service of the notice of intention to defend; and
- (ii) insofar as he thereafter obtains any such evidence before the date of hearing, disclose it to the plaintiff and any other party or parties within 21 days of receiving it and in any case before the hearing.”

1. If claim is settled and attendance of applicant's solicitor is not required at court for purpose of obtaining a decree, 85% only of costs in columns (2) and (3) are payable, unless the parties otherwise agree or the judge orders.

2. Where the respondent has before the hearing of an application in court made an unconditional offer in writing to pay a specified amount for compensation and the compensation awarded by the judge does not exceed such amount, only 50% of the costs in columns (2) and (3) are payable. Such written offer must be served on the applicant in accordance with section 24 of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954 not less than fourteen days before the commencement of the actual hearing by the judge. The amount specified in the offer shall not be communicated to the judge until after he has determined the amount awarded.

3. Where the case is of exceptional complexity or difficulty, and in any event, taking into account the role of counsel and the nature and content of the proceedings, the judge may certify an amount exceeding scale figure.

4. Where the judge considers that it was proper for the applicant to instruct senior as well as junior counsel, he may certify counsel's fees and solicitor's costs in such sum as he considers appropriate.

5. Where the amount awarded exceeds £10,000, the judge shall, unless the parties otherwise agree, certify the amount for solicitor's costs and the amount allowed for counsel's fees.

RESPONDENT'S COSTS

Where an application for compensation is dismissed the amount recoverable by the respondent for solicitor's costs or counsel's fees shall, in default of agreement, be such amount, if any, as the judge may settle.

NOTE:

1. Subject to the discretion of the judge to certify otherwise, the scale of counsel's fees in column (3) above relates only to the item or items in dispute and not to the value of the claim as a whole.
2. Where a case is settled more than 2 days prior to the court hearing, 85% of the appropriate amount in column (3) of the above table is payable as counsel's fees.
3. Where the judge considers it was proper for an applicant to instruct senior as well as junior counsel, the senior counsel's fee will be one and a half times the appropriate figure in column (3) of the above table.
4. Where the amount awarded is in excess of £1,000,000 the judge shall, unless the parties otherwise agree, certify the amount of solicitor's costs and the amount allowed for counsel's fees.
5. Where the case is one of exceptional complexity or difficulty the judge may certify an amount exceeding the scale figures in columns (2) or (3) of the above table.
6. Nothing in this table or note shall derogate from the provisions of Rule 4 of Order 54 or Article 15(3) of the Criminal Damage (Compensation) (Northern Ireland) Order 1977(5).
7. The scale of solicitor's costs in column (2) of the above table is inclusive of any costs (but not expenses) payable under Article 12(2) of the Criminal Damage (Compensation) (Northern Ireland) Order 1977 in respect of making out and verifying the claim to compensation up to the date of the Secretary of State's determination.

8. (a) Where a solicitor conducts an appeal without counsel he shall, if the judge so allows, be entitled to an enhancement of his costs in addition to the scale costs in column (2) of the above table; and

(b) the amount of any enhancement shall be in the discretion of the judge, but shall not exceed 50% of the scale fee in column (3) of the above table to which counsel, if conducting the appeal, would have been entitled.

RESPONDENT'S COSTS

1. Where an appeal is dismissed, the judge may order the appellant to pay the Secretary of State an amount for his solicitor's costs or counsel's fees.

2. Where he does so, that amount shall, in default of agreement, be such as the judge may determine, whether equal to or less than the costs actually incurred or the fees paid by the Secretary of State in resisting the appeal.

NOTE:

1. Where a case is settled more than 2 days prior to the court hearing, 85% of the appropriate amount in column (3) of the above table is payable as counsel's fee.
2. Where the judge considers it was proper for an applicant to instruct senior as well as junior counsel, the senior counsel's fee will be one and a half times the appropriate figure in column (3) of the above table.
3. Where the amount awarded is in excess of £250,000 the judge shall, unless the parties otherwise agree, certify the amount of solicitor's costs and the amount allowed for counsel's fees.
4. Where the case is one of exceptional complexity or difficulty the judge may certify an amount exceeding the scale figures in columns (2) or (3) of the above table.
5. Nothing in this table or note shall derogate from the provisions of Rule 4 of Order 54 or Article 16(3) of the Criminal Injuries (Compensation) (Northern Ireland) Order 1988(6).
6. The scale of solicitor's costs in column (2) of the above table is inclusive of any costs (but not expenses) payable under Article 13(2) of the Criminal Injuries (Compensation) (Northern Ireland) Order 1988 in respect of making out and verifying the claim to compensation up to the date of the Secretary of State's determination.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

7. (a) Where a solicitor conducts an appeal without counsel he shall, if the judge so allows, be entitled to an enhancement of his costs in addition to the scale costs in column (2) of the above table; and

(b) the amount of any enhancement so allowed shall be in the discretion of the judge, but shall not exceed 50% of the scale fee in column (3) of the above table to which counsel, if conducting the appeal, would have been entitled.

RESPONDENT'S COSTS

1. Where an appeal is dismissed, the judge may order the appellant to pay to the Secretary of State an amount for his solicitor's costs or counsel's fee.

2. Where he does so, that amount shall, in default of agreement, be such as the judge may determine, whether equal to or less than the costs actually incurred or the fees paid by the Secretary of State in resisting the appeal.

Party and party costs in appeals under section 55(4) of the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 and under paragraph (5) of Schedule 12 to the Terrorism Act 2000

NOTES:

1. Subject to the discretion of the judge to certify otherwise, the scale of counsel's fees in column (3) above relates only to the item or items the subject of the appeal and not to the value of the claim as a whole.

2. Where a case is settled more than 2 days prior to the court hearing, 85% of the appropriate amount in column (3) of the above table is payable as counsel's fees.

