

Legislative Reform Measure 2018

2018 No. 5

General and final provisions

9 Orders

- (1) An order under section 1 or 8 may contain consequential, supplementary, incidental, transitional, transitory or saving provision (including provision which amends, repeals or revokes an enactment or other provision).
- (2) Where an order under section 1 or 8 amends, repeals or revokes a provision which extends to the Isle of Man, the order may provide for the amendment, repeal or revocation—
 - (a) to have effect in the Isle of Man without exceptions, adaptations or modifications,
 - (b) to have effect in the Isle of Man subject to such exceptions, adaptations or modifications as the order specifies, or
 - (c) not to have effect in the Isle of Man.
- (3) An amendment, repeal or revocation made by an order under section 1 or 8 to a provision which extends to the Isle of Man is also subject to such exceptions, adaptations or modifications as an Act of Tynwald, or an instrument made under an Act of Tynwald, may specify; and such provision may have effect in addition to, or instead of, provision made in the order for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section.
- (4) The power to make an order under section 1 or 8 is exercisable by statutory instrument; and the Statutory Instruments Act 1946 applies—
 - (a) as if the order had been made by a Minister of the Crown, and
 - (b) as if this Measure were an Act of Parliament providing for the instrument containing the order to be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

10 Sunset

- (1) Sections 1 to 7 expire at the end of the period of five years beginning with the day on which the first draft order under section 1 is laid before the General Synod.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) But the Archbishops' Council may by order provide that sections 1 to 7—
 - (a) are not to expire at the time when they would otherwise expire under subsection (1) or under the most recent order made under this section, and
 - (b) are instead to continue in force after that time either indefinitely or for such period as the order specifies.
- (3) If sections 1 to 7 expire by virtue of this section, the words “1 or” in each place they appear in section 9 are repealed in consequence.
- (4) An order under this section may contain transitional, transitory or saving provision.
- (5) An order under this section must be laid before the General Synod and does not come into force unless—
 - (a) it is approved by the General Synod, and
 - (b) it is approved by Parliament in accordance with subsection (6).
- (6) The power to make an order under this section is exercisable by statutory instrument; and the Statutory Instruments Act 1946 applies—
 - (a) as if the order had been made by a Minister of the Crown, and
 - (b) as if this Measure were an Act of Parliament providing for the order not to be made unless a draft of the instrument containing the order has been laid before and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.

11 Short title, commencement and extent

- (1) This Measure may be cited as the Legislative Reform Measure 2018.
- (2) This Measure comes into force on the day on which it is passed.
- (3) This Measure extends to—
 - (a) the whole of the province of Canterbury, except the Channel Islands (subject to subsection (4)), and
 - (b) the whole of the province of York, including the Isle of Man.
- (4) This Measure may be applied to the Channel Islands or either of them in accordance with the Channel Islands (Church Legislation) Measures 1931 and 1957; and a reference in this section to the Channel Islands or either of them has the same meaning as a reference in those Measures to the Islands or either of them.
