EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations set out the matters a district council must notify, and the documents it must send, to the person responsible for maintaining the Register of Licences under Article 34 of the Licensing (Northern Ireland) Order 1996 (licences permitting premises to sell intoxicating liquor by retail to the public) in relation to a relevant pavement café licence. It also sets out the matters the person responsible for maintaining the Register of Licences must record in the register and the documents that must be kept.