3. Where the judge considers it was proper for an appellant to instruct senior as well as junior counsel, the senior counsel's fee will be one and a half times the appropriate figure in column (3) of the above table.

4. Where the amount awarded is in excess of £50,000 the judge shall, unless the parties otherwise agree, certify the amount of solicitor's costs and the amount allowed for counsel's fees.

5. Where the case is one of exceptional complexity or difficulty the judge may certify an amount exceeding the scale figures in columns (2) or (3) of the above table.

6. Nothing in this table or note shall derogate from the provisions of Rule 4 of Order 54.

7. The scale of solicitor's costs in column (2) above is inclusive of any costs (but not expenses) payable by the Secretary of State in respect of making out and verifying the claim to compensation up to the date of service of notice of the Secretary of State's decision under section 55(4) of the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996⁽⁷⁾ or under paragraph 4 of Schedule 12 to the Terrorism Act 2000⁽⁸⁾.

8. Where an appeal under section 55(4) of the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 or under paragraph 5 of Schedule 12 to the Terrorism Act 2000 is in respect of an act authorised by or on behalf of the Secretary of State under section 26(2) of the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1996 or under section 91 of the Terrorism Act 2000 and the judge considers that the scale of costs in this Schedule is inappropriate, the amount of solicitor's costs or of counsel's fees shall be at the discretion of the judge and, unless the parties otherwise agree, he shall certify the amount he allows for such costs and fees.

9. (a) Where a solicitor conducts an appeal without counsel he shall, if the judge so allows, be entitled to an enhancement of his costs in addition to the scale costs in column (2) of the above table; and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) the amount of any enhancement so allowed shall be in the discretion of the judge, but shall not exceed 50% of the scale fee in column (3) of the above table to which counsel, if conducting the appeal, would have been entitled.

RESPONDENT'S COSTS

1. Where an appeal is dismissed, the judge may order the appellant to pay to the Secretary of State an amount for his solicitor's costs or counsel's fee.
2. Where he does so, that amount shall, in default of agreement, be such as the judge may determine, whether equal to or less than the costs actually incurred or the fees paid by the Secretary of State in resisting the appeal.

PART VIII

Equity and Title suits

1. Subject to the judge or district judge's discretion, the following Rules shall be applicable to the costs of equity and title suits and proceedings under Articles 13 and 14 of the Order.
2. In equity and title matters solicitor's costs and counsel's fees shall be determined in accordance with Tables 1 and 2 respectively.

exceeds £35,000 but not £45,000	£362	£369	£900	£917

3. For the purpose of ascertaining the appropriate scale the value of any lands not valued by a court valuer or sold in the course of the proceedings shall, subject to any direction of the judge or district judge, be taken to be 0.0163 times their capital value or ten times their net annual value.

4. Where the subject of the proceedings is under the Rates (Northern Ireland) Order 1977 property which is not treated as a hereditament, its value shall, where the property is not valued by a court valuer or sold in the course of the proceedings be taken, subject to any direction of the judge or district judge, to be an amount which is equal to 0.0652 times or forty times the amount which the Commissioner of Valuation certifies would be entered in a valuation list as its capital or net annual value respectively if it were so treated and if it had been valued under the enactments repealed by that Order.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Part, the judge or district judge may in any case direct that any of the scales prescribed in this Part be wholly or partly applicable for the determination of the costs of any party thereto.

6. Where, having regard to the work actually performed, the amounts provided under the relevant scale are in the opinion of the judge or district judge inadequate, he may for any particular case make a special order allowing such costs and expenses as he may think just.

7. The value of the subject matter of any suit for the purpose of stamp duties and for the allowance of costs and expenses shall in case of dispute be assessed by the judge or district judge.

8. Where a suit is terminated by settlement or other arrangement at any time before the final decree, the judge or district judge may order such allowance in respect of costs and expenses of either or any of the parties as in his opinion, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the case, may seem just.

9. The costs of separate appearances by counsel or solicitor for parties whose interests are not antagonistic shall not be allowed, nor shall more than one set of costs be allowed for any parties for whom the judge or district judge is of the opinion that separate appearances were unnecessary.

10. Where in a mortgage suit the defendant, either before the hearing or within the time fixed by the primary decree, pays the amount due for principal and interest together with all costs due up to the date of payment, such costs shall be ascertained by reference to the amount due at the commencement of the proceedings and not by reference to the value of the lands.

11. Counsel travelling to attend court—

(a) 20 to 50 miles from the Head Post Office, Belfast, is entitled to an additional sum of £23.00;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) more than 50 miles from the Head Post Office, Belfast, is entitled to an additional sum of £46.00.

Solicitor travelling to attend a court—

- (a) 20 to 50 miles from the solicitor’s office or, where the solicitor’s firm practises from more than one office, from the office which dealt with the proceedings is entitled to an additional sum of £23.00;
- (b) more than 50 miles from the solicitor’s office or, where the solicitor’s firm practises from more than one office, from the office which dealt with the proceedings is entitled to an additional sum of £46.00.

Where a solicitor or counsel has conducted more than one case on the same day at the same venue, this fee may be claimed once only and the fee shall be divided proportionately over the number of cases conducted by the solicitor or counsel.

12. For each day or part of a day on which a trial or hearing is continued after the first day a solicitor in attendance is entitled to an additional sum equivalent to 50% of solicitor’s scale fee on the amount claimed/decreed (as appropriate) not exceeding £600 and counsel is entitled to an additional sum of 50% of counsel’s scale fee on the amount claimed/decreed (as appropriate).

PART IX

Miscellaneous Costs

INTERPLEADER PROCEEDINGS

The costs under Order 10 shall be in accordance with the foregoing Rules and Tables so far as appropriate and subject to any direction by the judge or district judge.
