Application

3.—(1) These Regulations shall apply to applicants, and in relation to the holdings of such applicants, to the specified extent.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) above, “the specified extent”, in relation to an applicant, is the extent to which the Scottish Ministers are the relevant competent authority (within the meaning of the IACS Regulations) in relation to the holding of that applicant for the purposes of the IACS Regulations.

Applications for premium etc.

4.—(1) For the purpose of Article 6(2)(b) of Council Regulation 1254/1999, the total individual reference quantity which must not be exceeded shall be 180,000 kilograms of milk or milk products.

(2) For the purpose of Article 30(2) of Commission Regulation 2342/1999, the period in each calendar year during which an application for premium may be submitted shall be the period from and including 1st July to and including 6th December in that calendar year.

(3) A producer shall not be entitled to submit more than one application for premium during any one calendar year.

(4) Where, in respect of any particular calendar year, a number of applications for premium are submitted by persons who have in respect of that year made more than one area aid application under Article 6 of Council Regulation (EEC) No 3508/92 but who are regarded as a single farmer within the meaning of Article 1(4) of that Regulation, the applications concerned shall be deemed to be a single application made by one producer for the purposes of paragraph (3).

- (ii) the application the applicant is deemed to have made as aforesaid shall for the purposes of paragraph (3) be regarded as the same as the application made by that person and which attracted that additional payment; and
- (iii) the additional payment shall for the purposes of regulations 5 to 15 be regarded as a payment of that premium.

Overgrazing

5.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), where, in the year preceding the opening date for submitting claims for premium in respect of any given scheme year, the Scottish Ministers are of the opinion that any parcel of land is being overgrazed, they may serve on the occupier a written notice specifying the maximum number of animals which may be grazed and maintained on that parcel in that scheme year.

(2) The maximum number referred to in paragraph (1) shall be determined by taking into account the number of other animals (expressed in terms of livestock units) likely to be grazed and maintained on the parcel of land concerned in the scheme year in question and having regard to such conditions as may be specified in the notice referred to in paragraph (1).

(3) Where the Scottish Ministers have previously served a notice under paragraph (1) or any of the provisions specified in paragraph (6) in relation to a parcel of land, they may serve a further notice under paragraph (1) in relation thereto without having formed the opinion that it is being overgrazed.

(4) Where the Scottish Ministers have served a notice in relation to a parcel of land under this regulation or any of the provisions specified in paragraph (6), no premium shall be paid in respect of the scheme year for which the notice was issued on any number of premium animals grazed and maintained in that scheme year on the parcel of land to which it relates in excess of the maximum number of such animals specified in the notice.

(5) Where the Scottish Ministers have issued a notification under paragraph (1) and are satisfied that –

- (a) any condition specified in the notice has been breached; or
- (b) more premium animals than the maximum number specified in the notice have been grazed and maintained on the parcel of land to which the notice relates in the scheme year for which the notice was issued,

they may withhold, or may recover on demand as a debt, the whole or any part of the premium otherwise payable or as the case may be already paid to the recipient of the notice for the scheme year to which it relates.

(2) Where the applicant was not penalised for using unsuitable supplementary feeding methods under paragraph (1) nor under any of the provisions specified in paragraph (3) in the preceding Scheme year, the amount of premium referred to in paragraph (1) may be reduced by ten per cent; where the applicant was so penalised in the preceding Scheme year, but not in the Scheme year before that, that amount may be reduced by twenty per cent; and where the applicant was so penalised in each of the two preceding Scheme years that amount may be withheld.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, which come into force on 1st July 2001, replace the provisions of the Suckler Cow Premium Regulations 1993 (S.I. 1993/1441) and the Suckler Cow Premium (Amendment) Regulations 1994 to 1997 (S.I. 1994/1528, 1995/15, 1995/1446, 1996/1488, and 1997/249).

The Regulations lay down implementing measures for the suckler cow premium scheme provided for in Article 6 of Council Regulation (EC) No. 1254/1999 on the common organisation of the market in beef and veal. They provide for the administration of the scheme in relation to applicants and their holdings where those holdings are situated wholly in Scotland, and also holdings situated partly in Scotland and partly elsewhere in the United Kingdom, where the Scottish Ministers are responsible for processing the farmer's claim for suckler cow premium (regulations 3 to 6). They also lay down enforcement provisions applicable where the Scottish Ministers have such responsibility (regulations 8 to 15).

The rules relating to administration provide for the submission of applications for suckler cow premium (regulation 4) and the retention of records by applicants (regulation 7), impose sanctions for overgrazing and the use of unsuitable supplementary feeding methods (which are included as a condition of the scheme by virtue of Article 3 of Council Regulation (EC) No. 1259/1999 establishing common rules for direct support schemes under the common agricultural policy) (regulations 5 and 6) and provide for withholding or recovery of suckler cow premium where there is a breach of the rules of the scheme (regulations 10 and 11).

The enforcement provisions confer powers of entry, inspection and collection of evidence on authorised persons (regulations 8 and 9). These include the powers required under Article 6 of Commission Regulation (EEC) No. 3887/92 laying down detailed rules for applying the integrated administration and control system for certain Community aid schemes. Regulations 12 to 15 deal with offences and penalties.

No Regulatory Impact Assessment has been prepared in respect of these Regulations.
