PART A – Your details

Please use this Part to provide the relevant details in the correct boxes. Police Scotland will need to verify your identity and it is important to provide correct contact details so you can be contacted regarding your claim(s) for compensation. Your phone number can be a landline or mobile.

Part A should include an email contact address. At the present time, some Scottish Government staff may still be working from home, and contact by email rather than by post will avoid any delays in considering claims or paying compensation.

PART B – Your bank account

Under the Surrender and Compensation Scheme, only legitimate and eligible owners of offensive weapons are entitled to financial compensation to cover the value of any item surrendered.

The Scottish Government has published a values list containing the standard amount of compensation that will be paid to the lawful owners of items that are surrendered to Police Scotland under this scheme.

If you consider that your item is worth more than the standard amount of compensation published, it is open to you to make a claim for the higher amount and if you wish to do so you must provide acceptable supporting evidence of this value. This evidence, which must be submitted at the time of surrendering the item to Police Scotland, will be forwarded to the Scottish Government for consideration alongside a copy of your compensation claim. The amount of compensation due to you will be decided by the Scottish Government. If your claim is for over £250 for any single item it is recommended that you provide a photograph of the item along with the evidence of its value.

If you wish to receive payment by BACS you must complete Part B of this form in order to receive payment.

If you would rather be paid by cheque you do not need to complete Part B of this form and payment will be made using the details provided in Part A of this this form.

PART C – Declaration

You are required to complete this Part to confirm that you are the legal owner of the item(s) that you are surrendering, that it was lawfully acquired and that you are eligible to claim compensation, if applicable.

You should have also read and ensured that you understood the guidance for the scheme and the Privacy Information Notice before signing. Signing this Part also signals that you understand that in surrendering the item(s) you relinquish your ownership of the item(s) you are surrendering.

If you are claiming financial compensation, you are also required to use this Part to confirm whether:

- you will accept the compensation value listed in this document for your item(s) under Part D;
- you will not accept the compensation value listed in this document for your item(s) under Part D and are seeking a higher amount;
- you will accept the compensation value listed in this document for some of your item(s) but will not accept the compensation value listed for other item(s) under Part D.

You must tick which box applies to your application.

If you are claiming compensation for an offensive weapon, you must have been the lawful owner on 20 June 2018 (or otherwise lawfully contracted to acquire the weapon on or before that date) unless the item is a cyclone knife or a zombie knife. In the case of a cyclone knife, you must have been the lawful owner on 22 January 2019 (or otherwise lawfully contracted to acquire the weapon on or before that date). In the case of a zombie knife, you must have been the lawful owner on 29 April 2022 (or otherwise lawfully contracted to acquire the weapon on or before that date).

If you acquired any of the above items after the relevant dates, you will still need to safely dispose of the items and should do so by surrendering them to Police Scotland at a designated police station during the 3 month period when the scheme is open. You will not, however, be eligible to claim compensation under this scheme.

Signing the declaration also confirms that you agree that Police Scotland can send on the information contained in this form to the Scottish Government for the purposes of processing any claim that you are making for financial compensation.

If you are seeking more than the standard value compensation, you must complete these Parts to state the value you believe the item to be worth and to confirm that you have provided evidence to support this value. If you are claiming more than £250 for any offensive weapon, it is recommended that the supporting evidence you provide includes a photograph of the weapon.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Criminal Justice Act 1988 (Offensive Weapons) (Scotland) Order 2005 (“the 2005 Order”).

Section 141(1) of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 (“the 1988 Act”) makes it an offence to manufacture, sell or hire, or offer for sale or hire, expose or have in a person’s possession for the purpose of sale or hire, or lend or give to any other person, a weapon to which that section applies. Section 46 of the Offensive Weapons Act 2019 will amend section 141 of the 1988 Act to make it an offence to possess a weapon to which section 141 of the 1988 Act applies on domestic premises. The schedule of the 2005 Order specifies the descriptions of weapons to which section 141 of the 1988 Act applies.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Article 2 of this Order adds the weapon sometimes known as a “zombie knife”, “zombie killer knife”, or “zombie slayer knife” to the descriptions of weapons set out in the schedule of the 2005 Order.

Article 3 provides that the Scottish Ministers may make arrangements for the surrender of zombie knives at designated police stations. The Chief Constable of Police Scotland will designate police stations at which zombie knives can be surrendered .

Article 4 makes provision as to the standard level of compensation payments which are to be made in respect of weapons surrendered in accordance with arrangements made under article 3(1). It also makes provision as to eligibility for compensation.

Article 5 provides for police officers accepting the surrendered items to issue a receipt. Article 6 provides for a claim to be submitted where the item has been surrendered, and for a claim form to be transmitted to the Scottish Ministers (with the schedule setting out the claim form to be used). Article 7 provides for determination of claims and payments by the Scottish Ministers. No payment is due for claims amounting to less than £30. In determining the value of a claim, the Scottish Ministers may take into account weapons surrendered under arrangements made under section 48 of the Offensive Weapons Act 2019 for which compensation is claimed under the Surrender of Offensive Weapons (Compensation) (Scotland) Regulations 2022.
