(2) A scheme must specify in respect of any year to which it relates the amount of, or means to ascertain the amount of,—

- (a) basic allowance; and
- (b) special responsibility allowance and, where different amounts apply to different responsibilities, the amount or means to ascertain the amount applicable to each.

(6) When a scheme is revoked in accordance with this regulation, a council shall, before the revocation takes effect, make a further scheme for the period beginning with the date on which the revocation takes effect and ending at the end of the year in question.

Basic allowance

(3) Any claim for payment of travel and subsistence allowances in accordance with these Regulations (excluding claims for travel by means of a private motor vehicle) shall be accompanied by appropriate receipts proving actual expenses, subject to any requirement or limitation that a council may determine.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision for the payment of allowances to councillors under section 31(1), (3), (4) and section 43(2) of the Local Government Finance Act (Northern Ireland) 2011 (2011 c.10 (N.I.)).

The Regulations are divided into three Parts.

Part 1 deals with citation and commencement of the Regulations, and interpretation of some of the terms used in the Regulations.

Part 2 deals with a council's scheme of allowances and details the allowances payable to councillors.

Regulation 3 requires a council to make a scheme for the payment of allowances to councillors and committee members in respect of each year.

Regulation 4 requires a scheme to provide for the payment of a basic allowance for service as a councillor, within the basic allowance limit set by the Department.

Regulation 5 requires a scheme to provide for the payment of an allowance (in addition to the basic allowance) if the council is satisfied that a councillor has special responsibilities in relation to the discharge of the council's functions. The Department sets maximum limits for the total amount a council may spend on special responsibility allowances and a subsequent limit that any councillor may only receive up to one fifth of that amount. The maximum limits are based on the population size of each council.

Regulation 6 requires a scheme to provide for an allowance to councillors towards expenses for the care of their children or dependants as are necessarily incurred in the carrying out of an approved duty.

Regulation 7 requires a scheme to provide for payment to councillors and committee members for expenditure on travel or subsistence as necessarily incurred in the carrying out of an approved duty.

Part 3 deals with administrative arrangements.

Regulation 8 requires a councillor entitled to a dependants' carers' allowance, or a councillor or committee member entitled to a travel or subsistence allowance, to make a claim for such an allowance as the council may direct.

Regulation 9 requires a claim for dependants' carers' allowance, or travel or subsistence allowances, to be submitted within 3 months from the date on which the approved duty to which the claim relates was performed.

Regulation 10 requires a council to keep a record of the payments made by it in accordance with the Regulations or any scheme made pursuant to the Regulations. The record must provide the name of the recipient and the amount and nature of each payment and be available, at all reasonable times, for inspection free of charge.

Regulation 11 requires a council to arrange for the scheme of payments, as soon as practicable after its making or amendment, to be published on its website and to make such other arrangements for the scheme's publication within the council's district as it considers appropriate. As soon as practicable at the end of the year to which a scheme relates, a council is required to publish on its website the total paid in that year to each councillor in respect of basic allowance, special responsibility allowance and dependants' carers' allowance, and the total paid in that year to each councillor or committee member in respect of travel and subsistence.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Regulation 12 revokes the previous Local Government (Payments to Councillors) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2012; with the saving that the revoked provisions shall continue to have effect in relation to claims made for allowances or other payments in respect of duties performed before these Regulations come into operation.
